and others have been carefully investigating the stone quarries and deposits around Coos River and elsewhere on the Bay. that yesterday they found some hard sand stone, which Mr. Por-ter considered hard and of the de-sired kind.

For some time past local parties have been seeking a stone deposit that would furnish the immense blocks necessary for reconstructing the jetty. Most of the available stone is of the soft sandstone and not desirable.

Mr. Porter is understood to be interested in the stone because he will need considerable for the pler work for the bridge across the Bay they and it might be that Porter Broth- foot ers would take the contract for reconstructing the jetty.

Want Artesian Well. Captain Edgar Simpson and Mr. Crosby, who arrived here with the railroad party, were out today looking over the ground with a view of sinking an artesian well to furnish a water supply for the Simpson mills at North Bend. Mr. Crosby Williams each spoke a school day at North Bend. Mr. Crosby is said to have had considerable experience in drilling in the California oil tields and that he is an expert is shown by his being engaged by the Southern Pacific drilling and difficult testing jobs.

North Bend Deal. The rumor was revived in North Bend again today that the Southern Pacific had purchased the North Bend box factory site from Owner Kern for $78,000. The deal was passed up to the San Francisco orficials a few weeks ago, Mr. Kern going there to negotiate with them No one here had any authentic advices about it.

Sometime ago the Southern Pacific secured a price on the North Bend Condensary plant site but did not take an option and have not informed the owners that they
