

DIRECT BUYING

Means Right Selling

No similar concern in Coos County comes so near eliminating the middleman as the Golden Rule. Others depend on the jobber—the middleman—for their merchandise. The Golden Rule goes direct to the manufacturer and the importer. This makes it possible for us to retail goods at about the price other merchants pay for them. Just now we are closing out

Names Home.—J. W. Hildenbrand has named his new home on South Marshfield Heights "Hildenhurst."
Leave Tomorrow.—E. Nelson, A. D. Edgerton and W. H. Service are registered to leave by Drain stage tomorrow morning.

Organizer Here.—J. B. Young, state organizer for the A. O. U. W., arrived here today via Drain from Portland. Mr. Gentry expects to be here several days.

Strawberry Picnic.—The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church, will hold a strawberry picnic on Wireless Hill, Wednesday evening, June 18. The members will meet at the church at 8 p. m.

Big Strawberries.—Capt. William Ross of Isthmus Inlet has broken the record for large strawberries this season. He brought a box to town this morning eighteen berries to the box. The fruit, too, was of a superior quality.

Wants Band.—The Bandon Fourth of July celebration committee today tried to secure the Coos Bay Concert Band for the celebration there but as North Bend had already engaged them, Director Fenton was unable to accept the offer.

Band Concert.—Director Fenton of the Coos Bay Concert Band, announces that a free concert will be given Friday evening. If the weather is favorable, it will be given in the city park, and if it is not, the program will be given in the Masonic Opera House.

Lakeside Baseball.—The Lakeside baseball grounds was the scene of two lively games Sunday afternoon. First, Templeton played North Lake, Templeton winning by a score of 3 to 10. Then North Slough defeated Lakeside by a score of 14 to 15. A large and enthusiastic crowd was present.

Move to Coquille.—Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Marcy and family will move to Coquille on Thursday of this week, where they will have charge of the Smith-Powers stock ranch. Their many Marshfield friends will regret their removal but unite in wishing them much success in their new home.

Pioneer Here.—Adam Pershbaker, the pioneer mill man of Prosper, is here on a short business trip. Mr. Pershbaker has been a resident of Coos county for nearly half a century and was in Marshfield when there was little to indicate that there ever would be a thriving town here. He is being warmly welcomed by his many old time friends on the Bay.

Accepts Position Here.—Joe Roberts of Eureka, a clothing salesman of many years experience, is a new addition to the sales force of the Hub Clothing Store, made necessary by increasing business. Mr. Roberts held a position for many years in the store of J. M. Hutcherson, in Eureka. Mr. Hutcherson is better and more popularly known here as "Jimmy" Hutcherson.

Musicians Here.—Prof. and Mrs. H. E. Leppert have arrived here from Eugene to make their home in Marshfield, and will be employed at the Thomas Music store and the Orpheum theatre. Prof Leppert was educated in Dayton, Ohio, under Prof. LeRoy Lambert, director of the Springfield Conservatory of Music and the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and later was a pupil of Miss Dorothea Nash of Portland, a pupil of Franz Liszt and the Indianapolis Conservatory under Emiliano Renaud.

Firm Dissolves.—The firm of Fox & Pinegor, doing business under the firm name of the Marshfield Cleaning & Dye Works, has been dissolved, Mr. Pinegor retiring, while Mr. Fox will continue the business.

Proves Popular.—The great picture drama, "The Power of Silence," a play of the Great West, proved such a big hit at the Orpheum last night that it will be repeated tonight to give an opportunity to everyone to see a really great picture play.

Speeding Charged.—Charges of violating the speed ordinance have been filed before City Recorder Butler against Claude Tucker, Milas Richardson, D. L. Foote and Bill Erickson. W. B. Cox is the principal witness and they will have their hearing tomorrow.

Ask Franchises.—The Oregon Power Company last night presented a petition to the Myrtle Point City Council for a new electric franchise there. Friday night an application will be made at Coquille. If the company can secure satisfactory franchises, it proposes to take over the Coquille electric plant.

Wed in Riverton.—Ray Jehu, a well-known young man of Eastside, and Miss Bessie Robertson, of Riverton, were married at the home of the bride's parents in Riverton Sunday evening. The news of their marriage came as a great surprise to the many friends of the popular young couple, but all unite in wishing them a pleasant voyage over the matrimonial sea, with joys as deep as the ocean and sorrows as light as its foam.

Work on Railway.—Emil Nelson, foreman of the Umpqua Packing Company cannery at Reedsport, is in Marshfield today on business. He reports that the salmon run there so far has been very light. There is much railroad activity around Marshfield and Copenhagen have finished nearly three miles of road. They will move part of their camp to Smith river soon. Night and day shifts will be started on the big tunnel July 1, the compressors having been put in.

No Property Here.—Constable Cox has returned from Coquille where he took Joan Steinnon, sentenced to five days for carrying a revolver. He says Steinnon declares now that he has no property in Coos County, having traded his coal claim near Bandon to W. H. Kennedy and others for 480 acres in Texas. Constable Cox, in compliance with Sheriff Gage's instructions, notified Deputy Clyde Gage to serve Steinnon with bread and water unless he works on the road and only to count the days on which Steinnon works.
