solved and each will practice independently henceforth.

Leave on Auto.—Among those leaving on the Marshfield-Roseburg auto line this morning were Mrs. M. M. Arnot and child, of North Bend; Mr. Latture, O. L. Grover, Charles Fensler.

Gets Insurance.—Duncan Ferguson, agent for the Agricultural Insurance company, today adjusted the loss of J. N. Burke, whose house was damaged by fire in Ferndale last Sunday, for $100.

Given Time.—The Eastside City Council's ordinance forbidding the storing of powder and other high explosives on the waterfront allows the owners of the present powder houses thirty days in which to vacate.

Buried in Washington.—Archibald Gilfillan, the timberman who dropped to death out of a Portland hotel window soon after his arrival there from Coos Bay, was taken to Castle Rock, Wash., by a son, F. S. Gilfillan, for burial.

Duck Season.—I. R. Tower who has been investigating the conflict of the state and federal game laws says that as near as can be ascertained the federal game law provides for duck shooting from September 16 to December 16, thus shortening the Oregon season sixteen days. The state law provides for duck shooting from September 1 to December 31.

Seeks Location.—Mr. Rhodes who has been identified with the First National Bank of San Diego is spending a week or so on the Bay looking this section over with a view to becoming interested here. He was in poor health and is seeking a new location. It was stated that he was planning on establishing a bank in this section, possibly in Marshfield.

Married Here.—Wm. Ingersoll, a well-known Ten Mile rancher and Miss Rose MacDonald, of Black Creek, were married here last evening, the Rev. Father A. R. Munro officiating. Chas. Kronholm and Miss LaBlanche Hall of Roseburg, were the witnesses. The bride is the daughter of the late A. R. MacDonald. They will reside at Ten Mile.

Affects Seymour Bell.—The U. S. Government has brought suit to recover twenty-six timber claims in Baker County, valued at $3000 each, from the Hewitt Land Company, of Tacoma, Wash. The Government alleges the claims were obtained by fraud. The claims are understood to have been secured by Seymour H. Bell, of Coos Bay, for himself, and Henry Hewitt, Jr., of Tacoma.

Case Puzzles.—Robert Dillard today received a letter from his mother stating that there is little change in the condition of S. Lando who is at Lane hospital in San Francisco receiving medical treatment. Mrs. Lando says that Mr. Lando's condition is puzzling the specialists and that they have decided that he is not suffering from tumor for which they first proposed to operate.

Bankruptcy Matters.—Claude Nasburg has been appointed trustee in the George T. Coleman bankruptcy case. Mr. Coleman was formerly engaged in the blacksmithing business on North Front street. The old bankruptcy case of L. A. Frye, who failed in the clothing business at North Bend a couple of years ago, will come up next Monday for the final discharge of Frye, who is now in Southern Oregon.
