MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of Upper Coquille as Told by The Enterprise.

"Uncle Jerry" Haines has joined the "reception committee" which meets trains. The other members of the committee are E. B. Lane, Taylor and "Bill" Green.

Sheriff Gage came over from Coquille Tuesday afternoon to serve injunction papers on Thomas Guerin to forbid him laying a sewer from the rear of Hotel Guerin across Fifth street. The Sheriff was too late, however, as the work had been completed before his arrival. The injunction had been secured by J. E. Schilling, landlord of the hotel.

The property owners on Fifth street between Spruce and Maple, have signed a contract with the Coos Bay Paving & Construction Company for the paving of that block and work has already been commenced on the job. When this work is completed Myrtle Point will have 12 blocks of hard paving.

Harry Fensler, of the Hub Clothing Company, will leave Friday for a two-weeks' visit at Spokane, Washington.

William Border, one of the founders of Myrtle Point, who now resides at Marshfield, spent most of last week with friends here.

The heaviest single day's travel between Roseburg and this city since the auto service was resumed was June 25, when 17 persons made the trip.

Mrs. C. Greve and son, Walter, of North Bend, are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. John R. B. Miller, and the new "pumpernickel" baby.

E. L. Spaulding, a building contractor, has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the home of Allan Dodge, but is reported improving now.

Mrs. Nancy Ransler, aged 71 years, died July 1 at her home in West Myrtle Point. Funeral services were held at the Brethren church in this city.

AFTER 60 YEARS.

William Harris, who resides near Myrtle Point, has been spending several days in camp at Port Orford. Mr. Harris was a schoolmate with F. A. Stewart and Walter Sutton in Polk county nearly 60 years ago, and had not met either one of the gentlemen since that time.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

RIGGS QUITS JOB.

S. P. Brooke and family arrived last Friday from San Francisco. Mr. Brooke has succeeded A. S. Riggs as superintendent of Willett & Burr, the contractors who are building the Smith-Powers logging railroad. Mr. Riggs and family are still here, but expect to leave soon for the south.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

WHOLE BOQUET OF LUCK.

Dr. C. R. Bennett exhibited at this office today 21 four-leaf clovers and two with five leaves, all picked from one stock.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

FISH IS COSTLY.

Jap Pays $26.85 for one Little Trout at Wedderburn. The Gold Beach Globe says: "One of the Jap cannery men at Wedderburn was arrested last Saturday by Deputy Fish Warden Sam Powell, for fishing without a license. The man was brought before Geo. B. Miller, justice of the peace, who assessed the damages at $25 and costs of the action, which amounted to $1.85. The Jap was fishing off the dock with a pole and line and caught a small trout seven inches long which cost him as above stated."

CLEANUP AT GARDINER.

District Attorney Brown Decides to Wipe Out Booze Joints. In telling of District Attorney George Brown's return from Gardiner, where he went to investigate the recent drunken brawl, a Roseburg paper says: "Trixie Lowell, who conducted a brothel in which the rumpus started, is charged with operating a lawdy house. She left Gardiner, and as long as she remains away no effort will be made to take her in custody."

"Ambrose La Roche, of Gardiner, was also arrested for bootlegging and placed under a bond of $500 to appear before the grand jury. This bond was furnished. La Roche is said to be about the "smoothest" bootlegger on the lower river and has been under surveillance for the past year or two. He is said to have a select class of "patrons" and refused to sell to "spotters."

"Pearl Mitchell, who conducted a house of ill repute, was arrested and placed under a personal bond of $500 for appearance before the grand jury."

"Riley Andrews, who shot 'Shorty' Brown in the arm, was placed under a bond of $250 to appear before the grand jury."

"The five Russians, who had only $12 among them when arrested, will be brought here and probably held in jail until the grand jury convenes on July 15. Mr. Brown declares he will make a general clean-up of the bootleggers operating on the lower Umpqua."

"Franklin is still under $500 cash bail on indictments by the grand jury last November for bootlegging. He is now an 'injured man,' prosecuting his alleged assailants."

"In trying to avoid arrest, Bert Roberts suddenly 'went fishing' on the upper waters of Smith River. He was apprehended and brought back from a point above Sulphur Springs. He was arraigned before Justice Haskell and paid a fine of $500 for unlawfully selling liquor."

