

IN SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Three.)

Zeek, Geo. Glendorfer, J. W. Felter, R. A. Felter, E. B. Kausrud, Captain Korth, Chris. Rasmussen, E. Lewin, L. J. Butterfield, John Johnson, B. J. Coumerilh, D. J. Mitchell and Miss Ella Felter. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in social conversation and a three course luncheon was served by the hostess which was greatly enjoyed by all present.—Bandon Recorder.

OUTINGS LATE.

The Coos river season is opening late this year, probably owing to the rainy weather. Very few of the summer homes are occupied and probably will not be until about the middle of July.

Eugene O'Connell and family plan to establish permanent summer quarters at The Maze about July 15, when Wm. Ford will be here from Portland to join them.

W. S. Chandler and family will probably not go to their summer home for a few weeks yet.

Major and Mrs. Morton Tower of Empire, and the Browning families are among the first of the summer cottages along the river.

JULY FOURTH DANCES.

During the coming week, many dancing parties will mark the Fourth of July festivities. In Marshfield, the Eagles plan to give a big ball at their hall on the night of July 3, while the Fortnightly club and Lew Keyzer will give a benefit ball there July first for the Marshfield public library. There will be several dances at North Bend, also, during the two days celebration there.

BUNKER HILL DANCE.

An informal dancing party was given at the G. W. Craig home on Bunker Hill last Tuesday evening. Music was furnished by a five-piece orchestra and an enjoyable time was had by all. Among those present were the Misses Tori Lund, Bruce Kelley, Minerva Mecum, Vivian Craig and Mabel Craig, and the Messrs. Foster McDonald, Kenneth Kelley, Charles Skerrett, Bartlett Knox, Charles Knox, Orley Kinney, Roy Morgan, Herbert Phillips, George Wilberger and Lloyd Seaman, and Mr. and Mrs. George Craig.

FAREWELL PARTY.

Miss Signa Larson entertained a number of young folks at a delightful little farewell party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Larson, in Bunker Hill, Thursday evening. Miss Larson will leave soon for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Saubert, at Acme, and will later go to Portland. The house was prettily decorated, being lighted with Japanese lanterns, roses and greens, making an effective background. Games and music were enjoyed and partners for refreshments were chosen by means of novel place cards. Among those present were Misses Ruth Matthews, Ivy Hill, Esther Nelson, Carrie Ross, Rilla Ross, Lillian Daigle, Annie Harbell, Jennie Trystad, Velma Ross and Myrtle Nelson, the latter two assisting in serving. The gentlemen present were Chas. Knox, Bartlett Knox, Clifford Downs, Hans Hansen, Arthur Miller, Roy Abbott, Chas. Frodellus, Halbert Carlisle, Jas. Howe and Ben Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olson, Mrs. E. Ahlquist and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Larson.

STRAWBERRY SOCIAL.

Last Saturday night, June 21, a strawberry social and entertainment was given at the Blue Ridge school house on Daniels Creek, the proceeds to go towards buying a new organ for the school.

Following is the program as announced by the teacher, Miss Lola Montgomery:

Welcome.....Maggie Rankin
Song, "America".....By All
Recitation, "The First American Flag".....Alice Hedden
Recitation, "Unfortunate Nettle".....Nettie Hedden

Recitation, "What to Drink".....Nettie Hedden
Recitation, "A Patriotic Boy".....Mamie Rankin

Recitation, "Courtney Hedden".....Courtney Hedden
Recitation, "Why Is It?" Vella Terry
Song "The Golden Shore".....Three Girls

Recitation, "Mr. Tongue" Jack Terry
Recitation, "Dolly's Bath" Lilla Rice
Reading, "The Flag" Alice Hedden
Recitation, "Howard's Wish".....Edward Dyer

Recitation, "As Regular as a Clock" Nettie Hedden
Recitation, "A Fourth of July Record" Courtney Hedden
Recitation, "Never Trust to Appearances" Ruth Dyer

Recitation, "His Speech" Ruth Dyer
Dialogue, "Pride Rebuked" Robert Rankin
Recitation, "No Land Like Oregon" Ruth Dyer and Maggie Rankin
Song, "No Land Like Oregon" School

Recitation, "What I Don't Like" Vella Terry
Recitation, "Always in a Hurry" Alice Hedden
Recitation, "The Returned Battle-flag" Nettie Hedden
Reading, "A Modern Love Letter" Mrs. E. E. Dyer
Drill and song, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean" Five Girls

EASTERN STAR SOCIAL.

