

It is mighty satisfactory to us to know that DUTCHESS TROUSERS are giving satisfaction to our ever-increasing army of wearers. How can it be otherwise when the superior quality of these trousers are considered? If, by any chance, they fail to do as represented, there is the celebrated warranty, which we always stand ready to pay, but seldom have to—10 cents a Button; $1.00 a Rip.

Change in Company.—John Wall, Andrew Masters and L. G. Masters have begun suit to dissolve the partnership existing between them and Richard Conboy in the Newcastle coal mine.

Pays Damages.—Marshal Carter yesterday collected $10 from Ray Martin, a Bandon auto driver, for damages to Elza Lingo's bicycle. While here for the Coos County High School field meet, Martin ran over the Lingo boy's bicycle, breaking it up.

Initiate Five.—At a meeting of Loric Chapter, O. E. S., last evening, five new members were initiated, one on demit. The new members are Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Corey, Wm. Longstaff and Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. Davis being admitted on a demit.

Build Homes.—Mrs. Ellen Bachman and her husband are building a fine home in West Marshfield. Mrs. Hilda Johnson and her husband are building a nice home in Ferndale. Both Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Bachman are employed at the Java Coffee House.

Coquille Shipping.—According to reports to Engineer Charleston, the total tonnage shipped in and out over the Coquille bar during the month of June was 22,462. During the month 9,299.00 feet of lumber 16,769 railroad ties and other merchandise totalling 21,284 tons were shipped out from Bandon.

Build New Bungalow.—Andrew Winston let a contract to C. O. Gosney today for a new modern five-room bungalow to be built at the corner of Eleventh and Commercial. Contractor Gosney has just completed and turned over the Messerle building in West Marshfield.

Came in 1853.—A. G. Aiken, the oldest white resident of Coos county recalls that H. W. Sanford of North Bend, who died a few days ago was one of the first settlers of this section. Mr. Aiken says that Mr. Sanford came to Coos Bay with the Noble and Lockhart party in 1853 instead of 1863 as was stated the other day.

Recovers Chain.—Through a lost ad in The Times, A. H. Derbyshire recovered part of his glasses, which he lost the other night. The ear chain was brought to him but an auto had run over the glasses, destroying them. They were lost on the plank road near the stove mill, a stiff wind blowing them off as Mr. Derbyshire was riding along.

Prominent Business Man Here.—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bowman and John Bowman, Jr., arrived this afternoon from Portland, coming via Drain, for a brief excursion on business and pleasure with relatives and friends. Mr. Bowman will also have a conference with Manager Geo. Rotnor, of the Woolen Mill Store, which is one of his chain of clothing stores in Oregon.

Gets Contract.—J. F. Tolander has taken the contract for the brick veneer building which Chas. Thom will erect on North Front street next to the C. A. Johnson furniture store for Parker and Edlund's Castlewood saloon. The front of the building will have quarters for a cigar store. It will be modern in every way and built especially for the saloon.

Found Boat Stolen.—Geo. Hymer the other day found a rowboat floating around without any markings of an owner. He tied it up and advertised it and someone came along and took it. He does not believe that the parties taking it were the owners and he is making a strenuous search for them. H. A. Wells thinks the boat belonged to him, as his has disappeared.

Will Clear Ranch.—L. T. Matthews announced today that he is making arrangements to clear the John B. Anderson ranch on South Slough, near the Smith-Powers log dump, at once. There is about 3,000,000 feet of white cedar on the tract in addition to many poles and piling. He plans to convert it into a fine dairy ranch. Mr. Anderson retained 20 acres, allowing Mr. Matthews 451 acres.

Parcels Post Eggs Hatch.—Master Howard Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Kelly, of South Marshfield, is today rejoicing over the hatching of four guineas. He sent to Maple Grove, Minn., for the eggs and they came by parcels post. All except six had been broken in transit and no one thought the balance would hatch, that is, no one except Howard. He went ahead and demonstrated he was right, four of the six eggs producing birds.
