BORN.

FLAGG—To Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Flagg, at their home on South Second street, Saturday, July 27, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely, while Grandma Eddy and Papa Flagg are tickled to death over the charming little stranger.

BARNARD—To Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Barnard, at their home in Marshfield, a 10½-pound son, Saturday, July 26. Mother and child are doing lovely and father as well as could be expected. Uncle Fred Wilson says the strength of his lung power indicates he will have a fine addition to the band.

Plan Picnic.—The Marshfield A. O. U. W. and Degree of Honor Lodges, are planning to hold a joint picnic at Landrith's grove on Coos River Sunday, August 10.

Receives Sad News.—John Porter of Allegany, received word late last evening that his son-in-law, Mr. McDonald, had been drowned in San Francisco Bay. No particulars were given.

Wants Buoy.—Capt. T. J. Macgenn, of the Breakwater, is making application to the U. S. Lighthouse Department to establish another black buoy at the entrance to Coos Bay to mark the end of the sunken jetty.

On Hunting Trip.—Warner V. Ogren, George Catching and Tom Goodale will leave Tuesday for Curry county to bag a few deer. While Manager Ogren is away, Mr. Freeman will have charge of the Marshfield baseball team.

Enjoy Banquet.—Following the conferring of the third degree on Chas. Van Duyn, clerk at The Chandler, the members of Blanco Lodge A. F. & A. M., enjoyed a banquet Thursday night. There was a good turnout and "Van" made a fine candidate.

May Return.—Word has been received here that the Rev. A. S. Bassford is considering returning to Marshfield to resume the Baptist pulpit here. He is much improved in health. Definite word will be received from him soon. He is at Corvallis now.

Lakeside Auto Line.—Geo. Goodrum returned this morning from Lakeside, where he delivered a new Ford touring car to John Vanberger, who will use it on a new auto line between North Inlet and Lakeside. He will make two trips daily meeting both boats.

Build Dam.—Henry Hoech has let the contract for a large new dam in the Smith Basin, three miles above the hatchery on South Coos River to be used in his logging operations. It will be 30 feet wide and nine feet high. Work will be commenced on it next week.

McDaniels Returns.—Edgar McDaniels and family of North Bend, arrived home last evening from their auto trip to Southern California. They had a delightful outing and escaped without serious accidents. The last stretch of the road was one of the hardest they had to travel.

FARM FOR SALE

Dairy, stock and fruit farm consisting of 518 acres, between 35 and 40 acres of rich bottom land, eight acres of bench land set to apple trees and fifty acres more that can easily be cleared for orchard and balance good grazing land for cattle, sheep or goats.

Twelve head good dairy cows and all farming implements necessary. Located on West Fork of Coos River, one mile from postoffice, school and boatlanding.

Buy direct from owner. For further information, call or write: W. A. GAGE, Allegany, Ore.

Weaver, V. K. Wolcott and J. H. Flanagan left on the Coos Bay Roseburg auto line via Myrtle Point this morning. The autos are now leaving here at 5 o'clock in the morning and reaching Roseburg about 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Peculiar Find.—Capt. Harris, while digging a well on his new Isthmus Inlet place encountered a vein of peculiar substance. It resembles peat but is much harder than peat usually is and is distant from a bog or swamp. It looks like a mixture of peat and coal in the early stages of its formation.

Retires From Place.—N. A. Leach who has been manager of the Wedderburn Trading company at Wedderburn, left today on the Breakwater for Portland to visit there and at other points. He gave up the management of the business in Curry county this month and will take quite a vacation before returning there.

Buys Property.—It is reported that T. C. Bristol, a member of the Eugene police force who has been spending his vacation here with Mrs. Bristol, bought the lot north of the C. A. Johnson store, on Front street, from T. C. Russell for about $5000. Mr. Russell recently bought the property, which is about 40 x 150.

Lost Fingers.—Wm. Cribbins, of Coaledo, who had his hand caught in the line at the Smith-Powers camp there, will lose the ends of four fingers. The injury is a most painful one. He was brought to Mercy Hospital. The accident occurred a few days after the advent of a child in the McCribbin home.

From Libby.—J. B. Sneddon says that Joe Vaise, claimant for the lightweight pugilistic championship of Canada, is a former Libby boy, having moved with his parents from Libby to Renton, Wash., where he made his home until he began to show himself to be an adept with the gloves. He is scheduled to meet Joe Bailey for the Canada lightweight championship at Vancouver, B. C., about August 1.

Gets Contract.—T. C. Russell was in from Beaver Hill today to close up with J. F. Telander on the contract for the new brick veneer block which he will erect at the corner of Second and Central. Mr. Telander was second lowest bidder and agreed to complete the structure in six weeks while Ladd & Harris, the lowest bidders, wanted two months in which to do the work. The structure will be one story, 50 x 100, and will have five store rooms facing Central avenue. Mr. Telander, who has been doing such excellent work in the contracting line here, promises to make it one of the most attractive of the smaller business blocks erected here.
