Reader, did it ever occur to you that riding a bicycle to work makes a good impression on your employer?

Who ever saw a laggard or shirker ride a wheel to work?

The LIVE man rides and LIVE MEN are the ones the boss is looking for.

Let me tell you, in confidence, that, if there were not so many live boys in Marshfield, there would be more money in the Cyclery Messenger Service. See them chasing those dimes on their bicycles.

LIVE BOYS MAKE LIVE MEN.

You'll never want to walk to and from work again, if I can persuade you to use a bicycle one week.

My bicycles are represented to you as being perfect in every way—AND I MAKE GOOD.

ned here for tomorrow, has been indefinitely postponed.

Come to Celebration—The members of the Elliott orchestra, composed of the senior Elliott and sons, Clyde and Claude of South Inlet, are in town today from Haynes Inlet.

Is Injured—Jim Culliver, shipping clerk of the Bradley Candy company, slipped and fell on the steps at the entrance of the factory Thursday evening while taking out some goods and suffered some severe injuries to his back.

Six Drunks—Six drunks faced Recorder Butler in Police Court this morning. All admitted having celebrated more freely than wisely and were fined $5 apiece. They gave their names as Steve Harmon, Alec Harmon, A. McNabb, Walter Armin, J. Sunderlin and L. Stancivus.

New Steamer Service—According to parties from Eureka, the steamer Inagua is being remodelled and converted into a passenger boat with accommodations for about 90. She is to have a speed of about 12 knots and when completed, it is said that she will be put on the Coos Bay-San Francisco run.

No Wreck News—Nothing further has been heard here from the City of Seattle, which was reported to have sprung a leak off Coos Bay night before last and to have sent in a call for help. The local wireless station has not heard anything and the Nann Smith did not send any news back about her.

Firecracker Victim—Pitcher Freeman of the Marshfield team was one of the few firecracker victims on Coos Bay this year. Yesterday morning, he suffered a badly burned and bruised forefinger on his right hand by the premature explosion of a firecracker. The injury is painful and interferes considerably with his twirling.

Details Given—Word received here from Florence states that Ray Saubert was seized with a fit while standing on the wharf at Acme, watching the Beaver land and fell into the stream. All efforts to save him were futile. He was a son of the late Dr. Saubert, son-in-law of C. G. Larson, of Bunker Hill.

Gets Divorce—Judge Coke this morning granted Mrs. Gertrude Wilson a divorce from Fred Wilson on the grounds of desertion. Wilson is required to pay her $130 suit money and $30 per month for the support of their children which are in the custody of the mother. Wilson was at Eureka when last heard from. He formerly ran an auto here.

Received Sad News—Oscar E. Wall, who conducts a shoe shop on Front street, received a telegram today conveying the sad news of the death of his uncle, A. O. Wall, who conducts a shoe shop in Tacoma. As his aunt is alone, Mr. Wall will be compelled to leave for Tacoma on the Breakwater, but whether he will remain or return to Marshfield depends upon developments after he reaches Tacoma.

Row Over Change—According to parties from Gardiner, the fracas there the first of the week resulted from the bartender at blind pig refusing to give the Russian Finlanders change. They tendered $5 in payment of a flask of whiskey and the whole amount was rung up as the charge. District Attorney Brown has started in to clean up the town in answer to the petitions and many of the cases will be taken to the grand jury at Roseburg.

Waite Leaves—Frank B. Waite will leave on the Breakwater tomorrow for Portland, where he will meet W. J. Wilsey and Judge Brunough, who is expected to reach Portland Monday or Tuesday on his return from London. Until Judge Brunough reaches Portland it will not be definitely known just what the status of the Kinney deal is, or rather, on what conditions the English syndicate are willing to take it.

GOT AN AWFUL JOLT.

L. H. Hazard Collides With Partner and Breaks Rib.

The Coquille Sentinel says: "While frolicking at the reception given by the Rebekahs one night last week, L. H. Hazard, cashier of the First National Bank, had the misfortune to fracture one of his short ribs. A game was in process on the floor, when Mr. Hazard, in his anxiety to make the goal, collided with a 'male daughter' with such force that the injury followed. While not detained from business, his movements have been rather cautious the past week."
