be enjoyed on an excellent pavilion that has been built. Special boat service has been provided between nearly all points on the Bay and the grounds, both going and coming, and light refreshments will be served on the grounds for those who do not bring their lunch baskets.

PLAN FOR PICNIC.

The Ladies Art Club will hold their annual picnic Sunday, August 10, at Charleston Bay. The members and their families will participate in the big doings.

CLUB PICNIC.

Mrs. W. E. Dungan was hostess to the Royal Auction Bridge Club Thursday afternoon at the A. P. Owen summer home on South Coos River.

The party left on the early morning boat and on their arrival at dinner to an old fashioned chicken dinner. The natural attractive decorations were made more attractive by numbers of Japanese lanterns hanging in the trees and on the veranda.

In the afternoon the Maze guests joined the group, some playing cards, others enjoying the numerous cutting sports.

At cards, Mrs. A. T. Haines won the first prize, which was a willow basket, the handwork of the hostess, filled with maiden hair ferns.

In the late afternoon refreshments were served by Mrs. Dungan, assisted by Mrs. J. H. Milner and Mrs. F. K. Gettins.

Those enjoying Mrs. Dungan's hospitality were: Mrs. A. I. Houseworth, Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer, Mrs. F. K. Gettins, Mrs. J. H. Milner, Mrs. Chas. McKnight, Miss Shonkweiler, Mrs. Fred Powers, Mrs. W. B. Scott, Mrs. Catron, Mrs. J. T. McCormac and Mrs. A. T. Haines.

The Maze guests were Mrs. E. O'Connell, Mrs. Alice Ford, Mrs. DuBell, Mrs. D. C. Green, Mrs. E. K. Jones, Mrs. William Ford and Mrs. Arthur McKeown.

AUTO TRIPS.

Tom Bennett, George Sheridan, Miss Mildred Waite, Miss Madge Barry and Mrs. R. K. Booth returned Thursday evening in their auto from Sutherlin where they went to bring Miss Waite to the Bay for a short stay. They spent one day at the F. B. Waite home in Roseburg. The trip home was a hard one, a heavy rain having made the mountain road very slippery for auto travel and compelling the passengers to walk on some of the steep hills.

Owing to the heavy rains making the road hard to travel, E. S. Bargelt and wife, J. Albert Matson and son, Julius, and Miss Grace Kruse did not leave until today for their auto trip to Medford and Crater Lake.

J. T. Harrigan and wife and daughter, Mabel, and Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Perry left Tuesday in the Harrigan auto for Jacksonville and Medford.

HONORS MRS. HAPPY.

Mrs. G. W. Kaufman will entertain Monday afternoon complimentary ry to her mother, Mrs. Cyrus Happy of Spokane, who is spending the summer with her.

CHURCH PICNICS.

The annual picnic of the Marshfield Baptist church was held Wednesday at Charleston Bay, 167 participating in its pleasures. The details of the fine outing were given in Thursday's Times.

The Marshfield Methodist Sunday School held their annual picnic yesterday afternoon at Pipers Grove. The steamer Alert carried the crowd between 75 or 100 attending.

The day was spent in games and races. The committee in charge being Frank Sumner, Milo Sumner and E. H. Campbell.

The Sunday School of the Christian church enjoyed a picnic to Sunset Bay last Thursday which was voted by all present to be the most successful affair of the kind given by the Christian church. The start was made at 6 o'clock from the W. A. Reid home on Central avenue. The committee in charge was Rev. Doward, Sydney Immel, Mrs. Yake, H. W. Painter and W. A. Reid.

After reaching the Bay, side excursions were made to Shore Acres and the lighthouse, where Capt. Dunson contributed much to the pleasure of the day. After a generous lunch the afternoon was spent on the beach, the crowd returning at twilight.

Besides the children of the classes, the teachers present were: Mrs. Doward, John Motley, Sydney Immel, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Immel and Miss Besse Immel.

M. E. BROTHERHOOD.

The Methodist Brotherhood held their monthly meeting at the home of G. N. Bolt on South Second street last Wednesday evening.

Reports from the various committees were listened to and it was decided that the Brotherhood should go to Coaledo August 2nd for the purpose of assisting in the organization of a Sunday School.

After the business session, a social evening was enjoyed, when the host assisted by his sons, Eric and Ed, served refreshments to the guests.

BRIDAL COUPLE.

Rev. J. V. Benson and bride left Chicago July 24 for Marshfield and will reach here on the next Breakwater. Rev. Benson is the new pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church and will preach his first sermon Sunday, August 3. Rev. Benson and wife will be the guests at the Eric Johnson home until their apartments are furnished.

WED IN SEPTEMBER.

Announcement was made today of the engagement of Miss Hazel Clare Provart and Neil H. McMullen, manager of the Coos Bay branch of the Union Meat Company. Miss Provart left today for Duquoin, Ill., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. S. B. Ward, and will return to Portland about September 1, where she and Mr. McMullen will be married.

ried. Miss Provart was an instructor in the Coos Bay Business College and since her arrival on the Bay has won many friends who will unite in congratulating Mr. McMullen, one of Coos Bay's most prominent young business men, upon the success that Cupid has brought him.

ORPHEUM CIRCUIT.

Miss Edna Hawkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Blivens, left this week for Portland to join a juvenile company which has been engaged for the Orpheum vaudeville circuit. The company was selected by Nan Standborg, who has been in charge of the women's department of one of the Portland papers and consists of the pick of the younger talent of the Northwest. Miss Hawkman's exhibition dates in Portland a few years ago won her the place, she being repeatedly urged by telegram before her parents permitted her to go. Her cleverness assures her of the success which her many Marshfield friends will wish her.
