

IN SOCIETY

CONTRIBUTIONS concerning social happenings, intended for publication in the society department of The Times, must be submitted to the editor not later than 6 o'clock p. m., Friday of each week. (Exceptions will be allowed only in cases where the events occurred later than the time mentioned.)

PERSONAL notices of visitors in the city, or of Coos Bay people who visit in other cities, together with notices of social affairs, are gladly received in the social department. Telephone 133. Notices of club meetings will be published and secretaries are kindly requested to furnish same.

THE WHITE CARNATION.

Here's to the white carnation,
Sturdy and spicy and sweet,
Wafting a breath of perfume
On the stony way of the street;
Bringing a thought of gladness
Wherever the breezes blow;
Here's to the white carnation,
Pure as the virgin snow.

This is the flower for Mother,
Wear it on Mother's Day;
Flower for rain and sunshine,
Winsome, gallant and gay;
Wear it in Mother's honor
Pinned to the coat's lapel;
Wear it in belt and corsage,
For her who loved you well.

The Mother in lowly cabin,
The Mother in palace hall,
Is ever the best and dearest,
The one we love best of all.
In travel and pain she bore us,
In laughter and love she nursed,
And who that would shame the Mother?

Is of all mankind accursed,
Tired and wan too often,
Weary and weak at times,
But always full of the courage
That thrives when the future children
Mother with hands soft-hardened,
Mother in pearls and lace,
The light of heavenly beauty
Shines in your tender face.

So here's to the white carnation,
Wear it on Mother's Day;
Flower that blooms for Mother,
Winsome, gallant and gay,
Flower of a perfect sweetness,
Flower for hut and hall,
Here's to the white carnation
And to Mother—Our Best of All.

THERE ARE some women who are so fond of dressing up that they make a show of themselves and prejudice nice people against them, writes Lillian Russell. Women who are quite delightful companions, fairly intelligent in every other respect. I knew one such woman; she was beautiful of face and form, but would dress as I called it "for a party" on every and all occasions. I was positively ashamed of her though I enjoyed her company enormously when we were at my home.

I asked her why she got herself up in such guises. She said that she loved to see herself dressed up; that she could go to elaborate dinners and parties but rarely, so she just fancied that she was having a party every day.

Now this pretty woman would have looked far smarter had she affected simple one piece dresses of dark silks or tailor suits. She would have been considered fashionable and well dressed, appropriately and becomingly dressed, refined and elegant, had she worn the proper clothes.

But as she was he-spangled, be-ribboned and flower-decked she was conspicuously common. People looked at her and laughed, ridiculed and called her names.

How much more charming and attractive a pretty woman is in simple clothes. A girl should never put on anything to outshine her eyes.

Take the color of the eyes and keep back of that color in selecting your gowns.

Overdressing, and I mean by that an eccentric display of furbelows, cheap jewelry and artificial flowers is a strong mark of vulgarity or ignorance.

Women should be more than careful of how they get themselves up. If they are insulted by rude men and women it is, in nine cases out of ten, their own fault.

If a woman looks modest and refined she is seldom picked out for a rude remark.

Remember: An innocent angel could be the victim of an insult were she to wear her heavenly garb to a picture show.

PRISCILLA CLUB.
Miss Signa Larson was hostess to the Priscillas Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Larson, at Bunker Hill. A very pleasant time was spent at needlework, the ladies also enjoying a piano solo, rendered by Miss Ivy Hill, who with her mother, Mrs. Walter Hill, was a guest of the club. A lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Henry Olson. Among those present were: Mrs. Geo. Bourke, Mrs. W. T. Gale, Mrs. Knud Erickson, Mrs. Henry Olson, Mrs. Larson, Miss Signa Larson, and Mrs. F. C. Mosteller.

Mrs. Mosteller will be hostess at her home in Bay Park, May 21.