One of the most delightful sessions that Doric Chapter, O. E. S. has enjoyed was held Tuesday evening. It was in the nature of a reception for Mrs. J. T. Hall, the Worthy Matron, who had just been honored with a Grand Chapter appointment. The hall was prettily decorated with roses and flowers and, following the business session, at which Mrs. Hall reported on the grand chapter session, a banquet was enjoyed. F. E. Allen presided as toastmaster and there were toasts by Tom Bennett, J. T. Hall, Mr. Miller and others. The affair was in charge of the Past Patrons and Past Worthy Matrons under the direction of Mrs. Ora McCarty.

HONORS MRS. GULOVSON.

Mrs. Robt. McCann of North Bend, entertained Wednesday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. E. R. Gulovson of Portland. Among those invited were Mrs. C. G. Magnus, Mrs. E. R. Hodson, Mrs. E. George Smith, Mrs. J. Johnson, Misses Mamie and Helen Gulovson and Miss Audrey Johnson. The house was prettily decorated with roses and lilies. A number of instrumental selections by Mrs. Smith added to the afternoon's pleasure.

NORTH BEND CLUB.

The North Bend Thimble club was delightfully entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. H. J. Linden at her home in North Bend. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. O'Mara assisted the hostess during the afternoon. The next meeting will be held two weeks from yesterday with Mrs. O'Mara. Among those present yesterday were Messames Gothro, Kennedy, Watters, Williams, O'Mara, Kaiser, Gebhardt, Coleman, Hendryx, Glazier, Russell, Hazer and Strate.

BRIDGE LUNCHEONS.

Mrs. W. B. Scott has issued invitations for bridge luncheons Monday and Tuesday complimentary to her mother, Mrs. E. H. Cattron, of Spokane, who arrived this week for a short visit with her daughter.

EASTSIDE CLUB.

The Eastside Social Club met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Steckle Thursday. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. J. A. Swanson Thursday, July 10. The club members spent a very enjoyable afternoon sewing. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. J. A. Swanson, Mrs. J. C. Steele, Mrs. Chas. Wallace, Mrs. F. Frey, Mrs. Brinkley and Mrs. D. Major.

LOYAL WOMEN MEET.

The Loyal Woman's Class met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Ora McCarty. While this was the regular meeting for study it was decided to hold a business meeting as it was the close of the contest between the members for membership, attendance and other points.

After the business meeting a social time was enjoyed and the hostesses served refreshments. Those present were Mrs. John Motley, Mrs. Chas. Powers, Mrs. R. A. Copple, Mrs. La Chance, Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. A. H. Painter.

The next meeting of the club will be July 25th.

BON-FIRE PARTY.

Miss Madge Barry entertained a few friends at a bon-fire party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Barry in Ferndale, last evening. Among those present were Misses Grace Kruse, Gladys Tower, Alma McIntosh and Frances Williams, and Messrs. Cornell Lagerstrom, Frank Heath, Fred Lamon, Dell Bengston and Howard Freeman.

BROTHERHOOD MEETING.

The M. E. Brotherhood held its regular monthly meeting with August Isaacson on Wednesday evening. It proved one of the most interesting and enthusiastic for some time. A number of new members were admitted and new officers were elected, as follows:

President.....Geo. N. Bolt
Vice-President.....F. A. Suedi
Secretary.....Carl Thompson
Treasurer.....David Nelson

At the conclusion of the business meeting a pleasant social session was held at which delicious refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening resulted.

QUEEN OF REGATTA.

The following from a Portland paper will be of interest on the Bay, as Mrs. Callender was the guest last summer of Mrs. L. J. Simpson, "Queen Beatrice, of the Astoria Eighteenth Annual Regatta, to be held July 3, 4, and 5, who in private life is Mrs. Charles H. Callender, is one of the most charming and popular matrons in the social circles of the city. A born hostess and possessing a charming personality that has gained for her a wide circle of warm personal friends and admirers. Queen Beatrice is fitted eminently in every way to lead in the various functions and entertainments that will constitute the social features during her reign."

INFORMAL CHAT.

Carl Davis, who has been cruising timber in the Cow Creek canyon section for the past two months, came in this week for a short visit and will probably remain until after July 4.

