BORN

LARSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Larson of Eastside, at Mercy Hospital, Sunday, June 29, a daughter. She is their first child and mother and daughter are doing nicely, while Mr. Larson is doing as well as could be expected under such joyful conditions.

Get Big Auto.—Gorst & King received their big auto for the Marshfield-North Bend run on the Breakwater today. The car was made to order and looks like one of the big sight-seeing autos in the cities.

Firecracker Victim.—Ralph Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richardson, of Bunker Hill, is the first Fourth of July victim on Coos Bay. He was playing with firecrackers and sustained an injury to his eye.

Move Body.—Mrs. R. A. Russell, of Randolph, is in Marshfield to meet the remains of her husband who died and was buried in Salem 12 years ago. The remains, which were to arrive on the Breakwater, will be taken to Randolph for interment.

Sunday Picnic.—W. M. Blake and family, Cornell Lagerstrom, Miss Nora Tower and her guests, Miss Florence Aiken, Tom Bennett, Jack Meren, and Del Bengston were among the Marshfielders enjoying Sunday at Mussle Reef.

Trip Delayed.—Miss Nellie Montgomery of the Marshfield Christian Science church this morning received a telegram that Eickell Young, the lecturer who was to have come here for an address July 15, has had to postpone his trip to Marshfield, and the date of his coming is now uncertain.

For Bear Story.—Tom Hall says that since the blackberries are ripe in the woods west of Marshfield, it is now time for some to spring the old story about a bear being seen there. The bear story, he says, keeps the children out of the choicest blackberry patches and enables some of the grownups to have a corner on the crop.

Wed in Berkeley.—Mrs. E. S. Bargett today received the announcement of the marriage of her cousin, Miss Anne Gray, of Berkeley, to Mr. Grove Hermann, of Berkeley, California. Miss Gray spent part of the summer here last year and the many friends she made will unite in extending congratulations to the lucky groom.

Postpone Picnic.—The Marshfield Episcopal Sunday school picnic, which was to have been held tomorrow, has been postponed indefinitely owing to the unsettled weather.

Bad Roads to Bandon.—C. E. Kopf, editor of the Bandon Recorder, and Mrs. Kopf, drove over from Bandon yesterday in their new auto to meet Mrs. Kopf's sister, Miss Lena Kremer, who arrived on the Breakwater from Seattle and will spend part of her summer vacation in the City-by-the-Sea. Mr. Kopf says the roads were so bad coming over that he feared to try them going back and returned on the train leaving his auto here.

Wed Today.—John D. Goss, a well-known Marshfield attorney, and Elizabeth Lawlor, were married this morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard, Judge John F. Hall officiating. They left immediately on a honeymoon trip to various coast points. Only members of the family and Miss Agnes Hutchinson were present. Mr. and Mrs. Goss will reside in the Nicholson apartments on Alder near North Broadway.

Given Purse.—At the farewell reception at the Baptist Church Friday evening, the congregation presented Rev. A. F. Bassford a purse of money as a little remembrance and token of their appreciation of his services. Through an error Saturday the name of Rev. G. LeRoy Hall was omitted from the list of those responding with farewell addresses to Rev. Bassford. Mr. Bassford left this morning for his home at Corvallis and plans to spend the next few months on his ranch.

"WHAT HAPPENED TO MARY."
The sixth in the series of pictures being shown at the Orpheum is entitled "A Clue to Her Parentage," and will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Patrons who have followed the fortunes of Mary are assured another interesting and dramatic feature in her life story in this picture.

those days they celebrated the country's independence of foreign rule; they fought for it, but they got it. In these there's a different sort of independence to be gained; and you ought to help win it. Independence from fraud in merchandise is one of the things we're trying for; the elimination of the cheap that masquerades as quality. It appears in clothing in the form of cotton-mixed fabrics, in "sloppy" tailor-made, flashy, undignified styles.

Hart Schaffner & Marx
are a declaration of independence; they're all the best tailoring, the best style; they give the wearers independence of thought; and they save him from paying too much for good clothes.
That's the way we sell them; at $18, $20, $25, $30, and more; the best values you ever saw at $25.00.
