EVERMORE

Once I left my sanctuary yearning, and the heart of me was burning, For the talk of men was turning constantly to baseball lore, I was weary of their chatter of the fielder and the batter, And I dearly yearned to spatter all the landscape with their gore, And be happy evermore.

So I sought a quiet haven, there to read the Bard of Avon, When I met a lordly Raven of the saintly days of yore, Then a wave of balm came o'er me as I saw the bird before me; He at least would never bore me with this endless baseball lore— Quoth the Raven: "What's the score?"

PLAY GAME OVER.

Manager Ogren, of the Marshfield team stated today that President Kern, of the Coos County League who has been investigating the contest over the Marshfield Coquille game at Coquille last Sunday, informed him this morning that the game would have to be played over again on neutral grounds, probably at North Bend. It is expected to arrange the game for the near future.

Next Sunday Marshfield and North Bend will play a double header at North Bend and Myrtle Point and Coquille will play at Bandon.

Marshfield took North Bend down the line yesterday by a score of ten to three in one of the best games seen on the Marshfield diamond in a long time.

Marshfield's batting was the feature of the game and probably was responsible for Hull's hopefull "going up in the air" later. Three pitchers were introduced and were hit hard. Burnett, a new find, was tried out but only lasted a couple of innings, and Maloney met a similar fate. Hull then went into the box but was touched up pretty hard but his headwork kept the runs down.

Johnson pitched for Marshfield and twirled a rattling good game. He was given fairly good support except in two or three instances and these counted up heavily in the score column. In fact allowing North Bend her three runs, Mike Burke, Marshfield's stellar shortstop, was responsible for the run-counting errors, one being partly excusable because he was covering too much territory. One had throw allowed one run and another had one let in two runs.

There were a few long drives. Wood hit hard into rightfield and whether it was a two-bagger or a three-bagger, was questionable, depending on whether Surbeck fielded it clean, the majority holding that Surbeck should have kept Wood at second.

Hedgpath, a new second baseman from Gardiner, played a good game for Marshfield and was there with the willow. Perkins showed up strong again. Mickey McKeown's headwork showed him again to be a valuable asset and he was holding in old-time form.

H. J. Kimball, of Marshfield, umpired the game and showed that he had lost none of the old ability that made him a successful umpire in his league days. There was no kicking or wrangling over his decisions and he made them play ball.

There was a fair crowd out yesterday, there being slightly less than 600 paid admissions.

MYRTLE POINT GAMES.

Bandon Takes Another and Coquille Drops One to Valley Team.

At Myrtle Point yesterday Beddison's best continued their winning streak, defeating Myrtle Point two to one.

Myrtle Point got partly even on Coquille for its drubbing a week ago, by taking the county seat aggregation down the line 13 to 10.

Myrtle Point had some new men in her line-up yesterday. Manager Dement sent to Hood River and got Pitcher Charlie Hart and Catcher Billy Hall from there.

The pitcher is pitching, the batter is itching to punish the ball in the old-fashioned way; the umpire is umping, the fielders are humping—we're playing base ball in our village today! Two thousand mad creatures are perched on the bleachers, the grand stand is full and the fences the same, the old and the youthful, the false and the truthful, the plain and the lovely are watching the game. The groaning taxpayers are watching the players, forgetting a while all their burdens and wrongs, and landlord and tenant are saying the pennant will come to this town where it surely belongs. The lounge and roller, the spoiled and the spoiler, are whooping together like boys at the fair; and foes of long standing as one are demanding the blood of the umpire, his hide and his hair. The game is progressing, now punk and distressing—our boys are all rattled, the audience groans! But see how they rally—O scorer, keep tally! We'll win at the finish, I'll bet 7 bones! The long game is ended, we fans have all wended back, back to our labors, our cares and our joys, once more grave and steady—and yet ever ready to stake a few plunks on our own bunch of boys!—Walt Mason.

MANY ATTEND NUPTIALS HERE

Marriage of Miss Ethyl Van Zile and George Heglie Solemnized Saturday.

Two of North Bend's young people sprung a surprise on their many friends last Saturday evening when a very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Van Zile, on Sherman avenue, Miss Ethyl Van Zile being united in marriage to George Heglie, by Rev. McLeod in the presence of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The Van Zile home was very handsomely decorated for the occasion with flowers, ivy and white wedding bells. Three large rooms were decorated with ferns, bells and garlands. A beautiful altar in one corner of the room was beautifully embanked with greens and flowers, where the ceremony took place. At the appointed hour, the bridal couple, accompanied by Miss Bernice Stein, of Medford, Oregon, as bridesmaid, and Mr. Roy Crockett, as the groom's best man, filed into the rooms to the strains of a beautiful wedding march played by Miss Violet Johnson.

The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of white satin over white Oriental net trimmed with white satin roses and bead trimming. The trimming for the gown was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Harriet Mayne, of New York City. The bridal bouquet was bridal roses. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Van Zile, and is well known and a general favorite. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Heglie, of Portland, Oregon, and is widely known in North Bend, where he has a host of friends.

A sumptuous wedding supper was served after the ceremony at 9:00 o'clock. The North Bend Concert Band serenaded the young couple.

Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wray, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Surbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Holte, Mr. and Mrs. O. Heglie, Miss Bernice Stein, Ellen Anderson, Violet Johnson, Inez Anderson, Evia Van Zile, Oray Cousin, John Heglie, Roy Crockett, C. Peterson, of Marshfield, J. N. Cousins, Charles Van Zile, Jr., Fred Kruse and Frank Muesen.

The bridal couple will leave today for a short wedding trip and will be at home to their many friends after June 20 at their home on McPherson avenue, North Bend.

The wedding presents were costly and numerous, and were abundant evidence of the esteem in which the happy couple are held by their numerous friends who extend the heartiest of well wishes and bespeak for them a happy and prosperous voyage down life's stream.