PORT ORFORD OFFERINGS.

News of Upper Curry County as Told by The Tribune.

G. L. Grason dropped into the Tribune office yesterday and has the thanks of the force for some fine turnips, beets and cabbage, also a beautiful bouquet of carnations, grown upon his Sixes homestead.

The continued rain upon the dirt thrown up by the road graders this spring has made automobile going upon Curry county roads extremely difficult.

The steamer Tillamook called at Port Orford Thursday and remained until Friday loading railroad ties. She took over 2600 consigned to Astoria.

The Adolphsen timber of 960 acres on Elk river, changed hands recently. It is understood that it was bought for the C. A. Smith lumber company.

There was a show in town Monday night consisting of trained animals—monkeys, guinea pigs, rats, mice, etc. It was greatly enjoyed by the children.

When in here last week the Tillamook landed an eight-horse gasoline engine for Robt. McPhillamey to be used for running the threshing machine on Mr. McPhillamey's Sixes farm. The engine, which weighs considerably over a ton, stripped a number of cogs from the wheel of the donkey engine on the Tillamook when it was being hoisted onto the wharf.

A young attorney from Portland by the name of Graham, who is associated with Mr. Phelps in extensive black sand operations at Cape Blanco, was kicked in the forehead Sunday evening by a horse belonging to Johnny Hurst. Dr. Pemberton is attending the injured man whose condition, when last heard from, was considered serious.

Edgar McDaniel, editor of the Coos Bay Harbor, who is enjoying an outing in California with his family, drops a card to the Tribune as follows: "Expect to witness a real bull fight July 3. Visited Tia Juana yesterday and saw the rebel soldiers guarding the city. San Diego is a fine city and we are enjoying a good visit with my wife's folks. Came here '10 days in our auto without mishap."

A young lady from Wisconsin spent several days visiting in Port Orford last week. She departed for Bandon by Monday's stage. Chas. Long was also a passenger on the same stage for the same place, and rumor had it that Mr. Long would not return alone. Dame Rumor was mistaken, however, as Chas. returned last evening, looking a little lonely but with a smile upon his face and keeping his thoughts to himself.

NEWS OF SIUSLAW.

Events in and Around Florence as Told by The West.

Sanborn & Tanner are now running two pieldrivers. One is working for the Siuslaw Boom Co., who are making extensive improvements in their property. The other driver is working for the Tidewater Mill Co., where the contractors started a few days ago on a job of driving 160 more piles.

Herbert Thom was severely injured last Monday while working in the mill. He was struck on the head by a slab and rendered unconscious for a while.

Roy Saubert and wife came up last Monday from Gardiner where Roy had been filing saws in the mill for a few weeks.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Beck near Point Terrace, Monday evening, when their daughter, Sena Marie, became the wife of Isaac E. Ward.

Mr. George Hitchcock and family are expected here from Portland to join Mr. Hitchcock, who is superintendent for Johnson-Anderson Company.

Morris Beck and wife were passengers on Wednesday's stage down the beach on the way to Coos Bay to spend the Fourth.

Mrs. Grant Erhart and children came up from Gardiner Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of her brother, Ray Saubert.

Mr. Olson and family came up from Coos Bay yesterday to reside in Florence. He has a son working in the mill here.

Captain and Mrs. Herman Larsen who were married in San Francisco last week, were among the passengers to Florence on Barrett's stage Wednesday morning. Mrs. Larsen was formerly Mrs. Heywood and has spent considerable time here during the past year.

KYLE QUITS JOB.

Florence Postmaster Resigns After 25 Years' Service. After serving as postmaster of Florence for over 25 years, William Kyle a few days ago tendered his resignation and will retire from the office as soon as his successor is appointed and qualified, says The Florence West.

Mr. Kyle was appointed postmaster in November, 1881, succeeding O. W. Hurd and held the position continuously since that time. He gives it up now on account of the pressure of his private business. He is the third Florence office was established some 23 years ago. The others are A. J. Moody (deceased) and O. W. Hurd.

There are few if any postmasters in Oregon who have served continuously for a longer time than Mr. Kyle and his accounts were always found in good order.

ROSEBURG PAPER CHANGES.

Walter Fisher, a graduate of the University of Oregon this year, has bought an interest in the Roseburg Review and will devote his time to the business. He is a nephew of Chas. H. Fisher, formerly editor of The Guard.—Eugene Guard.

