AMBASSADOR WILSON SAYS U. S. MEDIATION IN MEXICO IMPOSSIBLE

Declares There is Only Small Revolt and That Bandits Cause Most of Trouble.

SAYS MADEROS ARE POISONING MINDS

Irritated Over Paid Agents Probing Situation—Likely to be Replaced.

WILL MEET PRESIDENT WILSON MONDAY

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Secretary of State Bryan was asked about Ambassador Wilson's statement that Del Valle had been furnished with a copy of the State Department code, but Bryan said he never had announced that Del Valle was an agent of the State Department. He refused to discuss the question. Ambassador Wilson will not confer with the President until Monday. He spent much of the day in conference with Secretary Bryan.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26.—Ambassador Harry Lane Wilson, on his arrival here for conference on the Mexican situation with President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan, announced that he had prepared a memorandum suggesting a policy the American government should pursue, while declining to divulge its nature until he submitted his views to President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan.

Ambassador Wilson characterized as impracticable the proposals for mediation by the American commission.

Ambassador Wilson described his treatment by President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan hitherto as courteous in every respect except one, the sending of separate agents to investigate conditions in Mexico. He severely criticized both Wm. Bayard Hale and Reginald Del Valle, who he declared were acting for the administration there. "I don't think Del Valle should have been given the State Department code," said Ambassador Wilson. "Indeed, I believe the Senate committee might investigate the distribution of the State Department code to private individuals."

Ambassador Wilson was vehement in his criticism of constitutionalists and the Madero family. "The Madero family," asserted the ambassador, "have maintained a paid bureau in Washington to poison the public mind as to the rebels. There really are none except in Sonora, where there is an organized movement, elsewhere there are bandits."

NO CHANGE BY WILSON

Will Refuse to Permit Export of Arms to Either Mexican Faction.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26.—Secretary of State Bryan told the foreign relations committee today that the administration would make no immediate change in enforcing the neutrality law against shipments of arms to Mexico. This indicates that President Wilson will continue to refuse to issue export permits to either Huerta and the Constitutionalists.

WILY JAP JOURNALIST

That Jap Cabinet Should Take Advantage of Mexican Situation.

TOKIO, July 26.—Some of the leading newspapers today accuse the Japanese Cabinet of lack of diplomatic adroitness in negotiations connected with the California alien ownership legislation. They urge that advantage should be taken of Mexico's friendliness in order to further Japan's cause. At the same time they question the sincerity of the United States.

MINERS' UNION ANGRY AT FERRIS

Strike Leaders at Calumet, Mich., Say That He is Not According Them Consideration Shown Companies.

CALUMET, Mich., July 26.—The miners' union officials were plainly disappointed at the tenor of Governor Ferris' reply to their proposal of yesterday that he intervene to settle the strike. They asserted that the Governor failed to give the men's side of the controversy consideration equal to that accorded to the companies, arguing that the request for troops had not come from Union men and no act of their's justified the presence of the military. Stress was laid on the fact that no destruction of property has taken place, strike leaders asserting that such damage as has occurred will be incidental to the closing of the mines sooner or later. It was stated there was a necessity to begin an investigation of the industrial conditions hereabouts and the union officials say they preferred that the Governor make it in person and at once. General Abbrt, commander of the entire guard of state, arrived today but will not take command until the regiments are completed by later arrivals. Every train brings additional companies.

RAIL CHIEFS BOW TO MEN

Withdraw Demand to Arbitrate Railroad's Claims in East-ern Wage Dispute.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The Eastern railroads today withdrew their demand that their grievances against the employees should be considered by the federal board appointed to arbitrate the demand for better wages and working conditions made by the conductors and trainmen. This removes the last obstacle in the way of arbitration. After a brief conference with the labor leaders, the mediators announced that the articles of arbitration would present sixteen original demands of the employees without change. The only point won by the railroads was an agreement that the decision of the arbiters should become effective October 1 instead of being retroactive.

LINE SOUTH OF BANDON PLANNED

Outside Parties Reviving Road Down Coast—Proceed With Secrecy Now.

Plans are under way for revivifying the project for building a line south from Bandon to Port Orford and Gold Beach and possibly further. A man has been on Coos Bay for a few days and is said to have been looking into the matter, but is reported to have refused information to those asking about the project. Whether he will try to couple up with the project which Gallier Brothers, Col. Ross and other Bandon parties, W. P. Murphy, of Marshfield, and others have been figuring on from Bandon to Grants Pass is not stated. The probability of the Southern Pacific extending its Eugene line from Coos Bay to Bandon in the near future is said to be furnishing the basis of the activities for the project south from Bandon.

GREAT THROG OF ENGLISH WOMEN URGE RIGHT TO VOTE

GREAT MARCH FOR SUFFRAGE

LONDON, Eng., July 26.—Many thousands of non-militant suffragettes paraded London this morning as a preliminary to the great service in St. Paul's Cathedral and subsequent demonstration in Hyde Park. Every constituency in the country sent representatives to join the various columns during their progress, and small detachments, which originally started from the two uttermost limits of the island were augmented on the way until they formed great columns. The women started June 18. They were cordially received in all parts of the country.

