The Royal TONIGHT

Your last chance to see the Fisher Maidens, those two pretty girls who have been playing here this week. If you haven't seen them yet you've missed half your life, and if you don't see them tonight you won't know what you have missed.

That great dispenser of the blues, Miss Lillian Melbourn, is also on the bill.

3000 feet of all new pictures. "His Chum the Baron." "The New Conductor." two comedies by the Keystone Co., the makers of "The Battle of Who Rugs."

Admission—Lower floor, 15c; balcony, 10c.

Some people say Marshfield is dead, but how they have not the nerve to do it with a show like this in town "gets my goat."

Meet Tonight.—The B. Y. P. U. will hold their regular social at the church tonight.

Leave Tomorrow.—Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Larson will be outgoing passengers via Drain for the north tomorrow.

Will Close at 6 P. M.—The North Bend dry goods houses have agreed to close at 6 o'clock every evening, except Saturday, beginning July 14, following the new custom in Marshfield.

Meeting Held.—G. A. Signallness was here from Portland today to attend the annual meeting of stockholders of the Crawford Point Land Company, which has valuable property on Coos Bay.—Roseburg Review.

Buried on Ranch.—Rev. Father Springer returned to North Bend this morning from Lakeside where he conducted the funeral services of the late A. R. McDonald yesterday afternoon. The remains were interred on the farm, as the deceased had wished.

Boy is Injured.—George Laird, a 12-year-old boy whose parents live on Virginia avenue in North Bend, stepped on a broken bottle yesterday and severed the tendon in his heel. The severed tendons were sewed again and the wound attended to so that no permanent ill effects are anticipated.

For Prize Fights.—Joe Joseph, who introduced Lupie Carranza and Roughhouse Charley Burns in the fistie game in this section, is now managing Roy Moore, a clever boxer of 118 to 122 pounds. He wants to bring Moore to the Bay but it is not believed that the ban on prize fighting here will be removed to enable him to do it.

Coos Pioneer.—Frank M. Baxter who died at Coquille last week, was a Coquille Valley pioneer, having located there in 1872, coming from California where he located after crossing the plains in 1853. He was 76 years old. Besides his wife, he is survived by four children, Mrs. Mabel Laird, Charley Baxter, George Baxter and Hal Baxter, all of Coquille.

Fear Smallpox.—Some of the citizens of North Bend and Empire are fearful lest there may be a little epidemic of smallpox there. The members of the Agnes Johnson family on Pony Slough, who have had the disease, are said to be violating quarantine. Jim Wilcox, another man who has had the disease, is just up and around after a three weeks' seige of it at North Bend.

Delay Scrapers.—Owing to not having the necessary papers signed, W. Stevens of North Bend yesterday stopped the shipment of 18 scrapers, formerly owned by the Rapid Transit Company, but which Stevens had taken in payment of a claim against Major Kinney, to Willett & Burr. It seems that they were bought on a 60-day payment provision and Mr. Stevens wanted better security from Willett & Burr.

Aged Woman Travels.—Mrs. S. L. Melvin of Huntsville, Ill., arrived here on the Breakwater yesterday on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. D. T. Chantler. Mrs. Melvin is 71 years old and made the trip alone to Portland, but was accompanied on the sea trip by Miss B. E. Johnson, who will return on the outgoing Breakwater today. Miss Johnson is a Portland stenographer and is so delighted with the country in her brief visit that she hopes to return.

Son is Born.—Word has been received here of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mayfield at their home in Albany, a suburb of West Berkeley, on July 6. The new arrival weighed seven pounds and the many friends of the young couple will unite with them in their joy over their second child, the first being a daughter. Mr. Mayfield was formerly bookkeeper for F. S. Dow in Marshfield, but now has an excellent position in San Francisco.

Seek Old Depositors.—Cashier R. F. Williams of the Flanagan & Bennett bank, is trying to locate some old depositors who left small amounts to their credit when they discontinued doing business here. Some of these have had small balances to their credit for over seven years. Among them are Portland and Coos Bay Navigation company, $10.81; H. C. Crocker of San Francisco, $10.50; the E. B. Dean company, $1.46, and Ella M. Evans of San Francisco, $5.68.

Lower Rates.—The reduction in the price of electricity here under the new schedule of rates which is expected to go into force soon will be marked. Manager Green figures that it is over 30 per cent, so that small consumers using heretofore about $1.50 per month will have to pay only about $1.08 for the same service. The Myrtle Point franchise of the company will become effective about July 22 when it is expected that they will have taken over the Coquille electric plant to supply both those towns until the new through power line of the C. A. Smith Company is completed.

Railroad Work.—Harry Wilkins, the Ten Mile rancher, was in Marshfield this week on business. He visited the big tunnel the other day and estimates that the crew on the north entrance have driven the bore about 350 feet. The air compressor is now in use. Solid rock is being found so far and it is not expected that they will have to timber the tunnel. About 100 men are clearing the approach to the south entrance, and it is expected that they will have three miles ready for work soon and that it will not be long until the tunnel is being driven from the south end as well as the north end.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

Wm. Egenhoff, who has been laid up for a few weeks with blood poisoning, is able to resume his old position on the launch Ranger.

The lighthouse tender Manzanita arrived in Astoria yesterday noon, having finished the buoy work at Coos Bay. She was at the southern Oregon harbor for about three weeks, during which time she reset all of the buoys both inside of the bay and on the outside. She also replaced the big Orford Reef gas and whistling buoy.—Portland Telegram.
