commenced the erection of a seven room bungalow in that city.

Business Change.—It is reported that J. E. Maddox has purchased G. W. Daly's interest in the Right Cafe.

To Hold Meeting.—The library board will hold their regular monthly meeting this evening. A regularly filed out application blank has been forwarded to the Carnegie Foundation asking for an $18,000 Carnegie library for Marshfield.

Pays Fine.—Will Fisher, the chauffeur, appeared before Recorder Butler today and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of speeding, preferred against him by W. G. Lawhorne, and paid a $15 fine. Several others will be haled into court this week, it is expected.

Meet Wednesday.—Miss Mamie Gulovson will entertain the Women's Baptist Missionary Circle at her home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. Story will lead in the afternoon's program and will be assisted by Mrs. Dresser. Following the regular business, Rev. Lewtas will deliver a short talk.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet tonight to take up various city matters, including street work and also the Eastside council's proposition about changing the ferry Transit to a run from the mouth of Mill Slough to a McKay street slip, directly opposite Mill Slough.

Fine Weather.—Yesterday was an unusually fine day and most of the residents who could went on excursions to Coos River, South Slough and the lower bay. The first straw hat of the season also made its appearance. Geo. W. Carleton taking the honor of being the first to don the summery headgear.

Enjoy Outing.—W. S. Chandler and wife, Irving Chandler, W. G. Candler and wife, Miss Moore, J. Albert Matson and wife, Frank Cochran and wife, Tom Coke, Geo. M. Brown of Roseburg, Julius Matson and Hutton O'Connor composed a party who spent Sunday at the Chandler summer home on South Coos river.

Auto Trip to Myrtle Point.—A. J. Mendel and Charles Fensler of the Hub Clothing store, made an auto trip to Myrtle Point yesterday, making the trip over in two and one-half hours and returned in two hours. They report the roads in good condition, the worst stretch being between Marshfield and the Summit.

Burn Brick.—A small test kiln is being built near Hugh McLain's office to burn 2,000 or 3,000 brick from the clay deposits around the Bay to demonstrate what can be done in the brick making line here. The brick will be burned by J. E. Walling, who is endeavoring to organize a $25,000 company here to install a brickyard.

Brings Out Logs.—Clare Swayne of the Smith-Powers logging company returned last evening from Allegany, where he has been for a week getting logs out of Hodges Creek. By building sluice dams, they got out three rafts of about 1,000 logs, containing about 2,000,000 feet. They will be brought down the river in a day or two.

Clear Boulevard.—A. T. Haines, Eugene O'Connell and F. K. Gettins today made a trip out over the route of the proposed boulevard from Marshfield to the sea and found it most satisfactory. It was decided to start the slashing at once and they will award a contract for the work. Whether the connecting line with Marshfield will be by Elrod avenue or Anderson avenue is not decided yet. Hugh McLain, the other member of the committee, is going to Bandon on business, but says that he believes that with a few hundred dollars a bicycle path can be opened from Marshfield to the sea.

Meet Tomorrow.—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church will meet tomorrow at the home of Mrs. E. P. Lewis on First St. The Ladies of the church are urgently asked to be present.

Delivers Autos.—I. R. Tower went to Bandon today to deliver a twenty-five horsepower Buick touring car to Oscar Gates. Mr. Tower has a Studebaker '35' for Judge Coke and a Studebaker '25' for Warren Painter coming on the Breakwater this week.

Leases Building.—The Bradley Candy company is closing a five-year lease on the first story of the Eagles' hall on South Broadway, which will give them more room for their increasing business. The company was figuring on erecting a building on its lots on North Broadway, but has postponed this for awhile.

Asks Information.—Marshal Carter Saturday received a telegram from Mrs. J. D. Moran of St. Paul asking more information about J. D. Moran, who was ordered committed to the state insane asylum here Friday. She gave no particulars, but evidently was his wife. Marshal Carter wired her that Moran would be taken to the asylum this week. Moran owns some property in Boise Addition.

Bachtel Writes.—Harry G. Hoy today received a letter from Warren L. Bachtel, formerly of Marshfield, but now traveling for an engine company out of Birmingham, Ala. Mr. Bachtel wrote from Chattanooga. He intimates that he would like to be back on the Bay, not finding that section as desirable in many ways as this. He says that Birmingham, Ala., has a payroll of $14,000,000 and the people there are worked up over the Democratic tariff revision, declaring that if Underwood closes the factories he will be let down hard by the South.

Mining Booming.—Orville Dodge, the well known Coquille valley pioneer and historian, spent Sunday here, coming over to attend the funeral of Jas. Perry. Mr. Dodge issued a pioneer history of Coos and Curry counties, which has proved a most valuable work. He reports that Myrtle Point is enjoying a decided boom. He also reports that mining in that section is also looking up, a new strike in the Salmon Mountain country, where he has mines, making the outlook unusually good. While here he met Joe Cammel of Seattle, who was sent to Randolph by Seattle capitalists to look into the black sand mining.
