Expense Stops When Your Cooking Stops

That is one of the big advantages of the

New Perfection
WICK BLUE FLAME
Oil Cook-stove

When you are through cooking you simply turn out the flame. There is no waste of fuel. And yet you can have full heat again when it's wanted, by merely striking a match.

The NEW PERFECTION COOK STOVE is much neater and cleaner than an ordinary range; no dirty fuel; no ashes. Ask your dealer for the New Perfection Stove. It bakes, broils, roasts or toasts.

SPORTING VACATIONS
"LEARN ONE THING EVERY DAY"

No. 6. CANOEING.
Copyright, 1913, by The Associated Newspaper School, Inc.

ENTS and poles and provisions and all the necessary paraphernalia have been stowed away in your canoe; you pause a moment to think whether you have forgotten anything; your companion is seated in the stern, holding to the bank with his paddle. You step gently into the bow, pick up your paddle, the canoe and you are off. Two weeks in your tiny floating home to go where and when you will! The very thought of it makes you want to sing with joy. You need not worry about paddling down stream, for it is easy work, and all there is to do is to steer clear of logs and overhanging trees and shoal rapids. The water laps musically against the rocks, and a gentle breeze adds greatly to your comfort. Softly the banks glide past, with their wealth of deep forest shade and the countless cozy little nooks where you would like to linger.

At the first turn, where the river widens, a blue heron rises clumsily and wings ponderously over the trees, with outstretched neck and legs, and you easily snap him with the camera.

Farther on, a pair of ducks skim swiftly along the water, and, rising, circle with whistling wing-beats back to where you started from.

In the next quiet spot, where the banks are low and marshy, a muskrat swims swiftly and silently across in front of you.

Gradually the stream becomes swifter, and there, below, is the first danger spot in the trip, where the water rushes in among the rocks with a roar and much foaming and fretting. You both are all attention now. Keeping close to the left bank, in a flash you are in the rapids, and are borne swiftly down, carefully guiding the little craft past rough spots. One or two quick turns give the experience plenty of excitement, and then, almost before you realize it, you are floating quietly on the river below, and the rapids are behind you.

This is a rare spot to take a fish for dinner. And with the first cast you know that you have made no mistake, for the fly disappears with the quickness of magic, and instantly you are playing a fine brook trout. Another, and then two more, and you have enough.

Landing beside an ancient oak, and near a clear, welling spring of cold water, you prepare to make camp. The tent is pitched, boughs are cut, a fire is kindled and soon the pleasant sound of frying fish and the unequalled odor of coffee greet you.

And the best part of all is that as you quietly stretch out near the fire you know that tomorrow holds still more delights.

Every day a different human interest story will appear in The Times. You can get a beautiful intaglio reproduction of this picture, with five others, equally attractive, 7 by 9 1/2 inches in size, with this week's "Mentor." In "The Mentor" a well known authority covers the subject of the pictures and stories of the week. Readers of The Times and "The Mentor" will know Art, Literature, History, Science, and Travel, and own exquisite pictures. On sale at The Times office. Price fifteen cents. REV. BROWNING TALKS SUNDAY

WILL DELIVER ADDRESS AT UNION SERVICES AT MASONIC OPERA HOUSE TOMORROW NIGHT—BIG CHOIR ARRANGED.

There is a growing interest in the Sunday evening services which are being held during the months of July and August in the Opera House and participated in by a number of the churches of Marshfield. The attendance last Sunday evening taxed the entire lower part of the house. A choir, composed of about 40 male voices, led in the singing assisted by a portion of the Coos Bay Band.

A feature of tomorrow evening's service will be special violin solos by Prof. Keyzer and it is expected that a large number will help in the voluntary choir. The aim in these informal gatherings, which do not purport to take place of regular church services, has been to influence the outsider who is more or less prejudiced against church attendance, and the result thus far has been most satisfactory, as seen in the increasing attendance. The addresses delivered by the various clergymen of the city churches are on timely gospel themes. The following program has been arranged for tomorrow evening:

Processional—"Onward Christian Soldiers" Rev. Cooley
Prayer Prof. Keyzer,
Mrs. L. K. Ballinger, accompanist
Scripture Lesson Rev. Burkhardt
Hymn—"Rock of Ages"
Announcements Rev. Doward
Offertory—Solo Prof. Keyzer
Address—Rev. Robert E. Browning
Hymn—"There is a Fountain Filled With Blood"
Benediction Rev. Gardiner
Recessional hymn—"Abide With Me" by Prof. Keyzer accompanied by Mrs. Ballinger
Special Music.

The male chorus feature at the big union meeting at the Opera House last Sunday evening at 8 o'clock proved so successful that the committee in charge of arrangements for the meeting this week have requested W. A. Reid and L. W. Traver having this feature in charge last week, to direct the music for the service Sunday evening. The male quartet will render special selections and will be assisted in the musical program by a full chorus of male voices. The quartet is composed as follows: W. A. Reid, first tenor; L. W. Traver, second tenor; Snyder Immel, first bass and Milo Sumner, second base.
