OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

ABOUT ADVICE.

THE scriptural assurance that "it is more blessed to give than to receive" finds rich fulfillment in the case of friendly advice. No human commodity is more generously dispensed and more thanklessly received or availed of.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

If the preacher was right in calling Rockefeller a "rosebush," he surely couldn't have meant an American Beauty.

R. E. SHINE of Coquille is in Marshfield today on business.

ELKS NOTICE.

All Elks are requested to meet at the Hotel Chandler tomorrow evening at 6:45, to join the evening baseball parade, which leaves in the big auto promptly at 7 o'clock. Be on deck promptly. By order of J. W. Hildenbrand, director of the Saturday evening Jolly-Up.

LOCAL OVERFLOW.

Brotherhood to Summer.—The M. E. Brotherhood will make a summer moonlight excursion to Summer this evening.

Celebrates Birthday.—Grandma Freuss is celebrating her 78th birthday today. Many friends of this venerable pioneer are extending congratulations.

Has Birthday.—Yesterday was Cell Ireland's 45th birthday. He tried to keep the number secret but it leaked out and few would believe it on account of his youthful appearance beside his partner, Frank Denning.

Newspaperman Here.—Fred Lockley, formerly with the Pacific Monthly but now doing feature stuff for the Portland Journal, arrived here yesterday to write up the deportation of Dr. Leach of Bandon and the deportation of the I. W. W. leaders from Coos county.

Limit Speed.—J. W. Grout of North Bend has been appointed a special officer by the council to keep watch at the city limits and see that the speeders do not get into trouble where the Southern Pacific is doing the grading. The railroad company is paying his salary.

Railroad Men Leave.—Johnson Porter, Grant Smith and Thomas Dixon, the railroad builders, left on this morning's stage for Gardiner. Messrs. Dixon and Smith will go direct to Eugene, having arranged for special conveyances to take them to Drain in

PERSONAL OVERFLOW

More Smallpox.—The Metcalf family in Bangor was quarantined by Dr. Bartle, North Bend city health officer, yesterday for smallpox. They are half breed Indians. The other smallpox quarantines there have been removed. Mr. McAtee of Marshfield, who has been suffering from the disease, is getting along nicely and no further spread of the disease is anticipated.

NORTH BEND NEWS

The annual meeting of the Kenwell Telephone Company will be held at Cooston August 4.

Word has been received here of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tirrell at Klamath Falls.

W. D. Woodrow, who arrived here recently from Portland, is opening a jewelry store in the Grout building.

C. P. Tucker, who came here from Imperial, Cal., has purchased the W. J. Brown restaurant on Sherman avenue for $700 and Mr. Brown will retire to his North Inlet ranch.

Mrs. E. E. Hayes and daughter, Miss Flossie, left today for a visit in Coquille.

Those who came up from North Bend to attend the W. C. T. U. meeting at the Baptist church were: Mrs. C. H. Hisey, Mrs. C. Ritchey, Mrs. Geo. Bolster, Mrs. Chas. Murr, and Mrs. Robt. McCann.

WILLIAM BARRETT a Haynes Inlet resident is in Marshfield for the day.

CAPT. FORTY, who has been killing sea lions off Port Orford reef, has returned here to engage in fishing during the season.

ISAAC BEST, of Grants Pass, has returned to his home after spending a few days here and disposing of some ranch property near Bridge in which he was interested. CHAS. STAUFF and M. A. SWEETMAN have returned from a trip to Mr. Stauff's ranch in the Sand Hills which they refer to as the garden spot of Coos Bay.

GEO. SHIEL, a former resident of this section, is here from Spokane to look after some Ten Mile country property. He took the ranch about 30 years ago and has not seen it since.

PAT. HENNESSEY, superintendent of the new Smith-Powers mine on Isthmus Inlet, was in Marshfield yesterday on business. He is getting the electrical machinery installed and hopes to have it connected up with the Smith mill in a few weeks.

W. P. MURPHY and wife will leave Monday for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dement at their ranch near Myrtle Point. It is haying season on the ranch and Murphy says that as a "hay-maker" he is the real champion and so Mr. Dement will try him out.