SUPPOSED TO MILITANT SUFFRAGETTE MOVEMENT

"Reason, Not Force," is Their Battle Cry—Remarkable Parade Precedes.

LONDON, July 26.—The march of the non-militant women suffragettes culminated today in a meeting in Hyde Park attended by fully 100,000 women, headed by banners bearing the words, "Reason, Not Force," which is the battle-cry of the law-abiding National Union of Women's Suffrage Society. Petticoated battalions, with bands playing and banners flying, swept through the principal streets and converged at a central point. Seventy speakers addressed them from twenty platforms. At the sound of a bugle, a resolution was simultaneously adopted, amid scenes of tumultuous enthusiasm, begging Parliament, without further delay, to give women the right of franchise. The vast concourse of women is believed to constitute the record of any political agitation gathering.

PREPARED FOR MEXICO CRISIS

Sec. Bryan Says United States is Ready—Receives Private Report Today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26.—Intimation was given by Secretary of State Bryan to the Senate Foreign Relations committee today that the administration is prepared for any developments in Mexico affairs but the nature of the policy that is being shaped at the White House and State Department was not disclosed. Reginald Del Valle had a conference today with Bryan at the White House and he submitted something in the nature of a report or recommendation based on his observations in Mexico. Del Valle is a former California State Senator from Los Angeles. He is supposed to be Bryan's personal representative.

BRIDE IS LEFT BY RICH HUBBY

Mrs. Seyd Havens, Formerly Miss Sue Miller, of Marshfield, Deserted in Canada.

The following story from an Oakland, Cal., paper will be of interest on the Bay as Montgomery K. Miller and family formerly lived in Marshfield, Mr. Miller having been an engineer on the Southern Pacific: "Seyd has gone. Don't worry. Am writing today. Love to all. SUE." "This telegram, received by Montgomery K. Miller, father of Mrs. Seyd Havens, formerly Miss Sue Miller, has conveyed to the parents of the Oakland society girl confirmation of the rumor that young Havens had quarreled with his bride of a month and left her for New York City, while she remained in Calgary, Canada. "The dispatch was transmitted from Calgary, and was received in answer to a telegram from Miller. "The whole affair is very mysterious," said Miller, "and we do not understand it in the least. In every letter that my daughter sent to her mother and myself after she departed on her honeymoon she spoke enthusiastically of her trip and the happy outing she was having. Not a line in her letters intimated that she was unhappy. "No direct confirmation of the report was received by Frank C. Havens, the Piedmont capitalist, Wickham Havens, the elder brother of the alleged errant bridegroom, said that he had not heard from his brother since his arrival in Calgary several weeks ago, and did not know whether he was still there or in New York City.

WEDDED BUT A MONTH.

The wedding of pretty Sue Miller and young Seyd Havens on June 25th last capped the climax of one of the most interesting prenuptial affairs in local society circles. On May 23d last the engagement of the young couple was publicly announced in the newspapers. Immediately thereafter, and up to a few hours of the marriage on June 25th, Havens emphatically denied the engagement. Miss Miller was equally as firm in contradicting her intended, telling all her friends that the wedding was going to take place.

The Marshfield public library today received a check for $100 from Dr. and Mrs. J. T. McCormac, the following self-explanatory note accompanying it:

Marshfield, Oregon, July 26, 1913. To the Ladies of the Marshfield Library Board: Mrs. H. Sengstacken, Mrs. W. S. Chandler, Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Mrs. H. S. Tower, Mrs. M. C. Maloney: Dear Friends and Neighbors: As we are about to sever many of the ties that have bound us to Coos Bay for nearly forty years, we have thought it best to show in a small way our kindly interest in the welfare of this community, which during all of these years has been to us all that the word "home" can mean to a couple who have passed through all the stages of life from boy and girl to that of grandparents, and we ask you to accept with our sincerest well wishes for the success of your noble efforts to afford pleasure and instruction to the rising generation, this small token of our appreciation of your good work. Very sincerely yours, J. T. MCCORMAC, HATTIE E. MCCORMAC.

JOAQUIN MILLER'S WRITING.

Many Marshfield people who are familiar with the chirography of the late Joaquin Miller, and there are a number of specimens of his writing now in this city, will appreciate the following story of the difficulty in deciphering his writing: "Joaquin Miller, 'the poet of the Sierras,' who died a few months ago, has been put forward as the very worst writer that ever lived. The secretary of a literary society once invited him to a banquet and received an answer, of which no one could decipher a word. He wrote again to the poet, stating the difficulty, and suggesting that, in replying, he should make a cross at the foot of his letter if he were coming and a circle if he could not be present, but nobody could decide whether the mark he made was intended for a circle or a cross."
