The first "4th of July" celebration.

IN those days they celebrated the country's independence of foreign rule; they had to fight for it, but they got it. In these days there's a different sort of independence to be gained; and you ought to help win it.

Independence from fraud in merchandise is one of the things we're trying for; the elimination of the cheap stuff that masquerades as quality. It appears in clothing in the form of cotton-mixed fabrics, in "sloppy" tailoring, in flashy, undignified styles.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

clothes are a declaration of independence; they're all-wool, the best tailoring, the best style; they give the wearer independence of thought; and they save him from paying too much for good clothes.

That's the way we sell them; at $18, $20, $25, $30, and more; the best values you ever saw at $25.00.

BORN.

PINKERTON—To Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Pinkerton, at their home on North Inlet, Thursday, June 26, 1913, a daughter. Mother and child are doing well and the delighted father was in Marshfield today receiving congratulations and wearing a smile that would make the Taft smile look like a badge of grief.

Loses Purse—Mrs. J. Sullivan, who recently arrived from Portland, yesterday lost a purse containing $19.

Library Benefit—The Fortnightly club will give its last dance of the season on the night of July 4th, for the benefit of the library. Keyzer's orchestra will furnish the music.

Get Ice Plant—The Rustler took a shipment of ice manufacturing machinery from here to Florence Saturday, the Siuslaw creamery is putting in a cold storage plant there.

New Launch—Z. T. Thomas of Allegany, received a three-horse power Breakwater. The launch has a steel hull and will be used for a pleasure boat.

Family Troubles—The family troubles of A. Rose and wife, of Ferndale, have resulted in a separation and the next development is expected to be an application for divorce.

Meet in Coquille—All of the Coos County Protestant ministers will meet in Coquille, July 7 and 8 to form a Coos County Ministerial Association, to advance moral and religious work.

Bugs Find Dog—Claude Tucker this week sold his handsome Spitz dog to Joe Coach of Bandon for $100. Mr. Coach came over to get his new auto and when he saw Tucker's dog and learned of the canine's wisdom, he decided he had to have him and is said to have paid Tucker $100 for him.

Returns Here—E. H. Meade, formerly of the Margaret Hies company, which played Coos county towns a few years ago, has arrived here from San Francisco. He has been laid up the past year with a stroke of paralysis but has partly regained the use of his limbs. He expects to locate at Bandon and travel out of there. His sister, Mrs. Harvey, accompanied him.

Get False Limb—Howard Britt, who suffered the loss of an arm and a leg and some other injuries by being run over by a Smith-Powers train on a trestle on Isthmus Inlet, was able to be in Marshfield yesterday, having left Mercy hospital for the first time. He will go to Portland soon to secure a false limb. He is enthusiastic over his rapid recovery, praising Dr. Dix and Mercy hospital, and said that he wanted a newspaper clipping to send his mother at Brooklyn, N. Y., as she would not believe that he was getting along so nice after the awful injuries he sustained. A. H. Powers is making arrangements to assist him in fitting himself for work that his physical deformities will not interfere with.

The Biltmore Boys Coming—Dr. Schenck of the Biltmore Forestry school and about 50 of his students are expected here in July for their annual course in the Coos Bay country. Dr. Schenck plans to spend more time in this section with his students as he will make the course more American as a result of the developments in forestry, eliminating the necessity of foreign study. Henceforth, it is said, only students who specially desire it, will be sent to the Black Forest in Germany, study in the forests of the Northwest and Coos Bay being substituted. Dr. House, who was here with the students last year, received a family unanimitous, on the year is no longer with the Biltmore school, having been appointed curator of the botany department of the New York museum at Albany.

Has Recovered—Harry Grant, who sustained a fractured leg in Camp 1 some time ago and has been laid up at Mercy Hospital since, has fully recovered and left for San Francisco.

Good Roads Meeting—A. J. Mendel, George Goodrum, Hugh McLain and D. C. Greene left by auto today for Coquille to attend the Coos County Good Roads meeting to be held there. L. J. Simpson and Dr. Bartle, of North Bend, also went over by auto.

Return From Frisco—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Simpson, formerly of Eastside, returned today from California where they went for their health but find that Coos Bay breezes are best after all. Their friends are pleased to welcome them back. Mr. Simpson says that business is quiet in San Francisco.

May Build—John Ronberg, of Eastside, owner of the northeast corner of Third and Central, is figuring on putting up a brick veneer building there. Herbert Lockhart's option on the corner recently expired and Mr. Ronberg wants to improve it.

Relative Missing—Mrs. C. Lenet of Ferndale, has received word that a nephew, F. G. Baker, who suddenly disappeared at Cambridge, Idaho, last September, cannot be found. A reward is being offered by his mother for any news of him. A description of the missing young man is given in the want ad column of The Times.

Birthday Today—Robert Starkey, a survivor of the Mexican War, and a pioneer of the Pacific Coast in the late 45's, attained his 83d birthday on Friday the 27th of June. Bob tells us that he served under five Commodores in the U. S. Navy; two at Vera Cruz, Connor and Perry, and three elsewhere, Kearney, Storer and Ap. Catesby Jones, receiving his discharge from the latter on March 5, 1849, at San Francisco, California.

Annual Meeting—Herbert Armstrong, local manager of the Menasha Woodware company and the Southern Oregon company was here from North Bend today. He said that the annual meeting of the Southern Oregon company at Empire yesterday was merely routine, the old board of directors and officials being elected with the exception that Guy W. Chambers was chosen in place of A. V. Wickman, who moved to California. Mr. Chambers succeeding him in the management of the store. He said that he had not heard of the Southern Pacific trying to buy any of their land around Empire.

Fined Today—Jack Durrand, formerly of Bunker Hill but who has been out on a homestead, was arrested last night by Officer Doane on the charge of using profane language on the street. As Doane arrested him, Durrand tried to get a weapon out of his pocket and Doane brought his club into play. When Durrand was searched he was found to have a pair of brass knuckles and a vicious knife in his possession. Justice Pennock fined him $40 or gave him the privilege of serving 20 days in the county jail. Later E. L. C. Farrin and other friends appealed for Durrand and made up $20 to which Judge Pennock reduced his fine, on condition that Durrand go direct to his homestead.