Mrs. E. L. C. Farrin arrived here from Portland this week to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rood. She was accompanied by her little niece, Miss Grace Farrin, daughter of Geo. N. Farrin. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Farrin has been quite ill.

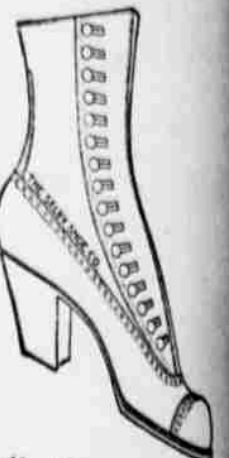

Mrs. W. G. Chandler expects to leave early in July for Merlin and Grants Pass where she will visit with her mother and other relatives.

R. H. Kellogg and wife of Coquille, came over Wednesday to visit Mr.

You'll Delight in Wearing the "Selby" Shoe

The "Selby" Shoe is made for the woman who appreciates individuality and distinction in her footwear—for the woman who desires her shoes to look as well and fit as well as any other part of her wearing apparel.

All "Selby" Shoes are made with re-inforced arches. When you slip on a "Selby" you feel the support instantly—it fits at the arch as though held by a gloved hand.

A new shipment of "Selby's"—Pumps in velvet, suede and all the popular leathers; also showing a new line of boots in low and high heels. Widths AA to E.

Price $3.50 to $5.00

Wear a "Selby"—"The Shoe That Needs no Breaking in."

AT HUB DRY GOODS CO. ONLY.

Hub Dry Goods Co.

O'CONNELL BUILDING

PHONE 351.

Evening Slippers in the Popular Shades at Hub Dry Goods Co.

and Mrs. W. G. Chandler and to attend the Elks ball.

Miss Elizabeth Topping, the Marshfield city librarian returned Thursday from a month's vacation spent with friends and relatives at Salem, Portland and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ollivant, who arrived today from their honeymoon will occupy the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. James Cowan in the Williams' building, Mr. and Mrs. Cowan moving to Lakeside, where Mr. Ollivant will engage in business. Mrs. Ollivant will be well remembered here as Miss Vivian Whitmore and has many friends who will welcome her on her return to make her future home on Coos Bay as the bride of one of the city's popular business men.

Mrs. M. J. Ostrow and children will leave early next month for a few weeks visit at Portland and Seattle and other northern points.

Miss Edith M. Dunning and niece, Misses Doris and Edith Merceen, are here from Berkeley, Cal., for a few weeks visit with Arno Merceen and J. D. Merceen.

Mrs. O. J. Seeley and son, John, of Coquille, are expected here today for a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. Cora Morgan of Sutherlin, Oregon, is the guest of her former schoolmate, Mrs. J. E. Fitzgerald. They had not seen each other for 18 years and the reunion was a most delightful one.

Irving Chandler and bride and Ben Chandler and bride are enjoying a honeymoon trip to Alaska points. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Chandler will return here about July 5, but Mr. and Mrs. Ben Chandler will not arrive until later as they will stop at Vancouver, B. C., to visit his sister, Mrs. Harry Tremaine. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Chandler spent several days at the Tremaine home prior to their trip to Alaska, the latter being made on the steamer Humboldt in which W. S. Chandler is one of the principal stockholders. Irving Chandler will engage in the real estate and insurance business here as well as looking after the W. S. Chandler properties, while Ben Chandler will be identified with the First National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bargelt and Master Julius Matson arrived home the first of the week from Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Bargelt also visited at Seattle.

Andrew J. McClelland of Pueblo, Colo., arrived here this week for a short visit with his sister, Mrs. Doll of South Marshfield, and with his nephews, Alva and George Doll, and other relatives. Mr. McClelland has just returned from a pleasure trip to Australia.

Herbert Lockhart and family and Mrs. Emma Nasburg left yesterday for the Lockhart summer home on South Coos river.

Mrs. W. C. Bradley is expected home within a few days from Monrovia, Cal., where she has spent several months for her health. She may arrive on the Nann Smith tomorrow but if not will come via the Speedwell to Bandon where Mr. Bradley and Herbert Bradley will meet her. She is considerably improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Evertsen left on the last Nann Smith for California where they will spend a few weeks visiting the principal points of interest.

