NEWS OF NEARBY TOWNS

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of City-by-the-Sea as Told by The Recorder.

The Randolph left here Friday afternoon on a voyage to Astoria, arriving here on her return trip Monday noon with a cargo of canner supplies for Rogue River. This is one of the quickest trips on record and Captain Anderson is eternally demonstrating the fact that there are no flies on the Randolph. He is detained at this port waiting for better water on Rogue River bar.

Mrs. Antoinette Ruth Culbertson died at the Bandon Hospital last Thursday morning after an illness lasting but a few hours. She was a bride of but seven months and came with her husband, Wm. Culbertson, to Prosper on January 28.

The Speedwell's cargo consists of 17,000 ties, 14,000 feet of lumber and 130 poles.

Nels Nielson, the Prosper ship builder, will soon commence the construction of a large scow for use on the Siuslaw.

Married—At Bandon, April 20, by Rev. C. H. Barklow, Arthur Baird, of Randolph, and Miss Molly Hoover, of this city.

The Louvre was the scene Sunday evening of some of the best singlefooting ever seen in Bandon. Art. Coach, though it is not generally known, is certainly the premier danseuse of Bandon. His Salome, skirt dance and Bandon Rag are about the proper caper and the music furnished by Prof. Horn did not detract any from its spectacular effect.

A suit of considerable magnitude has been filed by the heirs of the Coach estate against Geo. W. Moore and the Cody Lumber Company for money due on account. These people are logging on the Coach tract on Lampa Creek and the controversy is over a settlement for stumpage.

Game Warden Baker arrested a party at Sixes River yesterday who very closely resembled J. Rufus Wallingford (Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford) but who turned out to be Mr. C. W. Burgess of the A. P. Estabrook Company. The charge, however, was not for getting rich quick, but for getting fish quick, as it is related that he was damming up the river with the intention of getting all the fish therein.

Louis Marsh, who has been critically ill at the Emergency Hospital for some weeks past, while not yet out of danger, is reported on the improve.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

News of Upper Valley as Told by The Herald.

Judges and clerks of election for the city election to be held on May 12th were named as follows: J. F. Schroeder, L. Harlocker and E. W. Ferris, Judges; Walter Oeding, A. B. Collier and Ben Currie, clerks.

Geo. C. Thersault, of Aason's camp has bought the skookum restaurant of C. A. Harrington and will take possession Thursday.

The steamer Brooklyn has taken a contract to bring up a large amount of freight for the development work in southern Curry county, which will tax her capacity for some time, so that she will be bringing up no freight for this port.

Some time ago, R. S. Knowlton gave to the different schools in the territory tributary to Coquille some extra fine calendars bearing a reproduction of Thos. Moran's great painting of the Yellowstone Canyon, offering at the same time three prizes to the pupils writing the best essays on the subject illustrated by the painting. The essays were submitted to Supt. Raab, of the North Bend schools, who with Grace Williams of the sixth grade, and A. S. Hisey of the department of language, of the same school, made the award of prizes. Leanna Curry, eighth grade, Coquille, took the first prize, a Waterman fountain pen; Mary Fusonne, eighth grade, Coquille, second prize, a book; Reiva Pinkstone, Fishtrap school, third prize, a box of stationery.

ROL ANDERSON'S CASE.

Logging Wreck Victim Will Have to Undergo Much Grafting.

Rol Anderson, the sole survivor of the disastrous railroad wreck which occurred on the Seely-Anderson road last November, is undergoing another siege of skin grafting at the hands of Dr. Mann at the Emergency Hospital. There yet remains to be covered with new skin about a square foot of the surface. The patient is gradually regaining strength and his recovery is now almost an assured fact.—Bandon Surf.

BANDON BAR IMPROVEMENT.

Donald Charlson, chief engineer in charge of the government works on Coos Bay and the Coquille River paid the Surf office a pleasant call Saturday. Mr. Charlson is enthusiastic over the possibilities of our harbor and it is confident that it could be made one of the best on the coast. Government aid is necessary, however, in bringing this about, and he maintains that to obtain the recognition of the government we must agitate the matter and keep everlasting after our congressman. One more good appropriation will fix our bar just right. Let's go after it.—Bandon Surf.

NEWS AT EUGENE.

Southern Pacific Will Build Big Shops at Springfield.

The Eugene Guard says, "Fuller & Bain today shipped supplies to camp No. 18, at Portola, where there is considerable work to be done on a cut. The drag line scraper, commonly known as the 'glommer,' will be put in operation on the cut this week.

Plans are being prepared by the Southern Pacific for a large shop to be located at Springfield, about three miles from Eugene. The proposed shops will not replace the Southern Pacific shops in Southeast Portland, but the intention is to operate them as division shops, with the main plant for the heavier work at Springfield. The matter is yet in embryonic state and no time has been fixed for the beginning of development of the project."

WIRELESS AT BANDON.

