

NORTH BEND IS BEATEN SUNDAY

Marshfield Takes Third of Exhibition Contests, 11 to 5—Some Ragged Playing.

EARTHLY GLORY.

I wouldn't want to be a king
And wear the purple that he wears;
A crown is but a foolish thing,
Accompanied by many cares.

I would not wish to be a czar,
Compelled to hide from jealous foes;
I'd rather be a baseball star,
Who dazzles everywhere he goes.

I would not journey overseas
To loom up as a diplomat,
With breeches reaching to my knees.
I fear I lack the legs for that.

I would not be the bard who wakes
The harps, to thrill as Homer thrilled;
I'd rather be the man who makes
A home run with the bases filled.

GETS NEW MEN.

Manager Ogren of the Marshfield team expects to strengthen his lineup greatly for next Sunday's game. Bigbee, a brother of Third-baseman Bigbee, will arrive here on the next Breakwater and will probably play third. He is a good all around fielder and a star batter. Ben Chandler will also join the team. Chandler has been one of the best batters on the University of Oregon team.

Gordon Rasmussen has been appointed official scorer for the Marshfield team.

Marshfield took yesterday's exhibition game from North Bend here by a score of 11 to 5. There was one good feature to the game and that was Umpire H. J. Kimball rushing it through in one hour and thirty minutes. There was only a fair crowd out, the gate receipts being a little over $90.

The diamond was heavy and right field was a regular frog pond. About $15 or $20 worth of dirt would put it in as good condition as the rest of the grounds. It caused one error by McKeown who slipped and fell, missing what would otherwise have been an easy fly.

Parton who Friday held Marshfield down to two hits, was easy picking yesterday for all except Woods, McKeown and Bigbee. A star catch by McDonald was all that shut Woods out of a two or three bagger.

Wild base throwing was responsible for many of the scores. Burke missed one easy fly or rather failed to try for it, the ball dropping safe just back of short. Perkins gathered in three foul flies but dropped one. Perkins did some good pegging, and North Bend did not make a clean stolen base in the game.

Johnson pitched a good game, striking out seven, walking two and allowing but three hits, one of which was a fly that should really have been taken in by Burke. He also fielded well, getting one assist and put out on one play, five other assists and one other put out. He also batted well, getting on the first bag four times, making hits and benefitting by two errors.

Hedgpath has been retired to the bench and will probably remain there. Bigbee did not make a very strong showing at second yesterday. Freeman's finger, hurt by a firecracker the Fourth, will probably keep him out of the box for a few weeks.

Captain Denny Hull managed his team from the bench yesterday and and would not go in even in the sixth when it looked as though North Bend had a show to win.

The score:

BANDON WINS AGAIN SUNDAY

Defeats Myrtle Point by Score of Two to Nothing—Other Valley Exhibition Games.

Bandon defeated Myrtle Point two to nothing in an exhibition game at Bandon yesterday. Coquille was to have played an exhibition game at Bandon, but owing to the death of a relative of Charles Baxter, the team did not come and Myrtle Point was substituted.

Catcher Johnson, who came over last night by auto, said that it was one of the best games he has seen. Stafford and Johnston were the Bandon battery, with Hart and Hall as the Myrtle Point battery. Stafford allowed but three scattered hits and was given errorless support. Bandon touched up Hart for six hits and both runs were earned. There was a fair crowd out. Mr. Johnston says the Bandon team is now in good shape, after the little flurry last week. Sigsby, their baseman, has been playing especially fast ball. Stafford, their new twirler, he says, is an especially heady player. Next Sunday they hope to take both Marshfield and North Bend down the line in the double-header at Bandon.

Coquille and Myrtle Point play next Sunday at Myrtle Point.

Mr. Johnson says the Bandon fans were greatly disappointed July 4th by the failure of the Marshfield team to show up. A crowd of nearly 1400 had assembled and paid their money before it was known that the Marshfield team was not coming.

Other Valley Games.

Friday, Coquille defeated Myrtle Point at Coquille, three to two. Hart and Hall were the Myrtle Point battery and Miley and Berturcy were the Coquille battery.

Saturday, Myrtle Point turned the tables on Coquille in the exhibition game at Myrtle Point, winning five to one. Cooper, from Bandon, twirled for Myrtle Point and Collier and Berturcy were the Coquille battery.

GET DOLLY GRAY.

Bandon Will Bring Back Old Pitcher From California.

The Bandon Surf says: "At a baseball meeting held in this city Monday evening it was decided, for the good of the game and in behalf of clean sport, to release Pitcher Osburn and engage the service of "Dolly" Gray, the old-time San Francisco favorite. The meeting was very enthusiastic and over $200 additional funds were subscribed.

"Carl Tilton and Bill Delaney were each fined $10 in Judge Kaufman's court Monday for taking a poke at Tamp Osborne's cabeza."

BASEBALL ACCIDENT FATAL.

Collision Between Fielders Causes Death of Player.

SEATTLE, Or., July 7.—Frank Van Nuys, the Spokane man who sustained serious injuries at a baseball game in this city Sunday, died at the county hospital Tuesday. Mr. Van Nuys was playing left field for the Spokane team and in an endeavor to capture a long fly he and the center fielder collided. Both men fell and Van Nuys struck with the small of his back across the other man's knee. The game was stopped.

FOURTH OVER; CROWDS GONE

Confetti Battle Marks Closing Hours of North Bend's Big Celebration Saturday.

The big celebration at North Bend came to a close Saturday evening with a confetti battle. Everyone was throwing confetti, young and old uniting in the carnival of fun. It was a good natured crowd and they simply took and gave.

