The Royal S. P. WILL BUILD BRIDGE IN SPRING TONIGHT

OF RENO'S NEW NOVELTY SHOW.

90 performing animals. Educated and performing rats and mice. A school of educated guinea pigs. The troupe of monkeys who are the theory of Darwin that monkey, the ape, is the missing link between man and susceptibility the instinct of a human being. Don't fail to see the three-round boxing contest between two large mice, and the only mouse that can talk at the command of its trainer.

The performance of these animals is not only laughable, but instructive and gives a practical imitation of the mimicry of man.

1000 feet of all new pictures.

Admission: Floor, 15c. Balcony, 10c.

That's the latest railway dope, but if you want the latest as well as the best fountain drinks on Coos Bay you will have to come to Sarter's for them. Have you tried an "Elk's Delight." It is a most delightful and satisfying drink. Try one at SARTER'S.

Get Workmen.—Thirty men arrived on the Nann Smith for Willett & Burr.

Finish Fine Home.—The new home of Judge D. L. Watson at Coos City is nearing completion and when finished it will be one of the finest homes in the county.

Near Accident.—H. J. Jones, while riding his motorcycle yesterday, crashed into John Williams' bicycle. He was going slowly and neither rider was hurt nor much damage done.

North Inlet Won.—The ball game at the Lakeside grounds yesterday afternoon between North Inlet and North Lake resulted in the defeat of the latter. A large crowd was present and there was plenty of enthusiasm.

Named Guardian.—Marion Florence Langenberg was this afternoon appointed guardian over Katherine Langenberg, the 3-year-old child who was recently rendered fatherless through the death of Edmund Langenberg.—Roseburg News.

Honor Visitor.—There was a dance last Saturday evening at Templeton in honor of Clyde Schube, of San Francisco, who is visiting at the G. M. Walker home. Mr. Schube expects to leave on the next Nann Smith for his home.

Fell From Bicycle.—Jarl Nerdrum, a small boy living on South Fifth street, got a nasty fall from his bicycle on North Broadway this morning. The fall was a hard one, but he luckily escaped with a few bruises and a bad fright.

Visitors on Coos Bay.—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Biever, La Grande, Oregon, arrived today for an extended visit at the home of Capt. C. E. Edwards at Allegany. Mrs. Biever is a niece of Mrs. Edwards. Mr. Biever is a passenger engineer on the O.-W. R. & N. running out of La Grande.

Entertains Today.—Mrs. L. W. Langdon was hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon today complimentary to Miss Vera Dindinger of Portland, Miss Ruth Smith who recently returned from Columbia University at New York City, and Miss Mabel Wilson of Salem, Oregon, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Grannis.

Interest in Pool Game.—The pool fans and admirers of the game are manifesting much interest in the match game between Lester McDonald and Ben Platt, which will be played at the Blanco Billiard Hall tomorrow evening at 8:30. This 200 balls call shot game is for a purse of $50 and the Coos Bay championship, and is expected to settle who is the best player on Coos Bay. It is not unlikely, however, that the winner will be compelled to defend his title as there are some other pretty good pool sharks in the city, who may wish a try at it.
