Social Tonight.—The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist Church will give a get-together-social at the Church tonight. A short program will precede refreshments.

Concert at North Bend.—The North Bend Concert Band will render a program this evening, in the public square if weather conditions are favorable, otherwise in Eckhoff Hall.

Leave Tomorrow.—A. Eppenstein, P. D. Chamberlain, A. L. Butz, F. H. Dresser, M. I. Fisher, J. M. McIntyre and Elmer Vineyard will leave via Drain tomorrow for the North.

Has Birthday.—Yesterday was the sixtieth birthday of Capt. C. E. Edwards of the Alert. He had forgotten all about it until about noon when he noticed in punching a ticket that it was June 12.

School Election.—The annual election of the Eastside school district will be held at the school building next Monday night. The terms of R. T. Whitty as director and C. E. Jordan as clerk will expire.

Official Coming.—Elmer E. Dower, vice-president of the H. M. Hyllesby Company, owners of the Oregon Power company, is expected here tomorrow from Tacoma to inspect the local plant and visit with Manager D. C. Green.

Mill Working.—C. Filteroft started the Filteroft and Hoffman sawmill in Perham's Park this week and will soon have it going at full capacity. He has taken the contract to supply 2100 piling for the Terminal Railroad work.

Coming to Coos Bay.—The Roseburg News says: "Mrs. Evelyn Johnson leaves Monday for Marshfield where she will locate permanently. Mrs. Johnson is a well-known stenographer and has many friends in this vicinity who regret to learn of her decision to locate elsewhere."

Here on Vacation.—Jas. Brown, City Marshal of Myrtle Point, came over today for a short visit. He is taking the first vacation he has enjoyed in two years. W. O. Cooper taking his place there. He was the guest of Marshal Carter and other friends here.

Dedication Earlier.—Rev. Hall announced today that the formal dedication of the colporter boat "The Lifeline" will be held Sunday, June 22, a week earlier than first planned. He has received word that Rev. O. C. Wright and Rev. Geo. L. White will be here for the services.

Eastside Progress.—Mayor Jordan of Eastside, was a Marshfield visitor today. He reports that Contractor Johnson has the Eastside wharf opposite the Smith mill rapidly nearing completion, and that Contractors Perham and Gidley yesterday started some teams on the street work and are making good progress.

To Try Case.—W. T. Stoll will leave on the Alliance tonight for Portland where he will try the case of John West vs the C. A. Smith company, the latter suing for $20,000 for the loss of a leg in the Smith mill. Several witnesses will go on the Alliance and others will leave overland tomorrow morning. The case is to come up in federal court Monday.

Big Elk Coming.—Sec. Geo. H. Rotner of the Marshfield Elks Lodge, has received word that Thurston E. Daniels, district deputy, will be here next week for the annual inspection of the Marshfield lodge. He will attend the regular meeting of the lodge next Wednesday night and arrangements are being made for a good turn-out to welcome him.

Empire Surplus.—Wm Saunders, who was recently appointed treasurer of Empire City, reports that the municipality has a surplus of about $1500 on hand. It has been years since Empire levied a city tax, the fines and licenses from the saloons paying for the minor sidewalk improvements, the $25 a month salary to the marshal and $10 per month to the recorder.

Caterpillars Rother.—Eugene O'Connell says the caterpillar pest is worse this year than in many seasons. He fears that it will become even worse unless some one stirs up the property owners and compels them to burn the caterpillars. He says that the owners of fruit trees and fine shrubbery should see that their neighbors burn the nests of caterpillars hanging from the trees.

Wed in Frisco. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Elkworth have received word of the marriage of their son, August, and Miss Emily Lipton at San Francisco last Saturday. The news comes as a surprise to Mr. Elkworth's many friends here, but nevertheless they will unite in extending all the wishes of happiness possible. Mr. Elkworth is now a linotype operator on the San Francisco Bulletin and formerly operated a linotype for The Times.

Get Contract.—Cyrus Steckle and Chas. Wallace of Eastside, have secured the sub-contract for paving 6th avenue.

Small Fire.—Tom Hall today upset an alcohol lamp in his office and burned his hand slightly but extinguished the blaze before any other damage was done.

Plan Chapel.—The people of North Inlet are planning to erect a chapel near the Ten Mile landing. Rev. Hall and Rev. McKee returned today from there with their colporter boat, the Lifeline. They had a meeting this morning. Sunday they will have an all day meeting at the W. J. Howard home, Rev. McKee speaking at 11 in the morning, conducting a boys' and girls' meeting after a big dinner, and Rev. Hall speaking at the close of the program.

AN OPEN LETTER:

THE MARSHFIELD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Gentlemen:— I am addressing particularly those members of your body who also belong to the Coos County Hardware Dealers' Association.

I have a grievance, the adjustment of which is the duty of a Chamber of Commerce.

I have been in business in Marshfield more than one year, but I cannot buy hardware or ammunition from any jobber having a local representative.

My competitors say that the jobber must not sell to me, or they will, collectively, boycott him.

My competitors who "were here first" can buy locally.

Had I written to your body, before coming here, you would have advised me to "come by all means."

After I came, I found that your members try to prevent me from doing business.

Quit chasing windmills and see that we new-comers have a chance to do business after we get here.

MARSHFIELD CYCLERY,
E. BANDEL.

Gentlemen:— You can't stop me from getting these goods, but you can make it much easier to do so.

CLOTHCRAFT All Wool Clothes

A CLOTHCRAFT Suit wears like an old friend. The longer you wear a clothcraft suit, the more you learn of its merits and true value.

Come in and examine a Clothcraft suit, inside and out, paying attention to the fine quality of the cloth, the correct stylish cut, the skillful tailoring. Then you will understand why a Clothcraft Suit fits and looks so well, and holds its shape and dressiness so long.

And the chief reason for the long life of Clothcraft Clothes is that they are honestly made of guaranteed all-wool cloth. Even under hard wear and bad weather, Clothcraft Clothes will not sag or lose their shape. The careful selection of material and painstaking craftsmanship extends to the linings and trimmings.

All these things that go into making good clothes are guaranteed by the Clothcraft makers. If, after a reasonable amount of wear, you are not fully satisfied with the service you have received from a Clothcraft suit, we stand ready to make it right with you. These all-wool, guaranteed - to - give - satisfaction clothes are priced from $10 to $25. We have some values at $15, $18 and $20 that will open your eyes. Come in today, while our stock of Clothcraft is still new and fresh.

Come in Today and try on the Clothcraft Blue Serge Special, No. 5130, at $15.
