The first "4th of July" celebration.

In those days they celebrated the country's independence of foreign rule; they had to fight for it, but they got it. In these days there's a different sort of independence to be gained; and you ought to help win it.

Independence from fraud in merchandise is one of the things we're trying for; the elimination of the cheap stuff that masquerades as quality. It appears in clothing in the form of cotton-mixed fabrics, in "sloppy" tailoring, in flashy, undignified styles.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

clothes are a declaration of independence; they're all-wool, the best tailoring, the best style; they give the wearer independence of thought; and they save him from paying too much for good clothes.

That's the way we sell them; at $18, $20, $25, $30, and more; the best values you ever saw at $25.00.

WOOLEN MILL STORE

This store is the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes.

WE HAVE PROGRESSED

so far in perfecting our store service—that now we have only to contend with the problem of inducing you to examine its benefits to you. Taking lots of exercise? Ever sprain your ankle or wrist? "First-aid-to-the-injured" REXAL RUBBING OIL takes the stiffness out in no time—better than anything else you could use. 25c and 50c. Cotton, bandages, sterilized and medicated for hospital and home use.

teams, 267 single rigs and 59 head of stock between Eastside and Marshfield.

Will Picnic the Fourth.—The young people of the Baptist Church will have a picnic at Charleston Bay July 4. They have chartered the Alice H., which will leave the foot of Market avenue at 7:45 a. m.

Seeks Son.—Mrs. Mary E. Murphy who resides at 619 North Mill street, North Manchester, Indiana, has written to Marshfield parties asking them to try to locate her son, Lloyd Evert Murphy, who is supposed to be in this section.

Close One Day.—The C. A. Smith company's big mill will close Thursday night for the Fourth but will resume again Saturday morning.

Tall Orchard Grass.—Dal Cathcart today brought to The Chamber of Commerce a sample of the orchard grass grown in this section. He cut it near his home in West Marshfield and it measured over eight feet, being nearly twice as tall as the grass ordinarily grows.

Dairy Pays Well.—John W. Benson of Templeton, is in town today. Mr. Benson bears the honor of holding the high record for the creamery test for the month of May. He milks eight cows and for May received 26 cents a pound for butter fat, which brought him $105.

Freak Potato.—W. G. Stonecypher of Eastside, this morning brought in two freak potatoes which he found in his garden. The potatoes apparently split open where the eyes were located and little potatoes grew partly inside, the larger potato forming a sort of pouch for them.

Likes Marshfield.—The Roseburg News says: "Letters received from Mrs. Evelyn Johnson, of Marshfield, are to the effect that she is getting along nicely and has an excellent position. Mrs. Johnson formerly lived in Roseburg and was employed by Attorney George Neuner."

Finishing Work.—The Larson dredge beaver has nearly completed the removal of the shoals in North Coos river and will soon go to the South Fork to take out a couple of shoals near the Maze and above there. The work is being paid for by the government and will greatly improve river navigation.

Camps Close.—The Smith-Powers logging camps will close tonight for the Fourth and will remain closed until next Monday morning. The McDonald and Vaughan camp on Daniels Creek is taking a week's vacation for the Fourth and nearly all the Blue Ridge Tigers are in Marshfield for the celebration.

Passes Final Test.—Mrs. John Snyder has received word that her nephew, John Hayes Jenkins, has passed the final examination for his appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. He left Bellingham last week for Annapolis. The Bellingham High school escorted him in a body to the train and some of his instructors will accompany him as far as Chicago.

Smallpox Cases.—Dr. Strate yesterday quarantined the Agnes Johnson home near the mouth of Pony Inlet for smallpox. The family are half breed Indians and three or four of the children had the disease and did not know it. They had it in a mild form and were up and around most of the time and a physician was not called until the present case developed a little more severe. No serious trouble is anticipated from it.

Aid School.—The Allegany school is arranging for a big entertainment and basket supper at the school house Saturday evening, July 12, as a benefit for the school. The entertainment is being arranged by A. B. Heuenergaard, the teacher, and his pupils and the ladies of the school district are arranging the supper. The launch Tloga will carry a party from Marshfield and other boats will also provide free service from Daniels Creek and other points along the river.

Burton Case.—Before Judge Coke at Coquille today, a motion for a new trial in the case of State Representative J. S. Bartn, recently convicted of assault, is being argued.

Reaches Naples.—A cablegram announces the safe arrival of Miss Marie Maloney, principal of the South Marshfield grades, at Naples, Italy. She sailed direct from New York for Naples and will start her European trip from there.

In Portland.—Joe Schott in a letter to Alfred Matson, says that he and Fred Hill have returned to Portland and will take night jobs in a mill near there. Louis Pressler, formerly of Coos Bay, is engaged in the real estate business at Portland.

Wed Today.—Fred Stora, time-keeper at the McDonald & Vaughan camp, and Miss Stella Smith were married today at Coquille and will take a honeymoon trip to the Willamette valley. Mr. Jesse Smith and family accompanied them to Coquille this morning.

Sea Lion Hides.—John Swing of the Tramp, brought in about 60 bull sea lion hides today for shipment to San Francisco. They have killed about 160 this year. The hides bring 3 1-2 cents per pound and weigh about 100 pounds each. Each large sea lion is worth about $8 or $9. The female sea lions and puppies are not killed.

Supply Pastor.—At a meeting of the Marshfield Baptist congregation last night, Rev. E. Gardiner, an instructor in the Baptist college at McMinnville, was selected to supply the local pulpit for a couple of months and is expected here by next Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Spriggs declined the call from here. The committee in the meantime will try to get Rev. Bassford to return if his health will permit.

Change Contracts.—Lawrence Hofer, son of Col. E. Hofer of Salem, and a member of the Oregon Paving and Quarry company, which got a small street contract here Monday night, is figuring with local contractors to take his work, claiming it would not pay him to move his outfit in for so small a job. It is understood that the Warren Company will come in and do this work and go after the later contracts to be let here.

Visiting Elk Dies.—John Smythe, a member of the Ludington, Mich., lodge of Elks, No. 760, died at Coquille yesterday. He was en route to California to visit and had stopped in Coquille to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Childs, Mrs. Childs being a sister of his wife, when he was taken fatally ill. The funeral will be held in Coquille this afternoon and will be under the auspices of the Elks, W. R. Haines, A. P. Davis, Harry Yoder, C. W. Montgomery and Dr. C. C. Taggart of Marshfield, going there to assist the Coquille Elks in conducting it.
