LEACH IS HASTENED OUT

Deported From Bandon After Over Secretary Edgeworth's Trail.

BANDON IS QUIET.

Special to The Times.
BANDON, Or., July 12.—All quiet in Bandon today following the deportation of Dr. B. K. Leach yesterday. There is still talk emanating from some of Leach's friends but it is believed that the matter will subside without further demonstrations or trouble.

Deportation of Dr. Bailey K. Leach was concluded yesterday from Bandon in a very orderly manner. On the arrival of the deputation of autos bringing delegations from Bandon, Coquille, North Bend and Marshfield business men accompanied him proceeding directly to the Market avenue dock. Launch was in readiness. A check of delay, during which a sack of flour was obtained for Leach, proceeded to Jarvis Landing. Leach was started on his way. He was accompanied by a few of his friends. He told him that he had been told him that he had been considered an able citizen and that he had no intention of ever returning. Leach replied to say that he would take the trip over from Coquille, Coquille, the stop was brief. He was escorted direct from the boat to the auto. A large throng of Coos Bay people, men and women, gathered at the dock. Walter Slinn, secretary for the people of Coos Bay, briefly told him that he wanted there.

Leach kept here last night and started out at daylight this morning but others decided best to leave him on through. It was after 6 o'clock when they were on the sand spit with him. He stated today that a party of friends had arranged for some of his friends, had two horses in and as soon as the delegation accompanied him to the boat, he took Dr. Leach on the boat up the beach.

Printed Defi.
Today morning, the last issue of "Dr. Leach's paper," appeared. It was printed Thursday before the meeting at which he notified to leave town before yesterday. It contained a article in reference to it. He stated the Bandon Commercial "mob" that is deporting threats to invoke his constitutional rights against the men who returned overland yesterday from Portland with merchandise.

RETURNING THE WATERFRONT

Returned overland yesterday from Portland with merchandise.

Coos County and the I. W. W.

COOS COUNTY is large geographically; big and broad in area, but there is only place and protection in its broad borders for one flag—and that is the Stars and Stripes. There is no room for the red banner of revolution and rebellion.

In another remarkable demonstration yesterday Coos County served notice on the world that its citizens are a unit in opposition to the obnoxious doctrine of dynamite and destruction as preached by the I. W. W. agitators.

The deportation of Dr. Bailey Kay Leach demonstrated that in no nook or corner of Coos County there is rest or refuge for anarchistic agitators or disciples of discontent, deviltry and dynamite.

Bandon has sent its answer to Secretary Edgeworth, who proposed to return and organize a local I. W. W. in that place and operate through out the county from headquarters there. The answer was a brave and bully one. The business men and workmen, carpenters and capitalists in the City-by-the-Sea united in an earnest and enthusiastic demonstration against the anarchistic agitators who proposed to destroy the peace and prosperity of their progressive community.

Bandon, we are proud of you and every loyal and law abiding citizen in all this broad land who loves his country and his home and holds sacred the sentiment of patriotism and righteousness is proud of you. The action of Bandon has united and cemented Coos County citizens in one unbroken organization for the protection of the peace of its homes and the prosperity of its people.

The demonstration that accompanied the deportation of Dr. Bailey K. Leach was, like the previous one on Coos Bay, the orderly and peaceful protest of earnest citizens against the pernicious preaching of anarchy and the doctrine of destruction of the I. W. W.

Following the mass meeting Thursday evening some of the Bandon sympathizers with Leach talked opposition to the overwhelming sentiment of the community. Then Bandon showed the metal of its men and earnestness of its purpose. Every business house and every mill and factory closed to make the protest emphatic. A message was sent to surrounding towns that Leach, the I. W. W. agitator, was being sent out of the county. Coquille, Myrtle Point, Marshfield and North Bend, all called in moral sympathy and support. Nearly a score of automobiles carried citizens from North Bend and Marshfield to Coquille. There they found the citizens organized and ready to receive and speed the parting guest. The business houses and other institutions were closed. The entire delegation of citizens, workmen and men of wealth, men and women, waited at the dock for the arrival of the Bandon committee escorting its undesirable agitator outside the confines of the community whose hospitality he had insulted and abused.

It was a peaceable and orderly gathering. Headed by the American flag carried by the G. A. R. veterans the men marched through the streets of Coquille. It was not a mob. There was no rioting or rowdiness. There was not an act or a word spoken that would offend your mother or wife or sister. This was the answer of Coos County to the vile and vicious statements of Leach that the opposition to the I. W. W. was from a mob of saloon bums. Leach knows better now.

