SHOULD EARN THEIR SALARIES.

CONGRESSMEN are paid $7500 a year, besides certain perquisites, which amount to a thousand or two more. Why shouldn't they stay in session in Washington all summer, the year round if necessary, to serve their country? There are no better or more comfortable business quarters than the halls and offices of Congress. Most of us have to stick to our jobs day in and day out the year round and literally work in the sweat of our brows. Let Congressmen hold to their tasks and take what comfort they can, without grumbling, in electric fans and short hours.

TOPICS OF THE TOWN

The Postoffice Department has done a great service for the people by permitting them to use ordinary postage stamps on parcels post packages. They will not have such a wide expanse of muddle to lick.

A Missouri farmer has succeeded in raising a variety of potatoes without tops. That's one way of driving the bugs over to the neighbor's potato field.

We have a notion that the old Liberty Bell, which is going to California for the exposition, would be less attractive to people if it were not half cracked.

The wandering voice of winds, and underneath

The song of birds that fill the earth with sound.

God spoke to her, and all she heard was peace.

So when the Master questioned, "Dost thou hear?"

She answered, "Yea, at last I hear." And then

He asked her once again, "What hearest thou?"

What means the voice of life? She answered, "Love!"

twilight dreaming—they're now anointed frans. And doubtless some young wives are sighing because they know much less of frying potatoes in a pan, than of the work of Keats or Ibsen, or of the art of C. D. Gibsen—which stuff won't feed a man. Perhaps some wives are nearly fainting when thinking of the trifling painting on which they wasted time; had they but learned the art of broiling a porterhouse, without a-spilling it till it was a crime! Of what good use, some wives are saying, is all our skilled piano playing? Our coffee's on the blink; it makes our loving husbands shiver, and often drives them to the river to get a decent drink. Such vain accomplishments we carried! And now that we're securely married, we often sigh and wish to swap the lore we gained at college for just the sordid, workday knowledge of how to cook a fish. Perhaps some fair young wives are looking through heavy work that treat of cooking, and sighing as they gaze; perhaps they smell the beef-steak burning, and think with sorrow mixed with yearning of all their wasted days.—By Walt Mason.
