Prove Up on Claim.—Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bailey of Cooston, are in the city today proving up on their homestead located back of Cooston.

Breaks Arm.—A brick mason employed in the construction to the C. A. Jenson building on Front street slipped and fell, sustaining a broken arm.

Buy's Relinquishment.—John Tower, of Marshfield, has purchased the homestead relinquishment of Frank Stenberg, of North Inlet. The tract consists of 80 acres.

Leave Tomorrow.—The following passengers are listed to leave via Drain tomorrow: George Rotner, Fred Marx, D. T. Wells, C. R. Larimer, C. M. Eberhart, E. D. Doran and Peter Manor.

Was Insured.—Besides a policy for $2000 in the Woodmen of the World, Edward Langenberg, who was killed, also carried $1000 insurance in the Knights of Columbus.—Roseburg Review.

To Visit Here.—Miss Madge Barry, Mrs. R. K. Booth and T. T. Bennett will leave by private auto Monday morning for Roseburg where they will meet Miss Waite, Dr. F. B. Waite, who will accompany them to the Bay for an extended visit.

Proves up Today.—Supt. A. G. Raab, of North Bend, was in Marshfield today for the purpose of appearing before U. S. Land Commissioner Arthur K. Peck and proving up on his homestead near Cooston.

Heron in Trouble.—Geo. Heron was taken into custody this morning by Marshal Carter after he had caused a big commotion at his home on South Broadway. He was held in the city jail all today. Is Bankrupt.—Mrs. Cora M. Vetter, of North Bend, has assigned her millinery stock there to the Oregon Trust Company in behalf of her creditors. She is said to owe considerable and the stock will probably not pay out. She left yesterday on the Speedwell for the South.

Funeral at Roseburg.—The Roseburg News says: "The funeral of the late Edmund Langenberg was held at the home of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Langenberg Wednesday morning. Funeral services were conducted by Father Killian, of the local Catholic Church. Interment of the remains followed in the Catholic Cemetery. The funeral was largely attended, while the floral offerings were numerous and beautiful."
