JUNE TIDES
Below is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison on consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on the bar subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

WEATHER FORECAST.
By Associated Press.
OREGON—Fair in west tonight and Thursday; showers in East tonight or Thursday; cooler in East Thursday. Westerly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD.
For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., June 4, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorological observer:

Maximum	64
Minimum	59
At 4.43 a. m.	52
Precipitation	.04
Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1912	61.07
Precipitation same period last year	57.25
Wind: Northwest. Partly cloudy.

Catch Perch.—There has been quite a run of perch in the upper Bay the last few days and some good strings have been caught from the docks.

Leave Tomorrow.—Among the outgoing passengers on the Gardner-Drain route tomorrow will be: W. F. Walsh, Anna Miller, G. W. Miller, E. D. Payne and S. K. Robinson.

Will Leave.—Miss Cleo Madison and company will leave on the Redondo for Pomona, Calif., where she will play for a time. They are playing at the Royal this week, putting on "Zaza."

Will Sell House.—The Vestry Board of the Episcopal Church have called for bids for the sale of the dwelling house on the S. E. corner of Fourth and Market. This house is to be moved away to make room for the proposed new church.

Ferry Traffic.—Captain Alex Hall, of the Ferry Transit, reports the following traffic was carried during the month of May between Marshfield and Eastside: 6,326 passengers, 145 double teams, 250 single rigs, 42 autos and 35 head of stock.

Prayer Meeting.—The weekly prayer meeting of the Marshfield Baptist Church will be held tonight instead of Thursday, being advanced one day so that it would not conflict with the Marshfield High School Commencement exercises.

Improve Road.—Sacchi Brothers have taken the contract for some extensive improvements in the Empire-Bandon road near the seven devils. With this and some other improvements the highway can be made a good one for summer auto drives.

Not Left.—Sec. Edgworth, of the I. W. W., says that the report that he was to leave here was erroneous. He says that the iron heel has kept his organization down and cost them their hall but that he expects to remain in this section working in behalf of it.

Railroad Workmen.—W. F. McEl-downey returned yesterday from Portland via Gardiner from Portland, where he accompanied Mrs. McEl-downey and baby on their trip. He reports that about 30 laborers came in from Drain yesterday to work in the Copenhagen camps.

Close Resort.—It is reported that Frank Cameron, formerly of The Agitator, will close his South Slough resort tomorrow night in conformity with the law. He will probably be tried in the federal court at Portland next month on an indictment charging him with selling liquor without a federal license.

Finds Pen Top.—Dave Holden yesterday picked up the top of a fine fountain pen on Front street. He gave it to The Times and today Tom Howard claimed it, answering the found ad that was inserted once. Mr. Howard was more than gratified over the recovery of the part of the pen, which is an unusually fine one.

On Survey.—Jay Doyle and Henry Winter, who left here Sunday for Alaska, will be employed on the U. S. survey there and expect to be absent about four months. Several Coos County men including Messrs. Guerin and Hartle, of Myrtle Point, have been employed on the U. S. survey in the Arctic regions the past few seasons.

See Elk.—Parties returning from the Fall Creek country report that settlers there claim they saw three Elk in that vicinity recently. There formerly were many Elk in that section but none have been seen for a few seasons. It is against the law to kill them and it is believed that quite a herd will develop in that section if pot hunters leave them alone.

Branch Here.—H. E. Maslin, of the California Trojan Powder company, who has been spending several days here, has arranged with the A. B. Daly Company to handle their line

C. CIMINIO, of Ten Mile, left this week for Chemawa to bring home his son who entered the Indian school there last year but who has been in ill health. Mr. Ciminio says that the other evening he went out to his barn and when coming back thought he saw the dog standing near the path. He called to him but immediately it bristled up and he saw it was a big panther. He had a pall in his hand and realizing that the panther was about to spring for him threw the pall, striking the beast. Immediately with a yell of fright the panther jumped back into the woods.

Wear Your Clothcraft Clothes Without Worry

YOU can wear Clothcraft Clothes anywhere with the confident, comfortable feeling that the fit and style are right—that you are as well dressed as any man in the crowd.

The Clothcraft guarantee makes it unnecessary for you to depend on your own judgment alone in buying clothes. The things you can't see or foresee are all covered by this broad liberal guarantee which insures pure wool, lasting shape, satisfactory wear and service.

These insured clothes at $10 to $25 make it unnecessary to take a chance. They make the difference in your favor of performance over promise in the matter of getting clothes' quality and service.

It's a difference worth considering. Ask us more about it before you buy your next suit.

You need not be afraid of the test of wear either. When you buy Clothcraft Clothes at $10 to $25, you can be satisfied that they will keep their fresh-bought dressiness, style and shape from the first to the last day you wear them.

Come in Today and try on the Clothcraft Blue Serge Special, No. 5130, at $15.
