down. About 2,000 yards will be used now. This will be the first hard surface roadway built on this side of the county by the county commissioners.

Buys Ranch.—J. D. Thorp, who recently moved here from Gardiner, is reported to have bought the Steve Johnson ranch of 164 acres below Sacchi's ranch south of Bastendorf's beach. He hopes to make it sort of a summer resort.

Improve Bakery.—Messrs. Bargett and Everson are arranging extensive improvements in the Coos Bay Bakery, new fixtures, front and other attractive features being contemplated in addition to the latest up-to-date equipment for their bakery department.

Wedded Here.—Letzer E. Saling and Miss Harriet Wheeler were married last Saturday morning, the Rev. H. J. Rutledge officiating. Only a few close friends witnessed the ceremony. The young couple left on the Breakwater for Hood River, where Mr. Saling is employed.

Is Improving.—Mrs. Sarah Wilson, of South Broadway today received a telegram stating that Miss Spence Wilson, who has been seriously ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freyer in San Francisco, was much improved and would probably be able to leave for Marshfield on the next Redondo.

Meet Next Tuesday.—The Eastside council will meet again next Tuesday night, when it is understood a number of matters that were slated to come up this week will be brought up. The filling of the vacancy on the council caused by the removal of R. J. Montgomery to Bridge is being considered by Mayor Jordan but as there is nothing urgent about it, he may not appoint for some time.

Seeks Relative.—The Modern Woodmen of America here have received a request from F. E. Adamson, of the Golden Eagle at Petaluma, Cal., asking information about Lyman Eddy. He says that 11 years ago Lyman Eddy took out an insurance policy in the M. W. A. in favor of his mother and that for the last nine years they have never heard from him. No one on Coos Bay has yet been found who recalls Lyman Eddy.

Injured in Row.—Marshal Carter Monday afternoon had two strangers before Justice Pennock, the men having been involved in a row on the street and one of them having sustained a sprained or broken wrist in the melee. Both were intoxicated. Justice Pennock told Marshal Carter to take them before Recorder Butler. They were to have had a hearing yesterday but failed to show up. The man with the injured wrist is said to be named Kruger. The other man arrived here a few weeks ago on the Homer.
