

COOS BAY TIMES

M. C. MALONEY Editor and Pub DAN E. MALONEY News Editor

Official Paper of Coos County. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

LIBERTY, BUT NOT LICENSE.

THE TIMES' constant contention is that the I. W. W. agitators are trying to destroy the very government whose protection they seek, when an outraged people refuse to longer tolerate their anarchy and abuse.

"America has ever been the refuge of the oppressed, but there is no place on our free soil for those who raise the red flag." This declaration by Secretary Daniels places the present Democratic administration squarely in opposition to anarchistic propaganda of those who seek to replace the Stars and Stripes with a flag that knows no country.

Following close in the wake of the wave of Socialism there has come an undertow of Syndicalism. The I. W. W. leaders are spreading a propaganda which teaches that all labor is error and that all government is tyranny.

A RULING ON WHARVES.

THE Interstate Commerce Commission has laid down this broad principle:

"Wharves and the tracks leading thereto, owned by a rail carrier and used for receiving and delivering property moving by rail in interstate and foreign commerce, are subject to the act to regulate commerce, and the regulations and practices affecting their use must be reasonable and non-discriminatory."

Through control of waterfront rights, railroads have had the means to exercise tyranny of a particularly oppressive sort. Upon the Pacific Coast, the railway companies have been charged with the buying up of wharf rights and wharf sites for the purpose of offsetting the competition that is to come through the Panama Canal.

NO MORE PARCELS POST STAMPS.

HEREAFTER it will make little difference what style of stamp you use on the matter you turn over to the Uncle Sam's postal department, for the regular stamp will carry parcels post packages, special delivery letters or will pay for the registration of letters, such an order having been made by Postmaster Burleson, becoming effective July 1.

For the purpose of simplifying the postal service and making it easier for everyone to transact business with the Postoffice Department, is the reason given for establishing a one-stamp system.

This order is one of the most far-reaching that has been issued from the Postoffice Department for some time. It means that the manufacture of parcels post, special delivery, registered mail and every other kind and variety except the simple postage will be discontinued.

How often have you heard it said that "Marriage is a lottery." That one may draw a prize or blank in this game of uncertainty. But marriage is no lottery. For if a blank you chance to draw You cannot throw the same away And then forget it evermore.

WITH THE TOAST AND THE TEA

GOOD EVENING.

He will certainly fall who hopes to know men deeply and only to get happiness, never to get anxiety, distress, disappointment out of knowing them, and he has mistaken the first idea of human companionship who seeks, companionships, friendships, and contacts with mankind directly and simply for the pleasure they will give him.

BRAVERY.

The day will dawn, however dark the night; The right will win, however fierce the fight; The end is sure, however far from sight.

Not ours to snirk or shrink, to doubt or dread; Not ours to turn from hardships seen ahead; Not ours to falter; whoso'er we're led.

The road will brighter grow throughout its length; The load will lighter grow through added strength; The good will turn to helpful staff at length.

With crown of thorns Truth still adorns her own; On sea, fold, cross and gibbet rears her throne; Her altar stands where each must stand alone.

The coward lives and dies an abject slave; The fearful is a tyrant, fool and knave; Omnipotence is only with the brave.

There would be more popular songs—or some popular songs would be more popular, if some Coos Bay people wouldn't try to sing them.

You can flatter some Coos Bay married men by telling them that they don't look it.

Sol Israel says: "Perhaps whiskey really does improve with age, but it doesn't get a chance on Coos Bay."

THEM WAS HAPPY DAYS. Old Adam was a lucky hound, His days were filled with rest; It is a cinch Eve never found A blonde hair on his vest.

And now that I think of it why wouldn't it be a good plan to swat the fly young fellow who likes to drive forty miles an hour in the streets?

Bunko artists say that black sheep are the hardest to fleece. However, the self-made man never seems to suffer from remorse.

It's easier to go broke in a month than it is to get rich in a year.

CAHM YOURSELF, DAVE! He not one of those fearsome sharks Who always seem to think The man who's making dry remarks Is hinting for a drink.

LUKE M'LUKE SAYS: There wasn't much class to the old prairie schooner. But it was unshakable and wasn't afraid of icebergs.

Following the line of least resistance and traveling in a wheelbarrow are two ways to get there if you don't care how long it takes.

There are two kinds of men who can't do their day's work without their glasses.

The Initiative and Referendum and Pink Pills won't help you any unless you have sense enough to realize the value of Hard Work.

HOW ABOUT IT, JIM? "Marriage is a lottery and Jim Mast says he is so unlucky he can't draw even a blank."

How I envy him." And this started the blamed old muse machine going again.

THE WISE OBSERVER SAYS. A little girl believes everything her father says, showing that she does not take after her mother in all respects.

Approve Coos County Method

APPROVE MARSHFIELD WAY.

(From Eugene Guard.) Portland, Marshfield, Bandon and other Pacific coast cities are having considerable trouble with the I. W. W. agitators. The two latter cities have solved the problem by deporting the leaders who disturbed the peace and quiet of the community by their anarchistic harangues.

Eugene has been particularly fortunate in this respect, while there has been one strike, there have been no serious disturbances, although notice has been given that the city ordinance against street speaking would be tested.

The right of free speech and free thought is guaranteed the individual by the constitution of the United States, and nowhere is this recognized more than in Eugene.

Those who demand their rights under the constitution should also give due consideration to the rights of others under the same constitution.