The wireless telegraph operators of the various steamers running into this port have been making a series of experiments independent of the stations aboard their boats and Tuesday Messrs. Mansfield of the Speedwell and W. D. Cornish of the Field established a temporary experimental station in the basement of the lightkeepers residence on the north beach. Messages were read distinctly coming within a 600 mile radius. The Marshfield wireless station has never proved quite a success, due perhaps to its secluded position, but a station on any exposed point on the Bandon coast would catch anything up to the capacity of the instrument.—Bandon Surf.

TROUBLE AT COQUILLE.

Strong Vice Petition to be Presented to George Brown.

The Coquille Herald says: "A petition has been circulated and quite numerous signed in town, addressed to 'Prosecuting Attorney Geo. M. Brown, urging the prosecution of all cases of vice and assuring the officer of the sympathy and support of the signers in any effort he may make in that direction. It is to be hoped that no copies of this petition may find their way to the outside world, for the picture herein drawn of the moral atmosphere of this city would be enough to turn away any one who had thought of bringing a wife or family here to make a home. The fact that the petition is signed by people well up in the community would be taken as a proof that moral conditions are somewhat below those of the late lamented Barbary Coast in San Francisco, which was supposed to be about the wickedest place in the world. Now this may be true—these people ought to know—but with all due respect for the religious and educational lights who make the assertion, the editor of the Herald most emphatically disbelieves it."

ELK FOR DOUGLAS COUNTY

Goes to Washington to Secure Herd of Native Elk.

PORTLAND, Or., April 24.—William L. Finlay, state game warden, has returned from Southern Oregon, where he had been giving lectures before the gun clubs of Roseburg, Riddle, Grants Pass, Rogue River, Ashland and Medford. His object was to organize gun clubs and get their co-operation in abiding with the state game laws. He says the gunmen of Southern Oregon are strongly in favor of better game protection. Binger Hermann, former Congressman, will go to Washington, where he will take steps toward bringing several car loads of elk into the Umpqua country. Mr. Finlay says the gunmen of the Umpqua country want better protection for the deer in that section and as a step in that direction they have elected their own game warden, who will serve under a $500 bond to enforce the game laws. Many deer have been killed in the last three years and he found public sentiment strongly in favor of better protection.

NEWS OF EARLY DAYS.

(From the Coos Bay News, published at Marshfield, April 21, 1880.—Signin & Bennett publishers.)

The Little Annie, on the Coquille is laid up. No steamer now running on the river.

We notice some peach trees in bloom in town. This spring is at least a month later than usual.

The work of sinking and filling in the cribs is progressing slow on account of stormy weather.

Mr. Bunch has purchased property for a mill site at Coquille City, and intends erecting a sawmill this summer.

Workingmen on the bar improvement are receiving $3 per day, mechanics, $4.50, but the work is required to go on wet or dry.

Diphtheria is raging to considerable extent on the Coquille. The families of Messrs. Hamlin, Wright and Snyder each lost one of their children.

Thos. Hall, who was accidentally shot through the side a week ago last Saturday, is able to be about again, and has gone home. The bullet traversed the flesh about six inches, entering near the spine. Dr. Golden attended him.

Springer, of the I. T. R. R., had a little unpleasantness with Geo. Roberts. Springer made a remark that sounded like "nough," whereupon George suspended hostilities, when Springer again opened upon his works, an action of which he repented in a very limited time.

The cribs are being put in place, and the bottom instead of being sand as was anticipated, is solid rock, a much more favorable condition than was calculated on. Instead of six cribs, the present appropriation of $40,000 is deemed to be sufficient to place twelve cribs in place and fill in the necessary rock, thus making a sea wall 600 feet long.

John Fishburn, a fellow under surveillance for some time past, is in jail on a charge of robbing W. H. Wetsell's saloon in Empire City a few weeks ago. George Barrett is also accused of being a participant in the crime, but the accusation of the latter rests entirely upon the statement of one of the prisoners after the transaction. It appears that this Fishburn has been engaged in despoiling Indian graves for a long time past, it being well known that the Indians are in the habit of burying the valuables of their dead with them. Fishburn needs a long term in the service of the state.

OREGON HUSBANDS WHO NEGLECT FAMILIES ARE DUE FOR IMPRISONMENT.

SALEM, Or., April 24.—Among the laws that will go into effect on the third of June is one that is likely to make shiftless or neglectful husbands sit up and take notice. It provides that "any person who, without just or sufficient cause, shall fail or neglect to support his wife or children, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and shall be punished therefor by confinement in the state prison for not less than one year nor more than three years, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year."

While such a husband is in prison the law provides that the County Court shall pay to his wife the sum of $1 a day and 25c additional for each child, but that not more than $1.75 a day is to be paid to any one wife.

The widows' pension bill also provides that a mother shall receive support for her children when her husband is an inmate of some Oregon institution, but it has been pointed out by Governor West that the laws do not conflict, as the wife whose husband was sent to the penitentiary for non-support would draw pay under the non-support act, which will allow her more than the pension act.

To Men Who Are Still Thinking About Spring Clothes
