NEW DANCING CLUB
 Arrangements are being made for the organization of a new dancing and social club in Marshfield to consist of twenty or thirty couples of well known folks. It has been under consideration for some time but will not be organized for another week or two and possibly not until after a dance, which is to be given May 6th. It will be known as a "Shirt Waist Ball," and while informal, is expected to be as thoroughly enjoyable as the masquerade, which they gave a few weeks ago in the Finnish hall. Among the moving spirits in it are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bradfield, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Fenton, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Harvey and others, including a number of the younger folk.

IRISH CROCHET CLUB
 The Irish Crochet club will meet next Friday afternoon with Mrs. Hendry at her home in Ferndale.

JOLLY DOZEN
 The Jolly Dozen club met this week at the home of Mrs. W. F. Squire of Bunker Hill. There was the usual business meeting and the afternoon's entertainment was furnished by Mrs. W. T. Gale in the form of games and readings, after which the members enjoyed refreshments.
 Those present were:
