OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

MATRIMONIAL.

DR. ELIOT, who is one of the country's most noted wise men has offered the following advice to the young who are thinking of matrimony:

"You will hear some young man say: I cannot invite a girl who has been brought up to do nothing for herself and to have every gratification and every luxury provided for her, to marry me until I can earn income which will enable her to live with me in that way. I have two remarks to make about that doctrine—that if a girl has been brought up in that manner, the sooner she has a chance to live differently the better for her, and secondly, that it is only fair for a young man who loves a young woman, to consult her as to whether or not she wishes to marry him before he can earn a large income."

Why not hunt up a girl with more qualifications?

AMONG THE SICK.

Miss Esther Ogren, who is critically ill, is reported no better today.

Elton Melin is out today after an illness of two weeks.

Miss Julia Holm, who has been seriously ill, is reported improving. Miss Holm is now able to sit up for a short time each day and when she is strong enough will be taken to California.

Foy Cox, the well-known logger, is in town today. Mr. Cox will leave this week for St. Martin's Springs, for the benefit of his health.

LOCAL OVERFLOW.

Due Soon.—The Tillamook, which has been expected in here for several days with the steam shovel to start the Southern Pacific work in North Bend, has not arrived but is now expected to reach here tomorrow from Portland.

Given Reception.—The congregation of the Christian church last evening tendered Rev. Z. O. Doward and wife a fine reception in honor of the opening of Rev. Doward's second year here. It was a tribute to the excellent and effective work he has accomplished here.

Deal Progressing.—No special news has been received regarding the Kinney-Wilsey deal despite the interest felt in it here. C. A. Sehlbrede, Sunday morning, informed Coos Bay people at Portland that it was progressing satisfactorily. J. M. Eddy, Mr. Wilsey's Coos Bay representative, arrived home overland today from Portland, but had little to give out concerning the deal.

Announcement

After a trip across the Pond and an investigation of the prospects and conditions in different sections of the United States, I have decided that Coos Bay in general, and Marshfield in particular, is the best place on the map. I have therefore concluded to permanently locate here and in purchasing the Blanco Cigar Store have definitely determined that this shall be my home. I courteously and cordially invite all my old-time friends and acquaintances, as well as all new ones, to call and see me in my new quarters and assure them that they will be welcome. I think that my many years' residence in this community is sufficient evidence of my standing and my desire for fair, square treatment. The public generally and all my old friends in particular, are invited to make "The Blanco Cigar Store their home and headquarters.

Cordially yours,

ROBT. MARSDEN, Sr., Prop.

The Blanco Cigar Store.

EASY TO GET DOWN TO 133.

Bud Anderson Has No Trouble in Making Weight.

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—Bud Anderson, who will box Joe Mandot 29 rounds here tonight, had the easiest time of his career getting down to the required 133 pounds, according to the statement of his trainer, Earl Mohan.

"Bud never again will go into the ring as he did for his first Brown fight," said Mohan. "He is being taken to the weight gradually, and will make it without difficulty. He is stronger now than I ever saw him."

Mandot is determined to have another chance at Joe Rivers to avenge his last defeat by the Mexican, and unless McCarey matches Ritchie and Rivers for July 4, the winner of tonight's bout will be Rivers' opponent on that day.