On Leach's arrival he was met by the Coquille delegation and the flag bearer told him that the citizens of Coquille did not want him and he would not be permitted to remain. The Bandon committee then conducted him to an automobile and accompanied by the North Bend and Marshfield delegation he was brought to Coos Bay, placed on a boat and taken to the sand spit and after a few words of good advice on good citizenship was told to depart and return no more.

This was not the act of a mob. It was the act of earnest, purposeful men animated by a devotion to duty and loyalty to their country, its government, its institutions and its flag.

The false and fallacious pleas being made by some of the misguided and mistaken sympathizers with the I. W. W. are unworthy of consideration. Coos County has work and welcome for all honest workmen.

Coos County has no narrow prejudice or any hair-splitting sectionalism within its borders. Coos County cares not what is a man's country or his creed, it asks not his political preferences or his religious or social affiliations. Coos County is big and broad in its citizenship as it is in the open wind-swept spaces of its forest-clad hills and peaceful valleys.

There is a cordial and courteous greeting for men of every creed and every country—laborer and lawyer, carpenter and capitalist, every honest man who works with head or hand for the development of the rich resources of this great section.

But—There is no tolerance for traitors. There is no room for the red banner of revolution and rebellion. There is no place or protection for the anarchist agitators of the I. W. W. who acknowledge no country and no creed—who spit on our flag and bid defiance to our laws.

This man Leach tried to create a little cheap sympathy by declaring he was deported because he is a Socialist. This is as false as the doctrine of anarchy which he defends.

Dr. Leach was deported because he was an I. W. W. in sympathy, in preaching and in practice. Because he professed Socialism hoping to secure immunity from outraged citizens did not make him a Socialist. When the Socialists made him county chairman they made a mistake and were deceived. If the Socialists of Coos County desire to retain the respect of their community and fellow citizens they will divorce themselves from the disciples of discontent and direct action.

The National Socialist party has kicked out the I. W. W.'s and the Coos County organization should not harbor them. There is as much difference between Socialism and the I. W. W. propaganda as there is between a loyal and law-abiding citizen and a traitor. One preaches reconstruction of society, the other destruction.

Yesterday's demonstration proved that Coos County has no use or place for anarchists or I. W. W. agitators no matter under what guise they try to conceal themselves.

MARTIN MULHALL TELLS HOW LOBBY DID ITS WORK

Hired Labor Leaders to Assist in Defeating Men Who Were Against "Interests."

SENT TO ASSIST SENATOR ALDRICH

Worked in New Jersey to Defeat U. S. Senator—Many Letters About Work.

By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12.—Martin M. Mulhall continued his testimony before the Senate committee today concerning the alleged lobbying activities of the National Association of Manufacturers. Mulhall testified how he worked to defeat the late Senator McComas of Maryland, though he posed as the Senator's friend. He said he had received 500 letters directed against McComas from Marshall Cushing, then secretary of the manufacturers organization.

A letter to Senator Foraker in September, 1904, referred to the suggestion that Mulhall go to Rhode Island to help Senator Aldrich in his campaign. He testified that he went later at the request of Aldrich. "He asked me to get into touch with the labor men there to get their support," said Mulhall. Letters from C. E. Alden, then secretary to Foraker, and Arthur B. Shelton, secretary to Aldrich, showed that Mulhall's suggestion to go to Rhode Island had been the subject of some correspondence.

A letter of introduction by Harry C. Kurten, given by council of Allied Building Trades of Philadelphia, was offered in evidence. It was signed by Kurten as secretary. Kurten was engaged with Mulhall against Wm. Hughes, then representative and now senator from New Jersey.

"Were you sent to help beat Hughes by the National Association of Manufacturers?" asked Senator Reed. "Yes, sir."

"Why did they want to beat Hughes?" "On account of his holding a union card, being affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, and his activities on the floor of the House and with other leaders in Washington."

Kurten was given credentials, Mulhall said, so he could get into union meetings to oppose Hughes. "Work of this kind was always secret," said Mulhall. "It was done under cover." Mulhall identified a letter from James J. Ridge, outlining the work to be done by Ridge among Rhode Island labor unions in 1904 in behalf of Aldrich's candidacy. Mulhall testified to giving Ridge $600 which he got from Cushing, secretary for the manufacturers, to help Aldrich in his campaign for reelection. In a letter relating to Ridge he said: "The Senator is well pleased with the work of your friend."

