The Pendleton cowboys are going through to Marshfield and other cities on the coast to put on exhibitions during the Coos County fair. They have showed in Corvallis, Cottage Grove and other places along the line with great results. They have with them 16 outlaw horses which they have brought with them and have picked upon the road. Beyond a doubt the famous drunken ride and the steer bull-dogging is worth the price of admission.

Persons arriving here today claim to have met James Donahew and party en route for Bandon, in Brewster Canyon, Tuesday. At that time the party was camped and was enjoying the fishing so abundant in that section of the state. Before returning home two weeks hence Mr. Donahew and party will visit a number of coast cities, including Marshfield, Coquille and Myrtle Point.

COYOTE HERDS GOATS.

A few days ago the editor of the Globe in company with Prof. R. D. Hewitt, went to the hills on a short prospecting trip. In passing over Jesse Turner's Grizzly Camp sheep range, we caught a thief in the act of driving off about 40 head of Mr. Turner's goats. It was of the wolf species commonly known as a coyote. He was driving the goats across the prairie as proficiently as any trained shepherd. His attention was so intent on his work that he did not discover us at all, but drove the goats toward us, within a few paces, when a bullet from Hewitt's rifle put an end to his thievery.—Gold Beach Globe.

AUTOISTS WERE LOST.

Two automobilists, N. T. Wallock and William Dalby, of Seattle, arrived here from Myrtle Point about 9 o'clock this morning, after nearly an all-night drive. Yesterday morning at 8 o'clock they left here on the western road, but owing to the lack of sign boards they took a different road than they intended, which led to Myrtle Point and about 50 miles out of their way. They wished to make time back to Roseburg and on account of the roughness of the roads, which they pronounce the worst they ever saw, arrived here with a broken rear spring and much other small damage.—Roseburg Review.

There were a number of blueback salmon in the bay last Friday, and some good catches were made with trolls. Do the Youngsters Read The Advertisements?

Indeed they do—some of them. That is, some of the advertisements. Every real boy is interested in outdoor sport—baseball, tennis, walking, running, fishing, swimming and everything else that the summer season brings along. He needs ever so many things, and he buys at such stores as advertise in papers like THE TIMES. Girls, too, are interested in advertising. For girls like to play tennis; they love bathing, walking, riding, and all other forms of healthy outdoor life. All of which means that they must have suitable toggery, and that they will buy from merchants who cater suitably to their needs. It will pay merchants at this season to dwell upon the requirements of young people, and it will likewise pay young people to follow the advertising of local merchants. A tip in time saves money.

Definite Privileges

WHEN you bring money to the counter of this bank and receive in exchange a "checking account" pass book, you are doing more than placing your funds in safe keeping.

You are employing, without cost to you, RESPONSIBLE AGENTS, whose services are those of experts.

From the first day you begin a checking account, you have the use of some definite privileges.

You wish to pay a debt. The person to receive the money may be across the street, or several miles away. You may never have seen him.

But you write a check in his favor. You may carry it to him. If he is not there, you can leave it—no one can use it until the one it is payable to has properly endorsed it. If he is at a distance, you can mail it at the nearest box or give it to the carrier. When it comes back to you, it will carry an "iron-clad" receipt on the back.

You can pay out $38.92 as easily as a single dollar—no change to wait for. Having to remember what you paid out is done away with. You have a double record—your checks and your stubs.
