Efficiency

The Keynote to Success.

The high-salaried efficiency expert goes through the factory suggesting time-saving devices.

The bright boy tells us that he has a bicycle and can do our work more quickly than the other fellow.

President Wilson tells us that he will send efficiency experts through factories to find out whether tariff reduction is a sufficient excuse for cutting wages, or whether lack of efficiency is increasing costs.

Efficiency?

Would it leave you more energy for your work?

Look about you; see how the bicycle riders go by you—

Do they pass you at the pay-table, too?

There are more DAYTON BICYCLES in Marshfield than all other makes combined.

134 DAYTON BICYCLES sold since Dec. 23, 1911.

Get Deposit.—J. C. Hutchison has been informed by Marshal Carter that he finally found John Rurga, who swallowed Hutchison's knife the other day and secured a promise from him that he would pay for it.

Memorial Services.—The G. A. R. and Spanish War Veterans will attend Memorial Services at the Marshfield Baptist Church Sunday morning. They will meet at Market and Front streets at 10:45 and march in a body to the church.

Mill Slough Case.—J. W. Bennett received a telegram today from Dr. Calvin S. White, state health officer, stating that he would arrive here Monday on the Breakwater for the purpose of inspecting Mill Slough and determining whether the slough is a menace to the public health.

Fall Creek Claims.—A. H. Dixon and Jack Davis returned this morning from a week's trip to the Fall River country. They located the claims alright and built their cabins and walked twenty-five miles yesterday, reaching Allegany, completely wearied out. The rest of the party remained there.

Funeral Held.—The funeral of Miss Esther Ogren from the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran Church, the John E. Ostlund officiating, was held yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. The pall-bearers were Walter Butler, John Kronholm, Tom Bennett, C. W. Wolcott, Robert Swanton and Malr Dano.

Gun Club Shoot.—The Marshfield Gun Club will hold a practice shoot at the club grounds tomorrow morning preliminary to selecting the team that will go to Coquille next Thursday, May 29, to meet the crack shots of the valley. All members and all who shoot, whether members or not are requested to join tomorrow's preliminaries.

Coos Bay Best.—D. A. Curry returned last evening via Bandon from a trip to Southern California. He spent most of the time at San Diego and Los Angeles, but also visited the principal points in the state. While he had a fine trip he declares that Coos Bay looks mighty good to him and is far ahead of the much talked of sections. They were 50 hours coming from San Francisco to Bandon.

Excursion Next Sunday.—The Coos Bay Concert Band and Manager Hildenbrand of the Marshfield Elks' baseball team are planning an excursion to Bandon next Sunday, when the first game of the Elks' series between Marshfield and Bandon is to be played at the City-by-the-Sea. The final arrangements have not been completed, but it is expected that the excursion will be run if the weather is favorable.

Plan Band Tour.—Fred Wilson, who is now at Medford attending the Odd Fellows' meeting, is to make a tour of the Willamette Valley cities to arrange for a series of concerts by the Coos Bay Concert Band. Director Fenton says it is planned to make a month's tour, probably taking in the state fair at Salem, the Round-up at Pendleton and playing concerts in other towns. The band has been engaged for the Fourth of July celebration in North Bend.

Trustee Named.—Sheriff Gage has been notified to turn over the $1740 in cash which he found in the A. J. Fergar, or rather J. C. La France household to John B. Cleland, of Portland, who has been appointed trustee of the insurance companies, which La France defrauded. La France and his wife have signed over this money, the Fergar mill and lands near Bandon. It is under agreement that the money derived shall be divided among the companies as they may later determine.

Orens in Fire.—Word has been received here that J. E. Oren, formerly general manager of the C. A. Smith mill here, and wife and children, had a narrow escape in Berkeley recently. They moved up from Bay Point to Berkeley and took an apartment for a few months. They were awakened in the night by the fire alarm and their apartment building was on fire. Mrs. Oren and the nurse got their children out, but Mr. Oren did not get out until after the fire had become dangerous. Their clothing was considerably damaged. They went to the home of Arno Meezen in Berkeley after the fire.

Women of Woodcraft Notice. The officers and Guard of Coos Bay Circle No. 164 are requested to meet at the hall at 7:30 sharp, Monday evening. By order of Guardian Neighbor, MRS. McCARTY.