E. A. Anderson arrived home yesterday via Bandon from Burlingame, Cal., where he has been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eric Wold, for several weeks. Mrs. Anderson and Miss Evelyn remained there for another month's visit. Mrs. Anderson is considerably improved in health, which will be gratifying news to her many Marshfield friends.

Mrs. J. Albert Matson, following the Eastern Star meeting at Portland, went to Medford, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Ben Vandecar until after July 4. Their mother, Mrs. Alice Kruse, expects to join them at Medford soon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Neff and sons expect to leave the latter part of next month for an extended visit at their old home at Antigo, Wis. En route they will visit with Mrs. Neff's father, Mr. Harrigan, at Seattle.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Morrow are receiving congratulations from their many friends over the arrival of their first child, Renauld, born Tuesday evening, June 24.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Tower and Miss Nellie Tower will arrive home tomorrow on the Nann Smith from San Francisco where they have been visiting for a few weeks since leaving Monrovia, Cal., where they spent the winter.

Mrs. M. L. Perham of Portland, is spending the summer at the home of her son, E. G. Perham in Marshfield.

Mrs. J. W. Langworthy and daughter, Miss Evelyn, are enjoying a few days outing at the camp of Mrs. J. W. Carter above Allegany.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bargelt entertained State Railroad Commissioner Miller at dinner Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harrigan have had to postpone their auto trip to Jacksonville and central Oregon until next month owing to the rainy weather making it inadvisable to start on such a long motor trip.

Miss Charlotte Cowie, of San Leandro, and Miss Ruth Brownlie, of Vallejo, Cal., arrived here yesterday for a few weeks' visit with Miss Nora Tower. They belong to the same sorority at Berkeley.

Mrs. W. T. Stoll and baby are now visiting relatives in Minneapolis. Mr. Stoll, who has been in Portland, is expected home within a few days. He was taken sick there this week and his return delayed.

Miss Ella Felter, of Bandon, is expected here soon for a soart visit with Miss Ruth Allen.

Miss Ursula Farringer left today for Sumner, where she will be the guest of Miss Wilda Harris for a week or so.

Mrs. D. J. Rees, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Roslyn, Wash., for the past three weeks, is expected home on the next Breakwater.

Mrs. W. H. Hanson and son, Vernon Hanson, arrived here this week to spend the summer at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Crawford, of Central avenue.

Wm. Ford and his mother are expected here next Saturday from Portland to join Mrs. Ford and little daughter who are spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell.

Mrs. F. E. Allen, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Dumond, arrived here the first of the week from Albany, where Mrs. Allen visited following the Eastern Star meeting.

Judge J. S. Coke and family are over Sunday guests at the Herbert Lockhart summer home on Coos river.

Miss Anona Hildenbrand, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand, and Master Jean Cross-thwait assisted at the Elks ball Wednesday evening, during programs, etc.

DR. LEEP HURT.

Pioneer Physician of Myrtle Point, Injured.
MYRTLE POINT, Or., June 25.—Dr. K. A. Leep, a pioneer physician of this city, fell 12 feet from a cherry tree and sustained a severe concussion of the brain. The attending physician does not believe the chances will prove fatal.

MEETS SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Chester Walker of Coquille, From Heart Failure.
The Coquille Sentinel says: "The Chester Walker, a resident of this city, departed this life suddenly Monday night, the cause of death being heart failure. Mrs. Walker has been in delicate health for several months. When taken seriously on the night of her passing, she Walker went with all possible speed for medical aid, but the end came before the arrival of a physician."

JUNE WHITE SALE 25 PER CENT OFF on all WHITE DRESSES, WAISTS, SKIRTS and GIRLS' SUITS OR SUITS. LADIES' EXPOSURE

At the Home of Guaranteed Goods

SHARP'S

Butcher Knives

Important Article in Your Kitchen Equipment

Why tolerate a "Butcher Knife" that must be sharpened daily when you can have a SHARP'S

Butcher Knives bearing this name are dependable—the blades hold their edge—the quality of the steel makes the difference. We have a large assortment. Let us sell you one NOW. Our guarantee covers all styles and patterns, regardless of price.

Summer Hardware Co. Market Avenue Marshfield Oregon

KODAK

For Every Occasion

TAKE A KODAK on all your summer outings. It will give you a lasting picture of all your good times. Catalogue Free.

KODAKS From $5.00 to $65.00

Red Cross Drug Store

Developing and Printing.

Phone 122-J. Motorcycle Delivery.