On All Women's Suits and Coats

Many Women Are Taking Advantage of This Opportunity

OUR CUSTOMERS know that it is the policy of this store to "clean-up" each season; not to carry a single garment from one season to another. In that way we have each season only the newest, best and most up-to-date styles to show you. This is only one of the reasons why this store sells, by far, more Suits, Coats and Dresses than any other store on the Bay.

We want you to read the following prices. You know the quality of the garments. Each and every one comes direct from the most prominent New York and Philadelphia makers. Figure for yourself the saving. Many of these garments are suitable for Fall and Winter Wear.

Barcott and their other children united in surprising them with presents. During the day a number dropped in to informally help them celebrate.

PUPILS' RECITAL.

Music lovers and those interested in the art were given a treat this week when the pupils of Mrs. Effie Farringer and Mr. Lew Keyzer displayed their several abilities at three afternoon musicales at the home of Mrs. Effie Farringer on Central avenue and Third.

Much credit is due both instructor and pupil for the able manner in which the programs were handled. The studio was beautifully decorated in greens and cut flowers in profusion. The room was lighted and red shades were used.

On Wednesday afternoon Evelyn Fourier appeared at the piano, rendering six numbers, and Miss Margaret Powers rendered a violin solo, accompanied on the piano by Miss Lucy Powers.

Thursday afternoon Doris Sengstacken presided at the piano in five selections assisted by Miss Lucy Powers on the violin.

Friday afternoon Marion Horsfall was heard in six numbers on the piano and Mabel Harrington on the violin.
