LOCAL NOTES

WEATHER FORECAST.
 By Associated Press.
 OREGON—Fair tonight and Tuesday. Northerly winds.

Cheese Shipment.—Six hundred pounds of cheese from the Coos Bay Creamery was received here this morning by H. W. Painter.

On Picnic.—The Progress Club is today enjoying a picnic and outing at the Dr. C. W. Tower summer home on South Coos River, the Alice H being chartered for the trip.

On Cruise.—Arlton Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Carlson, and a nephew of C. A. Smith, who is a naval cadet at Annapolis, will be leaving this week on a training ship on a three-months' cruise.

Outing Wednesday.—The Swedish Lutheran Ladies' Aid Society will be entertained Wednesday at an outing at the Alex Mattson ranch on Catching Inlet by Mrs. Alex Mattson and Mrs. Matt Mattson. The Wa-Ta-Wasa will leave Commercial avenue dock at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Gets Results.—"Stop that want ad of mine about the cows for sale. I have sold them all and do not want to be bothered by further inquiries now." This was the laconic telephone message that came from J. M. Culley, of Catching Inlet this morning to The Times. It was one of the many testimonials that come to The Times about its want ads.

To New Boat.—According to local gossip, Captain T. J. Macgenn, of the Breakwater, may be offered the captaincy of the fast new passenger and freight steamer, which the C. A. Smith Company is considering for the Coos Bay-San Francisco run. Captain Macgenn's record with the Breakwater and his knowledge of the Coos Bay bar would make him a valuable acquisition for the Smith company's new vessel.

To Name Boat.—Capt. Harris, of Sumner and Clarence Harris, are trying out their new launch and some figure that she will be able to attain a speed of 30 miles per hour. A pipe is being installed in place of the hose feed. The gasoline tanks are also being put in the stern. The boat is 35 feet seven inches long with 5 1/2 foot beam. She is equipped with 60-horse-power low Victor engines. The launch has not been named. A contest will probably be instituted by Capt. Harris offering a $5 cash prize and a life pass to the one suggesting the best name for the boat.

Pharmacy Board.—J. Lee Brown, of the Brown Drug Store, leaves Friday for Portland to attend the regular meeting of the Oregon Board of Pharmacy. This will be the first meeting under the new state pharmacy law which goes into effect tomorrow, June 3. The meeting will be an important one, as the various provisions of the new law and its enforcement will be carefully considered by the board. Lewis R. Denn, of Winkler's Pharmacy, and Owen Knowlton, son of R. S. Knowlton, of Coquille, are going to Portland to take an examination before the board.

Married Sunday.—George W. Shelly, of Myrtle Point, and Miss Lucy Spooner, a teacher in the Central building at Marshfield, were married Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith in North Bend, the Rev. D. A. McLeod officiating.

CULBERTSON.—To Mr. and Mrs. Lee Culbertson, at their home in North Bend, Monday, June 2, 1913, a 10 pound boy. Mother and child are doing well and the proud father says the new railway superintendent already makes as much noise as a steam shovel.

CARD OF THANKS.
 To the many friends who by kindly acts and words of sympathy lightened the burden of our bereavement in the recent death of our beloved husband and father, Matt Mattson, and for the many beautiful floral offerings, we extend our heartfelt thanks.

NEW PEDDLER DECISION.
 Judge Coke last week rendered an important opinion on the constitutionality of the peddler's law. He held that if the property is situated within the state, a peddler must have a license, but if situated in another state, orders taken and articles shipped in, then a state license is unnecessary, the matter coming under the interstate commerce law.—Coquille Sentinel.

The bride came to Marshfield about a year ago from Wisconsin. They will reside in Myrtle Point, where Mr. Shelly is engaged in the mercantile business.
