MULHALL BITTERLY DENOUNCED BY UNDERWOOD AT HEARING

Democratic Leader in House Characterizes Him as "Liar and Blackmailer."

EVER TALKED TO HIM

all Says That Congress-Leaders Refused His Lobby Revelations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29.—

House Leader Oscar W. Underwood today denounced

W. Mulhall, lobbyist, as a blackmailer. Underwood before the Senate lobby committee to deny that Mulhall had talked to him about legislation in Congress. After one look at Underwood said, "I never met him before in my life."

Mulhall testified that he made his deal with Wilson, now secretary of the Interior, personally, and to Clark and to a letter through Representative Dermott of Illinois. He testified that he also offered his services to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of and Gompers declined it.

Underwood read Mulhall's letter in the alleged interview in which Mulhall wrote that Underwood had promised him that he could do otherwise than appoint Wm. B. Wilson, now secretary of Labor, chairman of the labor committee, because there was no other candidate before the committee.

Underwood said that the whole statement is a lie out of whole cloth," said Underwood.

"I never was a question about Wilson's selection as head of that committee, solely because of his ability and qualifications. It is to me that this man was down right in the middle of things, his position being made out that he was a great thing. He never had any conference with me. The statement in his letter can be disproved by any member of the House ways and means committee. I am sure that I never met this man. He has no record to speak of."

Mulhall reiterated that he had written Underwood briefly in the corridor and had written to Underwood "about conditions just as they were in Washington at that time," Mulhall said at one time he had an investigation of the actions of Mulhall for the National Association of Manufacturers to Chairman Wilson of the labor committee. Speaker Clark and other leaders Mann and all others had him down.

SAYS ANOTHER STOLE HUBBY

Mrs. Jennie M. Stewart Accuses Mrs. Wilson and Wilson Accuses Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. Jennie M. Stewart, formerly of Bangor but now proprietor of the lodging house on North Second street, stated today that her heart was broken because another woman had stolen her husband. She was planning to consult the officers about the matter and see what could be done.

She states that Sunday she met

Geo. W. Stewart and Mrs. Wilson in a restaurant. Previously Mrs. Wilson, she says, had threatened to steal her husband.

"What are you doing with my husband," Mrs. Stewart says she inquired.

"I used to be but I ain't any more," she says Stewart replied.

"This was too much for Mrs. Stewart and she started in and she says, blacked Mrs. Wilson's eye.

"I have known Mrs. Wilson since she was a baby," said Mrs. Stewart today. "Her folks lived at North Powder, near Baker City. A few months ago, I saw an item in the paper about her inheriting a considerable sum of money from her father and I recognized that she was the little girl that I formerly knew. I went to call on her in June and Mr.

Stewart later accompanied me there.

"This was the beginning of my trouble."

No formal complaints or papers have been filed in the case yet. However, it is stated that Mrs. Stewart is preparing to begin action for heavy damages from Mrs. Wilson for alienating her husband's affections.

Stewart has been employed recently at the Blauco Hotel.

Mr. Wilson's Statement.

H. H. Wilson, who is head of the Coos Bay Monument Company and a well known Marshfield citizen, stated this afternoon that there was nothing to Mrs. Stewart's story about his wife.

"The whole thing is a scheme against us," said Mr. Wilson. "My wife recently inherited some money and I have heard that Mrs. Stewart was going to sue her for a large sum on some grounds.

"We don't want anything to do with them and I have given the Stewart's notice to keep away from our place and not to bother Mrs.

Wilson. We used to know of Mrs.

Stewart in Eastern Oregon. She was formerly Miss Huntsucker.

Later she married but there was trouble and now she is married to Stewart. We didn't invite them to come to our place in the first

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

A Republican filibuster which has been tied up all business in the House more than a week, accomplished its purpose today, when the Democrats granted five hours to debate on the Diggs-Caminetti white slave em-broglio. At the close of the debate, Kahn's resolution, calling for McReynolds's telegram to the District Attorney will be tabled as the telegram has already been published.

Attorney General McReynolds issued today an emphatic denial of the published reports that he had construed the Mann white slave act in such a manner that the Diggs-Caminetti cases might not be brought to trial, or that he had instructed United States Attorneys to confine their enforcement of the law to cases of commercialized violations of the act. "These statements are wholly incorrect," said Attorney General McReynolds. He said he had placed no construction on the law which would interfere with the prosecution in the Diggs-Caminetti case set for trial August 5.
