

You CAN eat your cake and have it, too.

Here's the Way:

Would a

"COOS KING"

Be a

Time Saver

For You?

Think About It

You pay automobile fare every day to and from your work.

At the end of the month, what have you to show for that money?

The monthly payments on a bicycle are not much more than your automobile fare.

You must be on time for that auto, or you walk.

The bicycle is ready to go, whenever you are.

The "COOS KING" BICYCLE is warranted against defects by The MARSHFIELD CYCLERY.

We are bicycle specialists and have made good in Marshfield.

Would we be foolish enough to attach our name to any but the best bicycle?

That's Your Guarantee and the Bicycle Will be Your Cake

You CAN EAT YOUR CAKE and HAVE IT, too, if you buy a "COOS KING" BICYCLE on the installment plan.

We sell them at $30.00 cash and a little more on installments.

Wasson and others left on the Breakwater for Portland, where they have been subpoenaed to give testimony before the federal grand jury.

Big Egg.—L. J. Matthews was a North Bend visitor yesterday. While there he visited the poultry ranch of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stewart, of Bangor. He secured a duck egg there that measured nine inches around the long way and 7 1/4 inches in circumference.

Big Business.—Last Saturday was the biggest day in the history of the Marshfield Western Union office, more messages being handled than in any previous day. The business has been steadily growing but Manager Schetter by putting in a long day, has been handling the wire alone.

Will Wed Soon.—Ben Chandler, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Chandler, who will graduate from the University of Oregon soon, and Miss Cecile Wilcox will be married soon after his graduation. After a short honeymoon trip, they will come to Marshfield to make their home. Miss Wilcox visited here last year.

Recovers Pin.—Through a Times want ad, Mrs. J. C. Doane has recovered a lodge pin which she valued highly as a keepsake. A young boy found it, saw the lost ad in The Times and brought the pin to this office but would not give his name to claim any reward that Mrs. Doane might wish to give. Mrs. Doane has received the pin.

New Members.—At a regular meeting of the National Association of Engineers at the hall in North Bend Friday evening, C. H. Wilson and Karl L. Haines were elected members of the order as electrical engineers, after passing the regular examination with an excellent percentage. A banquet was afterward held and a general good time enjoyed.

Range Lights.—Captain Macieen is making plans to petition for the installation of another harbor range light near the Libby Bunkers. Captain Beck, when here recently, arranged to install an additional light near Jarvis Landing, another near the Libby Bunkers will complete the range lights in the harbor as far as the C. A. Smith mill.

For fine stock.—A. H. Powers has sent Jap Yoakam, Jr., to the Willamette Valley to purchase three high grade bulls for his Coquille Valley ranch. He plans to get two Durhams and one Hereford. Mr. Powers recently imported 40 head of high grade cows for the ranch. Mr. Dement selecting them for him, and expects to have one of the best herds in Southern Oregon.

Booster Literature.—Messrs. Hill and Grant Gordon, of the Southern Pacific advertising department are on the Bay to figure with the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce on issuing a large amount of booster literature for this section. The system is known as "the community plan of advertising" and every detail of it is handled by experts of the Southern Pacific Company. The Chamber of Commerce will meet tomorrow night to arrange to raise a fund of $1500 to carry out the proposition.

Alaska Boat Line.—M. Kalish, of Seattle, manager of the Humboldt Steamship Company, which operates the Steamer Humboldt on the Puget Sound-Alaska run, arrived here Saturday and left Sunday with W. S. Chandler for Eureka to attend the annual meeting of the directors of the company. They left on the Alliance. Mr. Kalish is an ardent booster for Alaska and his company has done much to aid in its development. Mr. Chandler is heavily interested in the company and is one of its directors.
