afflicted. Mr. Allen and his family arrived here a few days ago from Oklahoma.

Broke Auto.—Dr. A. L. Houseworth had hard luck with his auto the other day. First the spring broke and while running it to a garage for repairs, the rear axle snapped off. In consequence, he has to borrow a machine.

Three Hurt.—Three met with minor injuries at the Smith mill Tuesday. The saw carriage broke one man's nose, a sailor on the Redondo was injured while loading and a sailor on the Nann Smith sustained a gash in the mouth. None were serious.

Buy House.—It is announced that Messrs Jones and Terrell have purchased the Col. Wairath property on Central avenue for about $2,000. The property is occupied by a residence at the crest of the Central avenue hill, being nearly 20 feet above the street.

Sails Today.—The Alliance sailed at 6 o'clock this morning for Portland, crossing out about 8 o'clock. She missed the tide yesterday and Captain Lofsted took advantage of the delay to have some minor repairs made. This led to a report that the repairs delayed her.

Memorial Day.—At a meeting of Baker Post, G. A. R., yesterday, it was decided to leave the plans for the observance of Decoration Day in the hands of the Spanish American War Veterans, who had charge of it last year. The G. A. R. members feel that they are getting too old to handle such matters.

Brave Swimmer.—The Portland Journal has a dispatch from Eugene which says that Miss Madge Barry of Marshfield, who is attending the commencement exercises at the University of Oregon, was one of the two girls who were the only ones who dared to go swimming in the Willamette River there. Miss Barry has been visiting friends at Eugene and will also visit Miss Cecile Wilcox.

Will Come Soon.—Wm. Grimes and Dennis Flynn, the Oklahoma banker and capitalist, are expected in here Saturday or Monday via Drain from Monrovia, California, where Mr. Flynn has been a guest at the Grimes winter home. They will spend some time here and Mr. Grimes will probably spend the summer here. They are figuring on improving some of their property here.

Some Chicken Story.—C. A. Jordan mayor of Eastside, was in the city yesterday on business. He was suffering from a sore hand, the result of incurring the disapproval of his big Rhode Island Red rooster. He threw out the oats alone, and the rooster prefers corn, so when Mr. Jordan started away the rooster attacked him and made a pretty good stagger at taking it out of his hide.—Coquille Herald.

Heavy Traffic.—A large number of Marshfield people are planning to attend the Rose Carnival in Portland in June and already many reservations have been made at the Breakwater office for the next three or four trips. Nearly all of the berths for Saturday have been sold.

North Bend to Aid.—Messrs. Green and Gordon, who conferred with North Bend yesterday relative to assisting Marshfield on the Sunset community advertising proposition, report that they found them more than ready to co-operate. They promised to raise $500 cash for the proposition.

Graduates Today.—Jas. Watt today received the commencement programs of the Nurse's Training School of the Good Samaritan Hospital, of Portland, his daughter, Miss Alma, being second in the class of 25. The exercises will be held at Trinity Episcopal Church in Portland. Miss Watt is planning to take some post graduate work in Chicago, but expects to visit her father here before going east.

Calves Left on Wharf.—Several complaints have been heard about small calves, being left on the wharf for a day or so, being brought in on boats and the parties they are consigned to failing to take them promptly. There were two on the wharf all day yesterday and until this morning without feed and their pitiful bleatings attracted many and finally someone fed them. Marshal Carter will probably be requested to get after some of the owners.

Fire Scare.—Mrs. Guyton last evening suffered a severe fire scare at her home on South Broadway in the rear of the Marshfield Grocery. She had lighted a candle and in throwing down the match, evidently dropped it into some old papers. She noticed the fire before it had gained any headway and L. J. Matthews promptly responded and extinguished the blaze before the firemen reached there. The damage was slight. Mrs. Guyton was home alone at the time, her daughter, Mrs. Libby, being night operator at the telephone office and her son, Jack, being down town.

A. C. COX, of South Inlet, returned home yesterday after a business trip here and visit with his father, W. B. Cox. He states that he came up over the Beaver Hill trail and met two I. W. W. members, who informed him that he could not return to South Slough that way. He told them he would if he desired to, but yesterday found he could make the trip back by boat easier.

GEORGE ROTNOR, of the Woolen Mill Store, is expected in this afternoon via Drain from a two weeks' stay at Portland, where he has been meeting representatives of the large eastern houses and placing orders for fall goods and also visiting friends. Fred Marx, the general clothing salesman, is coming with him to test Mr. Rotnor's auto and see whether it will break the speed limit.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

A telegram received at Bandon yesterday brought the news that the Elizabeth, which left San Francisco Saturday evening, broke or lost her propeller and had to put back. It was expected that she would get away again Monday evening.—Coquille Herald.

The Nann Smith crossed out yesterday for Bay Point with a big cargo of lumber.

The Adeline Smith sailed about 8 o'clock this morning with a big cargo for Oakland.

The Breakwater is due in early tomorrow from Portland.