There was a big crowd out, the streets being packed until midnight. All in all, the celebration reached the highest anticipations of the people of North Bend and if anyone did not have a good time, it was their own fault. There were no firecrackers or fireworks, the council and Fourth of July committee having rigorously enforced the "safe and sane celebration" in this respect.

Athletic Contests.

Another Russian horse contest was enjoyed Saturday evening, several participating at first and then simmering down to Wm. Preston and Paul Welling, it lasted ten minutes, Preston finally winning.

In the log rolling contest, Percy Phillips took first prize of $35 and Ernest Varney second prize of $20. Later Percy and Mike Phillips gave an exhibition contest, Mike receiving the $5 prize.

In the 100-yard dash Wm. Meyers won first prize of $10 and M. A. Nickerson second prize of $5. This was hotly contested and Myers is said to be a Washington University star sprinter. He has been working for the Smith-Powers logging company.

In the fat men's race, H. H. Bean won first prize of $2 and Prof. O. J. Honska second prize of $1.

In the race for boys under 12, Ralph Welling won first prize of $2 and Ernest Burroughs second prize of $1. For boys under 16, Clarence Burroughs won a prize.

In the race for girls under 16, Dorothy Coleman won first prize of $2 and Ruth Dyer second prize of $1. For girls under 12, Mabel Klockers won first prize of $2 and Florence Laird second prize of $1.

Warren Murphy captured the "greased pig."

No Police Court.

The big crowd at the celebration in North Bend was one of the best natured assemblages that has been seen in a long time.

City Recorder Derbyshire, of North Bend, did not fine a single offender, not one being taken into court. There were a few who celebrated a little too much, but the police took them to their homes or to their rooms.

Many Enjoyed Dance.

The bowery dance by the M. W. A. drill team is said to have taken in over $800 during the three nights. The dance was a center of attraction, the "ragging" attracting many onlookers.

The M. W. A. drill team was awarded a prize of $12.50 for the fine appearance they made in the parade.

Motorcycle Race.

An outsider, named Shaler, won the motorcycle race from North Bend to Empire and return, making the course in 19 minutes. Joe Winsor was second. First prize was $25 and second $10. Shannon Mitchell and George Johnson, who led on the first stretch, were put out by punctured tires. The entries were George Johnson and Joe Winsors on Excelsiors; Shaler on Indian; Ed Johnson and Shannon Mitchell on Harley-Davidsons.

THE OWLS FLOAT.

The Owls float, which received first prize in the North Bend parade was a beautiful and artistically decorated affair that won many complimentary comments. The bevy of bright faced boys and girls that occupied places on the vehicle which was drawn by four horses added to its interest. At the apex of the pyramid was a prettily arranged owl's nest, occupied by three beautiful little girls, Ena McKeown, Ruth Hill and Geraldine Grose. Mrs. Daniel McDonald was in charge of the children. It was one of the most attractive features of the parade. Among those who were part of the pretty picture were the following:

Misses Florence Anderson, Mabel Anderson, May Anderson, Evelyn Anderson, Nora Allen, Emily Taylor, Nina Balcom, Goldie King, Elizabeth King, Minnie King, Marguerite Bailey, Wilhelmena Thom, May Sherman, Etta Barnes, Esther Hurlburt, Naomi Smith, Fay Richards, Betty Prigeon, Ruth Collins, Gladys Mathson, Leona Strang, Florence Amat, Vivian Amat, Evelyn McDonald, Myrtle Jennings, Bertha Jennings, Helen Painter, Mabel Whittick, Bertha Anderson, Agnes Knab, Stella Chickens, Segrid Anderson, Norma Anderson, Margaret Simpson, Audrey Simpson, Lois Michaels, Lucile Kern, Lois Smith, Mustia Gorst, Ellen Freeland, Bertha Freeland, Helwig Kardinal, Gladys Kardinal, Gladys Cluckers, Fay Fallen, Esther Berglund, and the Misses Russell and Taylor; Masters Charlie Russell, Clyde McDonald, Rex Peterson, Lois Gorst, Merrill Nowlin, Raymond Nowlin, Raymond Cains, Wilfred Cains, Seyrl Lamanski, Loid Smith.

W. C. T. U. REST ROOM.

One of the attractive and appreciated features of the celebration was the W. C. T. U. rest room for women. Comfortable chairs, a bed for the baby, tables for lunches and hot coffee and sandwiches made it a welcome oasis for many weary women who found rest and refreshment in this welcome retreat.

BIG WRESTLING MATCH.

Camas Valley Homesteader Throws Bandon Champion Two Times.

MYRTLE POINT, Or., July 7.—Chapman, a Camas Valley homesteader, threw Florian, the Bandon champion, two straight falls here Saturday night. They were wrestling catch-as-catch-can. The match was pulled off in front of the grandstand. The first fall was in 17 minutes and second in three minutes. Chapman is said to be from New York and to have held honors back there. It is now proposed to pit Chapman against Lutsey of Langlois at Bandon two weeks from last Saturday.

BIGBEE TO WORK.

Relative of Marshfield Ballplayer Recovers From Injuries.

The following from the Eugene Register is about a brother of Third Baseman Bigbee of the Marshfield baseball team:

"Mrs. G. W. Harris received word yesterday from Albany that Lyle Bigbee, a popular student of the University and a pitcher on the baseball team, who was recently struck by an Oregon Electric train and severely injured, is now up and around and will be back at his work in a day or two."
