A PRAYER.
(By Louis Untermyer.)
God, though this life is but a wrath, Although we know not what we use,
Although we grope with little faith, Give me the heart to fight and lose.
Ever in conflict let me be;
Make me more daring than devout;
From sleek contentment keep me free,
And fill me with a buoyant doubt,
Open my eyes to visions girt
With beauty, and with wonder lit;
But let me always see the dirt
And all that spawn and die in it.
Open my ears to music; let Me thrill with Spring's first flutes and drums;
But never let me dare forget
The bitter ballads of the slums.
From compromise and things half done
Keep me, though all the world deride,
And when at last the fight is won,
God, keep me still unsatisfied.

YOU CAN HAVE A WEALTH OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Nothing equals an aureole of beautiful hair as a frame for a pretty face. Without a background of nice hair a really pretty face frequently becomes plain and, with it, unattractive features assume life and beauty.
Every woman can increase her natural charm by using Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide makes hair beautiful. The dandruff germ saps the vitality of the hair. Herpicide applied intelligently and regularly checks this destruction of hair life and prevents the hair from falling out, giving it a snap and luster, a soft, silky fluffiness which can be acquired in no other way.
Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.
Applications may be obtained at the best barber shops and hairdressing parlors. Lockhart-Parson's

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the common council of the City of Marshfield, Coos County, Oregon, until 8 o'clock p. m., Monday, the 7th day of July, 1913, for the improvement of that portion of Tenth street south from the south line of Ingersoll avenue west to the south line of Railroad addition to Marshfield, in the city of Marshfield, Coos County, Oregon, according to the plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Recorder and there open to the inspection of all persons interested therein.
All bids must be in accordance with the requirements accompanying said specifications, and upon blanks for that purpose which will be supplied upon request at the office of the City Engineer.
A certified check of five per cent of the amount bid must accompany the bid, to be forfeited to the said City of Marshfield in case the contractor is awarded the contract and he fails to enter in a contract with the said city within five days.
The Common Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
JOHN W. BUTLER,
Recorder.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Board of Directors of School District No. 9, Coos County, Oregon, for the completion of the attic in the High School Building in said District, according to the plans and specifications prepared by Wm. S.
Turpin, architect.
The contractor to furnish all labor and material. The successful bidder will be required to give a bond in the amount of 50 per cent of the contract price, as mentioned in specifications.
Bid to be addressed to John F.
Hall, Clerk of School District No.
9, and will be opened at 7:30 o'clock p. m., July 10, 1913, at the office of Hall & Hall, in said district.
Each bidder to deposit a certified check of 5 per cent of bid made payable to School District No.
9, to be forfeited in case bid be awarded and bidder fail to enter into contract with satisfactory bond within five days from date of award.
The school board reserves the right to reject any and all bids or to award a bid not the lowest, if they deem the bidder most responsible.
Dated this 24th day of June, 1913.
JOHN F. HALL,
Clerk School District No. 9, Coos County, Oregon.

WITH TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING.
"And they asked me how I did it, and I gave 'em the Scripture text,
'You keep your light so shining a Little in front o' the next!'
They copied all they could follow,
But they couldn't copy my mind,
And I left 'em sweating and stealing A year and a half behind."
Kipling.

MOVING SCENE.
Squirmling like a monkey,
Thrashing like a whale,
Bucking like a donkey,
Creeping like a snail,
Sweating like a waffle, Screeching like a train—Hang it! This is awful, Moving in the rain.
Fadder's on a ladder,
Packing kitchen pans;
Mother's getting madder
At the tardy vans;
Brother Bob's disabled,
Falling down the stair
With a hamper, labelled,
"Handle this with care!"

Mover's ducking fixtures,
Falling over jugs,
With a crate of pictures
And a bale of rugs;
Helper slipping, sliding
On the muddy grass, Quit, and gone in hiding—
Broke a looking glass!
Brother Jimmy's whacking Mother's steamer trunk;
Sister Nellie's packing Father's smoking junk;
Sister Sadie's whanging
With a hank of rope Dad's pajamas hanging
On the bust of "Hope."

Squirmling like a monkey,
Spouting like a whale,
Kicking like a donkey,
Crawling like a snail,
Working like a beaver,
Groaning like a van—Hang the moving fever
And the weather man!
To publish all the news about other people's affairs is the proper thing, but publicity for your own af-

THE WOMEN'S DAYS.
By "The Benztown Bard."
These are the women's days—and look what the women do!
Heading the civic work of the world, and turning the wron to true;
Putting themselves in the forward ranks of the laborers of the time To heal the evil government and stay the progress of crime.
These are the women's days,
With her banners of light she goes,
To turn the street and the dirty lot
Into a garden of rose.

These are the women's days—and see how they take their place, Helping with counsel and skill and toll the onward march of the race!
Building us first the homes, and helping us rear the child, And then with the cohorts marching on to cleanse what is now defiled.
These are the women's days,
And sane and noble and firm She plants her banners upon the height
And her foot on the civic worm.
These are the women's days, of broader and nobler creed, Than sewing and sweeping and baking bread for the common daily need;
For the higher soul that she is, and the finer thread of her life, So in a finer and higher way she comes to the civic strife.
These are the women's days,
And the greatest mothers of all Are those who have lifted the civic sword
And marched to the battle call.
For it need not make her less in the tasks of love that she Should set her soul a task of life in the wars of liberty; Should rise in the widening hour of the world's advancing plan To plant her banner of force beside the standards of the man.
These are the women's days,
And better the civic state Of the land in which she takes her stand
To help and consecrate.

WHO?
Who is it when I'm sad and blue And friends are cold and kind words few,
Who soothes and comforts me—ah
who?
I wish I knew.

Who is it, when the moments fly
And parting time, too, soon draws nigh,
Who kisses me a sweet goodbye?
The name has escaped me.

That has the true ring, comes where I'm

If a man has talent he can make use of another's genius.
A woman's mission is to sweeten a man's life, theoretically.

And some people who believe that prayer has an effect on the weather lack the faith necessary to help them over a dull season in business.

Men who have no sense of humor get funny at the wrong time.

All Coos Bay men are modest, I will say When it comes to making any donations;
And some Coos Bay men are so bashful that they Won't even meet their ordinary obligations.

Flattery will succeed where Force can't exact and Money can't purchase.

accuse him of being a regular Devil among the women. But when he is guilty he gets mad if you even hint at such a thing.
