

ELKS INITIATE FIVE MEMBERS

Large Class Goes Through and Plans Made for Ball and Big Parade Tonight

At a meeting of the Marshfield lodge of Elks last evening, five candidates were initiated into the mysteries of Elkdom. They were Jay Doyle, George E. Cook, Milo Sumner and Burt A. Doremus of Marshfield, and B. F. Segur of Myrtle Point.

There was a large turnout of members for the event. Burt Doremus took the special work, Dr. A. L. Houseworth conferring the "101 degree" upon him.

Plans were also made for the Elks annual ball, which will be in celebration of the fifth anniversary of the local lodge. The date has not been definitely fixed but it will be some time the latter part of June. Eugene Crosthwaite, J. W. Hildenbrand, Dr. Houseworth, D. Y. Stafford, W. R. Haines, A. E. Neff and J. W. Gardiner were appointed a committee to take charge of the affair.

It was also announced that the Elks and the Marshfield band tonight would have a big parade preliminary to the excursion to Bandon Sunday, when the Marshfield Elks will play the Bandon Elks. All the local Elks are expected to turn out in uniform tonight and also to wear their uniforms on the excursion trip next Sunday. A. H. Powers, C. F. McKnight and John D. Goas were appointed a committee to arrange for the parade this evening and will get out a number of decorated autos. The parade will be held about 7:30 or 8 o'clock and Captain Gardiner is to get his team out in uniform for the event.

BALL TEAM TO GO TO VALLEY

Marshfield and North Bend Arrange to Join in Excursion Next Sunday.

It was announced this afternoon that arrangements had been made whereby the Marshfield League team would go to Coquille next Sunday and play the team there and also that the North Bend team would go to Bandon and play there, Myrtle Point will play at Coquille.

This arrangement was made today after President Kern, of the Coos County League had conferred with F. E. Wilson. The ball teams wanted the first excursion to the valley but the Elks and Band boys had arranged it before the ball schedule was revised. The ball teams figured that if Marshfield and North Bend played at North Bend, the game would not draw very well on account of the excursion and at the same time, the game would detract from the excursion.

Finally an arrangement was made whereby Bandon offered to give North Bend $40 bonus to come there next Sunday and play. Marshfield asked Manager Wilson, of the band, for a similar bonus and also free transportation for its players to Coquille.

Manager Ogren announces that Marshfield will have four new players in the lineup next Sunday. He says that the report that Mickey McKeown was being urged for manager is incorrect, that he wished Mr. McKeown to become assistant manager. However, Mr. McKeown hasn't time to devote to it but has promised to try and aid in raising funds to support a good ball team here.

J. E. Norton, manager of the Coquille team, was here today and was aiding President Kern in working out the problem of next Sunday's games. He says that Coquille has a fast team, several arrivals there during the past winter affording excellent material.

HILL TO TRY BOND SCHEME

Northern Pacific Magnate Will Market Securities in Small Lots Among People

PORTLAND, Ore., May 29.—The Telegram says: "The Hill interests are going actively into the business of building up big cities and smaller communities as well as throwing out new railroad lines and populating vast agricultural regions which have been the chief endeavor of the Great Northern family in the past.

"The new field of development is an entirely new departure and no one that is only possible of the fact that the Hills, James J. and L. W., and their financial associates have gone into the banking business on a gigantic scale.

"Louis W. Hill, chairman of the Great Northern Board and chairman of the Board of Directors of the First National Bank and the Northwestern Trust Company, of St. Paul, made the first official announcement of the plan here and he brought with him two prominent St. Paul bankers, who will investigate the financial and industrial situation in Oregon thoroughly and will determine what classes of securities, municipal, school, county, industrial and other kinds which may make desirable and safe investments for the two great banks controlled by the Great Northern interests.

"One of their plans is to take over bond issues against which trustee certificates will be issued in small sums, say, of $10, and will offer their own counter or through such mediums as department stores—a plan which is now being tried with splendid success in St. Paul.

"The two financiers who are here looking into the local field are Edward O. Rice, of the First National Bank, of St. Paul, and James J. Elliott, of the Northwestern Trust Company, also of St. Paul. Each one makes a specialty of studying and investigating of all kinds.

"We are going to develop a modern and up-to-date banking business along with our railroads," said Chairman Hill. "We are going to do what we can to help cities carry forward their needed improvements, to develop their parks, their playgrounds, the educational system and other departments; we are going to make our financial activities just as big and important as our railroad enterprises and our colonization and agricultural development.

"It will be done through our First National Bank and Northwestern Trust Company, and we shall do it in such a way as not to interfere with the operations of local banks in any territory. On the other hand, we expect to work hand in hand with the banks of Portland, Seattle, Spokane or any other city where we decide to make investments.

"This is a new field and one of wonderful possibilities. Take St. Paul, for example. They voted to issue bonds for some important and badly-needed betterments. The bond market is shot to pieces and St. Paul could not get a bid on these securities and things were at a standstill. Our banking interest took hold of the situation, bought the entire issue at par and it was sold under the guarantee of the biggest department store in the city inside a few hours. Then we took another issue and placed it in our trust company as trustee. Trustee certificates in the denomination of $10 were issued and sold over the counter to the public. A telegram from St. Paul showed that over $87,000 of these certificates had been sold at the close of business after they had been offered to the public for two days. Nobody was allowed to buy more than $100 worth of the certificates and these securities can be retired any time after 18 months' details of the plan. He said:

"Mr. Elliott, of the Northwestern Trust Company, further explained: "James J. Hill, who consolidated the First and Second National Banks, and made one institution with $5,000,000 of capital and surplus, has a strong desire to permit every man, woman and child that so desires to invest in gilt-edge securities, and this scheme was hit upon.

"The bank has increased its deposits from $11,000,000 to $15,000,000 since January 1, and will be in a position to assist cities, school boards, counties and first-class industrial projects.

"While we are here we shall confer with local bankers to get a good idea of the conditions here and we shall make an investigation of the cities through the Willamette Valley to see what desirable investments may be made there.

"Chairman Hill and W. P. Davidson, of St. Paul, who is interested with Hill in a big land project, will leave for an extended trip through Central Oregon. They will return the latter part of the week and spend some time in the Willamette Valley.

"P. L. Howe, a prominent business man and capitalist of Minneapolis, is with the Hill party."

HARRIS WRITES ABOUT KINNEY

Eugene Judge Says Watters Will be Named Receiver—Hearing at Coquille June 4

Judge Harris, of Eugene, in a letter to Coos Bay attorneys, involved in the Kinney cases, today, announces that when he names a receiver for the Kinney properties, V. E. Watters, of North Bend, will be appointed. This is simply confirmation of the news printed in The Times some weeks ago.

Furthermore, Judge Harris states that on Wednesday morning, June 4, he will have a hearing on the matters and requests all attorneys interested to be there to discuss the matter. His appointment of a receiver will not be made until then and perhaps not until later.

He states that J. K. Kollock, of Portland, has raised the question about the appointment of a receiver being made in the case of H. J. Isaacs vs. Kinney, that being a law action. Judge Harris says he is not passing on this question now.

He intimates that the appointment might be made in the Waite case if the others would agree to it.

Mr. Watters served in the legislature when Judge Harris did and was formerly county official in Benton County and is an old time friend of Judge Harris.

Nothing new has been heard from the Wilsey-Kinney deal. Judge Brunough was reported to have left Portland last week for London to take the matter up directly with the English syndicate. Some are inclined to think that Judge Harris may delay the appointment of a receiver until the definite fate of the Wilsey proposition is known.