PROGRESS CLUB.
The members of the Progress Club and their guests spent a delightful afternoon Monday at the home of Mrs. I. S. Kaufman, when Rev. J. Lewtas spoke on the situation in the Balkans and Turkey and gave a brief outline of the past history of Europe and Africa, leading to the present conditions. His talk was exceedingly lucid and interesting, as Mr. Lewtas is a world-wide traveler and lecturer and is able to add many personal experiences and observations to his lectures. Mr. Lewtas, Rev. and Mrs. Rutledge, Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. Grannis, Mrs. Claybaugh, Miss Daisy Rush, Mrs. C. F. McKnight and Mrs. E. B. Converse were special guests of the club. An hour's business meeting was held prior to the social afternoon, resulting in the election of the following club officers:

President, Mrs. Ward M. Blake; vice-president, Mrs. W. F. McEldowney; secretary, Mrs. John S. Hanson; treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Nicholson. Mrs. Henry Sengstacken was chosen to fill the vacancy on the executive committee, made by the resignation of Mrs. E. M. Barry from the club. Reports by the present secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Buttz and Mrs. McEldowney, were read and approved. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Kaufman, Mrs. M. C. Maloney, Mrs. Nicholson and Mrs. McEldowney, and a general social chat, ended the afternoon.

The members present were Mesdames M. C. Maloney, H. Sengstacken, Ward M. Blake, W. F. McEldowney, W. S. Nicholson, A. L. Buttz, J. S. Hanson, D. E. Maloney, A. E. Adelaperge and I. S. Kaufman.

The club will meet Monday, May 19, at the home of Mrs. Hanson on Elrod avenue, for the last regular program of the year.

DINNER PARTY.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. I. Van Deyn were hosts at dinner at the Chandler Monday evening, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Parsons, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Straw, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth and Max Roberts of Enid, Okla.

ROYAL AUCTION BRIDGE.
Mrs. F. E. Hagne entertained the Auction Bridge players Tuesday at her home, entertaining also as substitute guests Mrs. Eugene O'Connell and Mrs. Claude Nashburg. Mrs. Kreitzer was awarded high honors and carried off the prize.

Among those present were, Mrs. Houseworth, Mrs. Harrigan, Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Gottins, Mrs. Kreitzer, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Straw, Mrs. McKnight and Mrs. Milner. The club will meet next week with Mrs. Straw.

Miss Dina Mortensen, Miss Dina Hjellev, Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. Trulinger, Mrs. O. G. Lund, and Rev. and Mrs. R. O. Thorpe.

MEET IN NORTH BEND.
Mrs. Tope, of North Bend, was hostess to the members of the Christian Women's Board of Missions at its regular monthly meeting last Tuesday. The session was a most interesting and delightful one. The program consisted of readings by Mrs. R. A. Copple and Mrs. H. W. Painter, a recitation by Mrs. Hendrix and a talk by Mrs. Z. O. Deward. There was a good attendance from Marshfield in addition to a number of special guests from North Bend. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. E. C. Drows the first Tuesday in June.

WEDS TODAY.
The marriage of Vernon A. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith, and Miss Katherine Drew will take place today at the home of the bride in Minneapolis. Besides members of the C. A. Smith family and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Warner, Cornell Lagerstrom and Addison Perry of Marshfield will be in attendance. After an extended honeymoon tour, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Smith will come to Marshfield to reside.

YOUNG WOMEN MEET.
The Young Ladies' Aid of the Norwegian Lutheran church was entertained at the home of Miss Elsie Larsen on Thursday evening, which proved to be one of the most successful meetings of the Aid since its organization. A very enjoyable evening was spent in music, conversation and sewing, and at its close delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those present were: The Misses Dina Hjellev, Thea Larsen, Hanna Sunne, Dina Mortensen, Mabel Mathison, Cora Mathison, Alice Mathison, Edna Johnson, Jennie Johnson, Elsie Larsen, the Mesdames W. Nelson, J. Hansen, R. O. Thorne, F. Larsen, and the Messrs. Joad King, Dick Ommel, L. Ommen, O. Nelson, Y. Mortensen, Chris Lee, L. Thorne, Mr. Bringer, Oliver Larsen, Ed Larsen, and W. Larsen.

The Secret of Smart Dressing

It is not the simplest thing in the world to dress smartly even though the clothes you wear are smartly styled.

It is not always the chap with the most expensive clothes who looks most classy.

It is not the pattern nor the style of a suit which makes that suit good and true.

These are old truths which we cannot dispute.

We have made it our special business to help you dress smartly even though you sometimes feel that you never will appear as well dressed as the other fellow.

It is not necessarily the most expensive clothes that lend the most grace to a fellow's figure. Becoming style in a satisfactory quality will do as well if not better.

When you look at clothes and when you purchase clothes seek style, fabric and fit. Take a careful look at "Smart Clothes," designed and made by Stein-Bloch. You are sure to find in them many things you have wanted but have not been able to obtain.