Roseburg View of It. Why don't the officials of Portland try the plan of citizens over at Marshfield in handling the unruly agitators of the I. W. W.?

We doff our hat to those papers in civic centers where constant agitation between workmen and employers is fermented and kept alive by alien disturbers, for the stand they take regarding the methods used by these foreign malcontents.

AMONG THE SICK.

Mrs. Robt. E. Browning returned to her home yesterday from Mercy Hospital, where she has been confined a few weeks. She is much improved.

Nels Austed, whose arm was badly sprained last week when cranking an automobile, is doing nicely but it will be some time before he can use the injured member.

Miss Katie Sargent, a waitress at the Chandler, who has been very ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jennie M. Stewart, is reported improving.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The Adeline Smith, which arrived in yesterday, will sail tomorrow for Bay Point.

The Speedwell arrived in at Bandon at 4 o'clock last evening and is expected here tomorrow.

The Grace Dollar and the Fifield arrived in at Bandon yesterday from San Francisco.

DAILY RIDDLES.

- 1. Why is geology considered a deep science? 2. What word can you make from the letters in the following word, "Impure"? 3. Why are weary persons like carriage wheels? 4. Why is it proper to include women when we say mankind, or all men? 5. Why is a fool's head like a drum?

- Answers. 1. Because it penetrates into the earth. 2. Empire. 3. They are tired. 4. Because man embraces women. 5. Because it is empty and good for nothing but noise.

AS THE SEASON ADVANCES.

Where, oh, where is the young phenomenon With mighty wing That we heard such great tidings from In early spring.

His curves in wondrous spirals bent The startling week And for a little while he went A perfect streak.

The pace was one that couldn't last. He made his bow; But some old war-horse of the past Is pitching now.

Another reason for the High Cost of Living is that the three-by-six garage has taken the place of the chicken house in the back yard.

ter for the welfare of workmen as individuals and societies, as well as the public at large.—Roseburg News.

I. W. W. Menace. Those who believe that a man should earn his bread by the sweat of his brow, have not much in common with the I. W. W. organization, of which many members seem unwilling either to work themselves or to allow other people to work.—Florence West.

COOS REMEDY EFFECTIVE.

(From Eugene Register.) The Coos Bay country has a simple solution for I. W. W. troubles. It tells them to get out, and then backs up the order with a suitable display of force.

GOVERNMENT BY LAW.

(From Portland Journal.) "WE WILL win this strike within the law, if possible, but outside the law, if we cannot do it otherwise," shouted I. W. W. Agitator Schwab to Governor West yesterday at the East Side packing house conference.

On what authority does this ultimatum come from Mr. Schwab and the other gentlemen of unpronounceable names? On what authority do they stand and what flag do they fly when they propose to do things "within the law, if possible, but outside the law, if we cannot do it otherwise?"

What is the status in Portland when Mr. Schwab's ukase sets aside the law and supersedes mayor, governor, and all other constitutional arrangements? Who conferred imperial power and functions to supersede the constitution and the laws on the illustrious Mr. Schwab, whereby he intends to win this strike "outside the law, if we cannot do it otherwise?"

Incidentally, who commissioned Mr. Schwab to come to the United States to protect American women from the vicious and pestiferous American people? Who appointed him to be the chosen keeper of our liberties and the defender of our women?

The industrial commission has fixed one dollar as a minimum wage at the packing plant. If there is more that in justice the packing people can pay its workers, they should pay it. Constituted civil authority, embracing the governor, the mayor and the commission is in position to adjust the affairs at the packing plant without assistance from Europe.

When that is officially done, arrangements should be made to end further interference with the packing house or packing house employees by gentlemen who neither work or allow others to work if they can prevent it.

We voted to have commission government in Portland, and commission government is government by law, not government "outside the law."

Watkins' Observations

Jawn D's pastor calls Jawn a "rose in the Lord's garden." The Oregonian opines the good man has got mixed in his botany. However, that may be, inasmuch as the pastor collects filthy lucre from Jawn very much as the honey bee collects honey from the rose, I am not disposed to dispute the classification, although the truth is I had always taken it for granted Jawn was of skunk cabbage.

In view of the good dominie's statement I assume Jawn is a species and smells sweeter to him than any other, although probably the aroma is more or less tintured with coal oil. In a few fast fleeting years Jawn will be an angel over there, thrumming away on a golden harp. Such is the reward of one who fleeces from the cradle to the grave to augment his billion.

The other day one man said to another, "The Major's numerous creditors are to be paid in full next week," whereupon the speaker toppled over dead. Same old calamity that overtook Mr. and Mrs. Ananias.

The factions of the Republican party will get together very much as the lion and the lamb, one inside the other.

A little while ago the party's feet insisted in going in opposite directions, the natural result of which was to land the party on the small of its back, while its propellers gyrated in the air and made faces. In most cases there is very little difference in the situation of the man with a string attached to his meal ticket and the one with a string attached to a ring in his nose.

LINES ON THE DEATH OF FRANK J. GAMBLE.

Another soul departed, another vacant chair; Another home deprived of one, that was loved and cherished there; Another face oft smiling, as life's pleasures he did greet, No sorrow seemed that heart to entwine, no burden or care did he meet.

But now he lyeth in slumber, He has gone from our home forever, Never to enter it any more.

He has gone from us now forever, Sweet peace be his evermore, He has gone to life everlasting, May we meet on that Beautiful Shore.

Most married men have more liberal views when abroad than they display at home.
