BORN.

OSBORN.—To Mr. and Mrs. Carl Osborn, at their home in Bunker Hill, Monday, July 14, 1913, an 11 1-2-pound girl. Mother and child are doing well and the happy father is feeling like a successful candidate the morning after election over the congratulations of many friends.

Remodel House.—A. E. Seaman is figuring on remodeling the former J. T. McCormac residence into four apartments.

High Financier.—The Florence Pilot says: "John J. Kronholm, a capitalist of Marshfield, is visiting in Florence this week."

Hot in Idaho.—Jack Flanagan writes The Times from Boise, Idaho, that it is hot there. 101 degrees in the shade. But, as business is good, Jack doesn't mind that.

Is Fire Warden.—Carl Albrecht has been appointed fire warden of the Simpson Lumber company and will shortly leave on a trip through the company's timber holdings.

Waite at Home.—The Roseburg Review says: "Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Waite were over from Sutherlin Wednesday afternoon by automobile. Mr. Waite returned this week from a trip to Coos Bay."

Approval Plan.—Word was received Saturday that the U. S. engineers had formally approved the plans for the channel from the Smith mill to the sea, which is to be dredged to a depth of 25 feet and a width of 150 feet.

Roseburg Bridge.—E. G. Perham of Marshfield was next to low bidder on the new $45,000 Douglas county bridge at Roseburg, the Portland Bridge company being about $500 under him. The contract is to be awarded today.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening to take up various city matters. An effort is being made to rush all the street improvements as rapidly as possible so that the most of it can be accomplished during good weather.

Opens office.—R. E. Miller of the Puget Sound Dredging & Bridge company, has opened offices on the second floor of the Lockhart building and is getting all the preliminaries ready for the arrival of the dredge Seattle here the last of the month.

Ban on Noise.—It is likely that at tonight's session of the city council, steps will be taken to enforce the city ordinance against unnecessary noises, autoists and motercyclists have recently caused many complaints by unnecessary tooting of horns.

Goes to Gardiner.—The Roseburg News says: "Dr. A. F. Sether, wife and baby, left for Gardiner this afternoon where they will spend two or three weeks enjoying their annual vacation. Dr. Sether is suffering from hay fever and believes that the change of climate will result beneficially."

Road is Good.—Captain Harris of Sumner was in Marshfield yesterday. He reports that the road from Eastside to Sumner is in good condition. The brush has been cleared along it and in some of the worst spots fixed up so that it is now a good auto highway, there being only one or two wet places which might require chains.

Goes to Florence.—The Florence Pilot says: "C. H. Ross, of Marshfield, arrived here Tuesday and will be superintendent of the work of planning and handling booms for the Sluslaw Boom company. Mr. Ross has been employed by the C. A. Smith company at Marshfield as head of outside work. He is accompanied by A. H. Caples and G. E. Goddard, who will help him in the work."

Fix for Cooking.—W. S. Turpen who is preparing plans for the L. J. Simpson summer cottages at Sunset Bay announces that provision will now be made for light cooking in the cottages. A restaurant is being built there so that those who do not want to do their own cooking can be provided with meals. The restaurant is nearly done and the cottages will be under way this week.

Start Brickyard.—E. L. Dexter, of the Coos River Brick Yard has employed men and intends starting up the old brick yard again to supply the demands of Coos Bay.

Outgoing Passengers.—A. F. Rapp, H. F. Yoder, Mrs. F. D. Cohan and Mrs. W. G. Chandler were outgoing passengers on the Marshfield Roseburg stage this morning.

Inspect Roads.—Judge John F. Hall left this morning for Coquille to join the other county commissioners and P. M. Hall-Lewis, the new county roadmaster, on an inspection tour of the roads of the county. They will spend the entire week. They will start on the Middle Fork road at the Douglas county line and first determine the nature of the improvements to be made in the Myrtle Point-Roseburg highway.

For New Station.—Carl Albrecht and John Warner have just closed a deal with the Smith-Powers company for right of way across their ranch above Myrtle Point for the new Smith-Powers logging road. The agreement provides for a station to be opened on the ranch. It has not been named but it may be called Warner, thereby honoring one of the owners of the ranch and also F. A. Warner, son-in-law of C. A. Smith, who has had considerable to do with the building of the road. The new station will be about 16 miles beyond Myrtle Point.

FOR SALE.

Block 2, Schetter Addition to Marshfield. Eight lots, 50x100 feet. On Sherman avenue, the boulevard of fine residences, one mile from Postoffice, at elevation of about 150 feet above Bay, with fine view of Bay, river and factories.

Every vessel passing to or from Marshfield in full view. Planked county road to west. Waterfront road and Southern Pacific railroad to east at foot of hill. Sheltered from northwest winds, with warm southern and eastern exposure.

Spring of pure bubbling water gushing from the rocks solves the water problem.

In natural state, with maple, myrtle, spruce, cedar, fir and other trees and shrubs, many of which can be retained so as to enhance the beauty of a fine residence.

We bought this property a few years ago with the intention of erecting upon it a fine residence; but having changed our plans and having bought a home in Berkeley, Cal., we will now sell this tract at a bargain and upon liberal terms.

We will take $3000 payable in monthly installments of $25 each, with interest at 6 per cent.

This is less than $3.50 per month for each large lot.

DR. J. T. MCCORMAC, Office Lockhart Building.

WANTED.—Waitress at Java Coffee House. Call or phone 147-J.

WANTED.—To rent, 20 foot boat house. Phone 69X.
