

THE best suit styles we have are those which are made for men of any age; not too extreme for the dignified, substantial business man; but smart enough, with just enough snappy detail to please the young fellows whose tastes are not too extreme.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

know, better than any other makers, just how to design such models; they're clothes that have all the requirements; perfectly tailored to fit.

We'll show you some great values at $25. Some at less; some at more.

New Empire Saloon.—John Wason has filed an application with the Empire city council for a license for a new saloon, making the fourth third emporium there. There is no limit on the number there and it is expected that his license will be granted. It is said that four saloons were the most ever permitted in Empire, even in its palmiest days.

Families Arrive.—Mrs. O. Hibarger and son, C. F. Hibarger, and his wife arrived here yesterday, from North Yakima, Wash., to join Mr. Hibarger, who came here recently. Mr. Hibarger, Sr., is a contractor and has decided to locate here, being induced to come to Coos Bay by E. B. Jones. They have leased Mrs. Farringer's cottage on Central avenue west, which was recently vacated by F. D. Cohan.

Returns to Bay.—Bob Breen, a well-known Coos Bayite, has returned from the Sluslaw where he has been working on the jetty for several months. He was doubtful about their being able to save the Anvil, even though they got her into deep water, her seams having opened up. Mr. Breen won lasting fame on Coos Bay about 25 years ago when he and John Bergman rowed out in a fishing boat and rescued a dozen or fourteen off the Tacoma when she was wrecked, and for which Congress voted him a hero's medal.