Reference to Ex-president Taft came in connection with notations on the back of one of Mulhall's envelopes. The following names appeared: "C. D. Firstone, Columbus, Buggy Co., Col. W. H. Morgan, Alliance, Ohio, John N. Taylor, East Liverpool, D. J. Sinclair, Steubenville, and H. M. Mann, Cleveland."

"These five names were submitted to me by Senator Foraker to hand to President Taft at the interview I was to have with him at his summer residence in Ohio," Mulhall testified. The committee did not develop further. Mulhall swore he went to Paterson, N. J., to aid Hughes' opponents. He hired six union men to work against Hughes and paid them $1800 dollars, which came from the National Association of Manufacturers.

The union men in the pay of the National Association of Manufacturers took possession of 75,000 circulars sent into the district by the American Federation of Labor to aid Hughes and turned them over to the Republican Campaign Committee.

Mulhall testified to his work at Albany, and said that he killed a bill in the interest of labor. Senator Cummins asked who Mulhall saw in Albany. "You did not have to see many people in Albany at that time to stop a bill of that kind. I saw Boss Barnes," Council for the American Federation of Labor said the federation would aid the committee.

Preceded Others.—Mrs. Esther M. Lockhart, the oldest living resident of Coos Bay, says A. G. Aiken is mistaken in his pioneer history. The late H. W. Sanford did not come with her party. She arrived here in 1853 with Dr. and Mrs. Overbeck and Mr. and Mrs. Tollman, the latter couples leaving soon afterwards. Mr. Tollman was subsequently Surveyor General of Oregon. The Nobles and others came in a different party.

Ordered to Leave.—Carl Westlund, who was hurt on the Breakwater and later arrested several times for drunkenness, was taken up by the police again today. Judge Hall decided that he was not insane and he was taken to the city limits and told to keep out of Marshfield.

ORANGEMEN IN BATTLE TODAY

Serious Rioting Marks Anniversary of Battle of the Boyne in Belfast.

By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.
BELFAST, Ireland, July 12.—Serious rioting occurred here today at the opening of the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, which is the Orangemen's holiday. Many windows were broken and a number of policemen and civilians injured, two of them so severely that they had to be taken to a hospital. The rival factions of the Nationalists and Unionists first fought each other furiously and then when a large body of police appeared and endeavored to separate them, joined forces and attacked the policemen. The fight raged along the streets for an hour and a half. Sticks were used freely by the civilians, who also threw stones, accompanied by an occasional revolver shot. The policemen drew their clubs and charged, and a hand to hand fight went on until 5 o'clock, when the crowds dispersed.

BANDON COUPLE WED IN COQUILLE

George La Faw and Miss Edna Russell Surprise Their Friends by Marriage.

Special to The Times.
COQUILLE, Or., July 12.—There was a happy surprise wedding in Coquille yesterday when George LaFaw and Miss Edna Russell, two well known young people of Bandon, joined hands and hearts for a life time voyage on the matrimonial sea. The announcement of the wedding will come as a big and pleasant surprise to their many friends.

The young people came to Coquille on the boat yesterday morning and one of the passengers, F. V. Catterlin of Bandon, suggested that he would act as witness but didn't think that his joking offer would soon be realized for a few hours later they were wed.

Mr. LaFaw is a promising young railway man, connected with the Seattle, Portland and Spokane railway. The bride, Miss Russell, has made her home with the Gallers for many years and is highly esteemed for her many charming womanly qualities. A host of friends will hasten to extend congratulations and wish them a lifetime of happiness and prosperity.

SHIP LUMBER BY COOS BAY

E. E. Johnson and Dollar Company May Take Over Defunct Coquille Mill.

According to word from Coquille, E. E. Johnson and Capt. Robert Dollar are planning to take over the Coquille Lumber Company's property and using it instead of rebuilding the Randolph mill on the lower river, which was recently burned. The Coquille mill has been idle for some time, having gone into bankruptcy. The mill was moved there from Coos Bay, the old Reynolds' mill at North Bend being bought.

The Coquille Commercial Club has taken the matter up and as soon as the litigation can be adjusted, it is said the stockholders of the old company stand ready to turn over their stock as a bonus to the new company. Capt. Dollar holds a first mortgage on the defunct mill. If it is taken over, the plan is to enlarge and modernize it by putting in band gang saws, etc. Capt. Dollar's plan is to ship the output of the Coquille mill, if they take it over, to Coos Bay and then load it on the big Dollar boats here, probably much of it going to the foreign trade.

MRS. ELTON METLIN left on the afternoon train for Bandon to meet her husband who is on the Speedwell.
