SAYS SHE WILL STARVE AND DO WITHOUT WATER

Judge Notifies Her That They Simply Want to Stop Her Inflammatory Speeches.

LONDON, July 8.—Miss Sylvia Pankhurst was brought up at the Bow street police court today and found guilty of inciting people to commit disorders on June 29, when she led a mob to Downing street to raid the official residence of the Premier and Chancellor of Exchequer. She was ordered by the magistrate to find sureties in the sum of $12,000 for good behavior for a year or an alternative, go to prison for three months. Miss Pankhurst refused to find bonds and elected to go to Holloway jail, declaring she would also start a hunger strike and go without water. Mrs. Zeelie Emerson of Jackson, Michigan, Miss Mary Richardson and Harry Golden, a male sympathizer with the woman suffrage movement, who were arrested last night while trying to liberate Miss Pankhurst from the police at Bromley were sent to jail today by the police magistrate. Miss Richardson, who had assaulted the police and broken a window at the police station was sentenced for three months.

OLDEST MAN IN THE WORLD.

Dr. Cho Choy, Chinese Physician, Expires in 150th Year. NEW YORK, July 8.—Dr. Cho Choy, late of China and Cuba, died at the Ellis Island immigration station the other day in his hundred and fiftieth year. With a party of Chinese he was en route to Canada under bond, having arrived here only Sunday from Havana. His health was excellent, he said, and resented suggestion that stories of his age were exaggerated. He became suddenly ill Sunday night. He was undoubtedly the oldest man in the world. Dr. Choy was more than six feet tall, notwithstanding a slight stoop, and bald, while his features were a web of gray wrinkles. He lived for fifty years in his native land and asserted he had spent nearly a hundred years in Cuba, practicing medicine among the Chinese there, where he acquired considerable wealth.

ALL THINGS COME TO THOSE WHO WAIT

Advertising the Numbers of a Stolen Watch in The Coos Bay Times Brought Results.

A Waltham watch, one of the articles stolen during the burglary at Bay City, Isthmus Slough, has been located up the Coal Bank Slough.

In his efforts to rid himself of his plunder, the suspect avoided Marshfield, and wandered into what he concluded was a path of obscurity. The story he tells about buying the watch from his bosom chum at the mill bunk house is rotten. They were as inseparable as a sucker and a shark.

The innocent purchaser of my watch should demand the money he paid for it, and then turn it over to Marshal John Carter, of Marshfield, who located it.

My annoyance springs from the destruction of private papers in my trunk—of no use to the thieves.—Robert Starkey.
