SCHOOL NOTES

PRaises SCHOOLS

The following letter has come to me from Dr. Schafer, of the University of Oregon:
"Dear Supt. Tiedgen, I want to thank you for the delightful afternoon and evening I was permitted to spend in your city and with your school. The impressions I carried away from Marshfield were most flattering to you and your work. I feel that I came in contact there with a distinctly professional spirit. I hope you may be able to continue your work along the same lines until you have definitely committed the Marshfield schools to your advanced pedagogical ideas."

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS

Combined Turner Art Exhibit and School, May 16. Two hundred pictures will be shown.
School work exhibit combined with exhibit of Department Art and Science at high school building, May 9.
Commencement speaker—George Rebec, University of Oregon.
Eighth grade examination May 8 and 9.
Mr. High School Student: Why not pay part of your way through college with stenography and typewriting? Others do it.
Many good things are offered by the colleges to high school graduates who combine some athletic ability with scholarship. Somebody gets these. Why not some student of M. H. S.
Going to college is more a matter of ideals than of pocket-book.
Medals of the declamatory contest will be supplied by Dr. Birch of the Red Cross Drug Store.

HIGH SCHOOL

History Notes.
The Senior class has completed the study of the American Constitution and now are studying the constitution of their own state. A short history of the Northwest and the settlement of Oregon was also taken up.
The Freshman class is studying the transition period following the downfall of the Roman Empire, which will be completed this week, following which the review work will begin.
The Sophomore and Junior classes are both doing review work.
English Department.
Poems by Riley, Field, Sill and Miller have occupied the attention of the Senior class for the past week. In addition to the poems critical articles in the current magazines have been noted.
The Junior class has just finished work on DeQuincy, Macaulay and Lamb. Lamb's Essays were noted in particular.
Scott's "Lady of the Lake," is being studied by the Sophomore class. In addition to this they are writing descriptions and narrations.
The Freshman class is studying Scott's "Ivanhoe." For the past two weeks the different members of the class have told interesting stories of Robin Hood and his outlaws in the Sherwood forest. The class is doing excellent work in story telling.

Botany.

The botany class has begun the classification of wild flowers. A collection of 25 will be pressed and mounted.
Public Speaking.
On Thursday evening, May 8, the Literary Society of the High School will hold its first annual declamatory contest. Those competing for the gold medal are Miss May Myren, Miss Gladys Diment, Miss Mildred Wilson, Miss Evelyn Langworthy, Chester Isaacson, Horace Rahekopf, Howard Swartz and Arthur Kolstadt. There will be no admission fee charged. Parents and students are urgently requested to be present. The contestants have been working hard and considerable healthy rivalry is already presenting itself.

Athletics.

The following players receive monograms for participation in football: Kruse, Clark, Jensen. These receive sweaters and monograms for football: Isaacson, Lyons, Lecocq.
In basket ball the following receive sweaters and monograms: Kruse, captain, Clark, Carlson. McDonald having played required number of games is entitled to sweater, but having dropped out of school for good reasons, will be given his award next Fall on condition of returning to school.

Foley Kidney pills repay your confidence in their healing and curative qualities. Any kidney or bladder disease not beyond the reach of medicine will yield to their use. Mrs. Cordelia Copeland, Ardeola, Mo., says, "I had kidney and bladder trouble for over a year and 5 bottles of Foley Kidney Pills cured me." It is the same story from every one who uses them. All say, "they cured me." Owl Prescription Pharmacy, Frank D. Cohan, Opposite Chandler hotel, Phone 74.