NEWS OF BANDON.

Events at City-by-the-Sea as Told by The Surf.

A new logging camp is being opened in the hills above Prosper. Wm. Howell will be the superintendent.

Another one of those funny fires occurred Friday night at the laundry on Atwater street. Several of the old firemen ran the chemical engine to the scene of the fire but found after their arrival that the machine had gone on the hummer several months ago and had not been repaired.

C. A. Jamieson has closed a deal whereby he has transferred his Sixes River mining property to an eastern mining company through the agency of Messrs. Harris and Inman. We understand the price paid was $35,000.

A contagious ailment closely resembling chicken pox has been prevalent for the past two weeks in the Sevea Mile section.

During the past week a great many carcasses of seals and sealions have drifted ashore on Bandon beach which have been slaughtered on the Port Orford reefs. Their presence adds neither to the beauty of the landscape nor the purity of the atmosphere.

Charley Page and Bob Barnett drove down to Bud Hamlin's Curry county ranch Friday on a combined business and pleasure trip. Charley brought back 195 fine trout which he extracted from Bethel Creek. He also brought back an assorted lot of scratches and bruises which were handed him by Garouette's old blue mustang when Charley attempted to impose on its good nature.

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of the City-by-the-Sea as Told by The Recorder.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. A. W. LeGore, Monday afternoon, a fine baby girl.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Lewis, Friday morning a 6-pound baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Davison, of Two Mile are the proud parents of a fine baby boy, born Monday morning.

R. M. Pressey and Kenneth Perkins were in town the other day and report everything flourishing down on Two Mile. Four new silos are in. They belong to R. M. Pressey, Kenneth Perkins, George Henry and Noah Davison.

As an indication of what the A. F. Estabrook Company is doing in this community we might make note of the fact that on June 15 this company's pay roll was over $8000 for 15 days' business, or a little better than $500 a day including Sundays, upon which day they do not take in any products.

Captain O. Wren, co-operative observer, reports the rainfall for the month of June as 2.19 inches; days rainy and cloudy, 17; days clear, 13. The rainfall for the corresponding month last year was 2.71 inches, a difference of .52 inch less this year.

ROBBERY AT BANDON.

James Welch Attacked by Unknown Men. James Welch, aged about 60 years and an employe of the Woolen Mill, was badly beaten and robbed Monday night. Mr. Welch resides near the Moore mill and it is said the holdup occurred near that place. The old man was so severely injured that speech is almost impossible. He lost a large quantity of blood and at this time doubts are entertained of his recovery.—Bandon World.

CHANGE AT GLENADA.

R. A. Lowe, who has been conducting a grocery store in Glenada for a year or so past, has sold out to Frank Knowles. Mr. Lowe has been postmaster at Glenada and has handled the mail besides looking after his other business. We understand that Mr. Knowles will take charge of the Postoffice and move it to his store building—Florence West.

SEA LION SLAUGHTER.

Capt. Forty and Crew Kill 138 in Few Days. Capt. Geo. Forty and crew made the record sea lion killing of the season the first of the week, when they bagged 138. Many of these were young ones, which accounts for the large number killed. Capt. Forty now has the hides from 140 bulls. The lions net about $8 apiece and their hides, before the fat is cut off, weigh all the way from 150 to 400 pounds. The hides of the cows and calves are very much lighter but bring a better price per pound.—Port Orford Tribune.

Definite Privileges

WHEN you bring money to the counter of this bank and receive in exchange a "checking account" pass book, you are doing more than placing your funds in safe keeping. You are employing, without cost to you, RESPONSIBLE AGENTS, whose services are those of experts. From the first day you begin a checking account, you have the use of some definite privileges. You wish to pay a debt. The person to receive the money may be across the street, or several miles away. You may never have seen him. But you write a check in his favor. You may carry it to him. If he is not there, you can leave it—no one can use it until the one it is payable to has properly endorsed it. If he is at a distance, you can mail it at the nearest box or give it to the carrier. When it comes back to you, it will carry an "iron-clad" receipt on the back. You can pay out $38.92 as easily as a single dollar—no change to wait for. Having to remember what you paid out is done away with. You have a double record—your checks and your stubs.
