BAPTIST CHURCH SOCIAL.

Many of the members of the Baptist church and congregation attended a most delightful social at the church last evening. An interesting literary and musical program, full of mirth and merriment, kept the audience convulsed with laughter for an hour or more. After the program was finished, old and young alike participated in fun-provoking games until their sides and faces ached from laughter. At the conclusion of the evening's pleasure, all present partook of delightful refreshments, which were served by Mesdames Doane, Doll and Nagle. By unanimous voice of those present, it was voted the most enjoyable social the church has given this winter. Among those participating in the program were: Mrs. Alva Doll, Mrs. E. Kelley, Mrs. G. L. Hall, Mrs. M. Ogren, Miss Ivy Hill, Miss Rosalie Flanagan, Miss Anna Ogren, Miss Alpha Muzzey, Mr. G. G. Dewey, Mr. Geo. Doll and Mr. Bassford.

DRAMATIC RECITAL.

The dramatic recital at the Marshfield Presbyterian Church last Tuesday evening by Mrs. Linnie Garrett Carl, under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U., was a pleasing feature of the week's entertainment.

Mrs. Carl is a state organizer of W. C. T. U. work. The program was as follows: "Thoughts for the Discouraged Farmer," Riley. "Old Clock on the Stairs," Longfellow. "Echo and the Fairy," Ingelow. "Psalm of Life," Longfellow. "Annabel Lee," Poe. "Roots," Kipling. "The Day of Judgment," Phelps.

COQUILLE MAN WEDS.

A beautiful home wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents at Winston's last evening, June 11, 1913, when Miss Kittle Bross was united in marriage to Mr. Archie Collier, of Coquille. The beautiful Bross home was made still more beautiful for the happy occasion by means of elaborate decorations of roses and other lovely flowers. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in the presence of a large company of relatives and special friends, Rev. W. H. Eaton officiating. After the wedding a dainty three-course wedding supper was served. More than ordinary interest centers in the union of this young couple as the groom is a rising young business man of Coquille

City, and the bride a talented and beautiful young woman who is justly popular with a host of her young friends. The newly wedded pair will visit friends in this section for a short time before going to their new home in Coquille.—Roseburg Review.
