ler this morning. He gave his name as Axel Peterson and paid a $5 fine.

Sells Livery—The sale of the bankrupt livery stock of Arthur Blanchard to Conner & Hoagland for $1100 and $50 for the hearse, was approved by the court today.

Buys Lots—John W. Motley today purchased two more lots on Tenth street, just north of Elrod, from the Dominican Fathers. He bought two near them the other day.

Loses Fingers—Chas. Forney, employed at Clarence Gould's camp above Allegany, lost three fingers today, while chopping wood. He was brought to Marshfield for treatment.

Ten Mile Fishing—A. B. Sargent and Mark Scott returned today from Ten Mile, with 28 pounds of trout which they landed there in a little while. They report fishing there fine.

Critically Ill—H. R. Hyde, of Hail avenue, is reported critically ill today and it is feared that he can not survive more than a few days longer at the most. Cancer of the intestines is his affliction.

Will Build—A. O. Rogers, Jr., will soon let the contracts for the erection of two new houses on North Second street, just west of the W. T. Merchant home. They will be modern homes in every particular.

Get Their Dogs—Torston Flesburg and Claude Tucker recovered their lost Spitz dogs in North Bend through want ads in The Times. The Times covers Coos Bay like a blanket. That's why the want ads get results.

Quick Results—Frank Black yesterday inserted a for-rent ad in The Times. Last night before he got his paper, he got an answer to it and soon had the apartment, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Claybaugh, rented to Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sater.

Arbitrating Case—Justice Penock, J. C. Kendall and Justice Shuster, of North Bend, are arbitrating the differences between C. F. McGeorge and O. F. Wallace in their separation in the Marshfield Typewriter Exchange. They expect to get done today.

genson saloon at Bandon when the owner of the latter backed out and now it will have to be fought out in court. In the meantime Mr. Madden will be connected with the former Rasmussen saloon there.

Speeder Arrested—Will Fisher was taken into custody today for speeding and his hearing set for next Monday. He drives a livery auto here.

Phone Trouble—Part of the switchboard of the Coos Bay Home Telephone Company accidentally burned out this morning, crippling the service for a few hours.

Attaches Property—D. B. Fuller, a deputy United States Marshal from Portland, reached Coquille today to serve attachments on the money and property there of J. C. LaFrance, the insurance swindler. This is the second attachment, C. R. Peck having first attached it for the Modern Woodmen, J. C. Wofford, the brother-in-law, who first claimed all the property as his, is now reported to be willing to give up.

Body is Found—Coroner Fred Wilson left this afternoon for Ten Mile in response to a message announcing that the body of Chas. Joanson, the railroad laborer who was lost when a launch upset there a week ago, had been found. No other particulars were given. Mr. Wilson will probably bury the body there. Whether an inquest will be held will depend on developments after he gets there.

Found Keys—E. P. Murdoch, of the Bunker Hill auto line was a happy man this morning, when he secured his bunch of keys that were lost Thursday and found by E. E. Brandt, who sent them to The Times office, where they were restored to the owner Saturday. The ring contained some valuable keys and Mr. Murdoch says would have cost him more than $5.00 to replace. The Times want ads are result-getters and happiness promoters.

Baby is Burned—John Landles, the year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Landles, was quite seriously burned about the hands and face by falling into a bonfire in the back yard that had been started to burn some refuse. Mrs. Landles left the child in charge of one of the other children but the latter ran off and the baby toddled over and fell into the fire. His cries quickly brought his mother, but not until one of his hands was seriously burned. The injuries, although very painful and severe, are not of a critical nature.

Coos County League—R. E. L. Beddison was here between trains today and left this afternoon with Arthur McKeown. It is understood that the Coos County league troubles have been practically adjusted and that the league will be organized with five teams. A conference with Coquille and Myrtle Point representatives will probably be held this afternoon and arrangements made for starting the league at an early date. Instead of deciding by lot as to which of the three valley teams should drop out, making a four team league, it will probably be arranged to play five teams.

Leaves Here—After finishing the closing-out sale of the clothing department of the Bazar today, Mr. E. J. Lutz will sail tomorrow morning on the Alliance for Portland. Mr. Lutz is loud in his praise of Coos Bay. He makes most of the towns in the state in his business and declares that Marshfield is the best of all of them and says that if his plans work out he will engage in business for himself in the near future. Mr. Lutz made many friends on the Bay who will be more than glad to welcome him back as a permanent resident of the community.
