ACT FOR THE FUTURE.

THE action of President Wilson in refusal to recognize the Huerta administration in Mexico is one that will meet the approval of every citizen who has given the Mexican situation any thought.

The one thing plain is that it would be cowardly for the United States to recognize the present administration in that unhappy country.

Not only does Huerta wear a bloody crown, but pacification under him means everything the liberal uprising was to overcome.

To what end did this country drive Spain out of Cuba if Weylerism is to be sustained in a nearby neighbor by our friendly recognition?

A few million dollars of American property might be temporarily conserved, but in the long run, what will American investment in Mexico mean under Huerta?

Just as we should have saved time by taking advantage of the first opportunity to notify Mexico of the responsibility this country feels for the maintenance of law and order, so now we shall save time by insisting that readjustment when it comes must be such as this country can frankly and honorably recognize.

The Huertas of the whole Western Continent should be taught a lesson, now that it is up to the United States to do something.

HE SHOULD STAY THERE.

Dr. Leach, recently banished from Bandon by citizens of that city, accused of insulting the flag and being a generally undesirable citizen, is in Salem and says he likes the place. Well, there isn't anything peculiar about that. Many people seem to like Salem. But, does the doctor mean that he finds congenial spirits in the Capital city?

WITH THE TOAST AND THE TEA

THE QUIET OBSERVER SAYS:

After listening to the chin music of some "promoters" who come to Coos Bay, one can't help wondering what a become of the guy who put the hum in humbug.

DOCTORS TELL US THERE IS LITTLE OR NO PAIN ATTENDING THE AMPUTATION OF A LEG.

The average man is a guy who believes he is better than his neighbors.

ANY OLD RUMMY CAN BE A CRITIC, BUT IT TAKES PATIENCE TO TRAIN A SEA HON.

The reason some women don't want children is because if they had them they wouldn't be able to attend the Mothers' meetings at the club.

THE WORLD IS 800,000,000 YEARS OLD, BUT LETS OF MEN BELIEVE THAT IF THEY BLOW THEIR JOBS TODAY THE BLAMED UNIVERSE WOULD QUIT REVOLVING.

THE NIGHTS ARE SUPPOSED TO BE GETTING LONGER, BUT THE ROOSTERS START CROWING JUST AS EARLY IN THE MORNING.

PEOPLE WHO LIKE TO TALK ABOUT THE WEATHER HAD PLenty OF IT TO DISCUSS DURING THE PAST WEEK.

A GINK INTERESTED IN ANATOMY WANTS TO KNOW IF HAMMER TOES ARE WHAT CAUSE KNOCK KNEES.

AS THEY SAY, I GUESS I'LL STICK AROUND, AS THE SLY SAID WHEN HE FELL INTO THE STICKY FLY PAPER.

ONE THING IN FAVOR OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE IS THAT ELECTIONS ARE NOT HELD DURING THE CANNING SEASON.

NO WOMAN CAN MANAGE A MAN IF SHE LETS HIM KNOW SHE IS DOING IT.

LAQUA MADE FAST TRIP TO COOS BAY

The steamer Laqua arrived here from San Francisco yesterday and it is stated that she made the run in the record breaking time of twenty-seven hours. She brought a cargo of oil. She will sail from here tomorrow with passengers and freight. She has just been remodeled and has passenger accommodations for about ninety and is a very attractive craft.

Many Drunks.—Andrew Berg was fined $10; Wm. Burbeck $5 and Walter Armin $5 for drunkenness today. Ernest Felix and Lars Peterson were discharged. Si Avery was arrested today for drunkenness.

Hedgepath played with Coquille and is credited with four errors.

ASK IF THEY ARE I. W. W.

Judge Galloway Will Make Members of That Organization Give Extra Strong Proof.

ALBANY, Or., Aug. 4.—Applicants for citizenship in the Third Judicial District of this state will be asked hereafter if they are members of the Industrial Workers of the World and while an answer in the affirmative will not always bar admission it will cause very searching investigation of the applicant's record and habits.

This policy was announced by Judge William Galloway during the hearing of the petition for naturalization of Panagis Nick Palumis, a Greek, of Mill City. The Court asked him if he were a member of the Industrial Workers of the World and he answered negatively.

"I do not mean by this question which will hereafter be asked of all applicants," said Judge Galloway, "that membership in that organization absolutely bars a man from citizenship in this court, but if a member does apply he must furnish very strong proof that he possesses qualifications which entitle him to admission. Membership in that organization is almost prima facie evidence that a man is unfit for citizenship."

ONLY ONE WAY TO TREAT I. W. W.

(From Astoria Astorian.)

HERE is but one way in which to handle the I. W. W. Declare them anarchists, outright and man and woman operating upon their standards to a rigid accountability under every statute and ordinance violated. The country is fast coming to this alternative; every constitutional right we possess is being abused by this group of rioters whose cardinal slogan is one of sedition and industrial ruin. Their claim to the industrial title is a lie; they are stealing the thunder of the Socialists and living off the decent labor of the land; they are parasites of low instiner and purpose and since they have boldly announced their policy to be one of devastation they should be given the benefit of even more than the written law provides; they are revolutionists of the most rabid sort and the men and women who are already for revolution in the "reign of terror" in France, will know how to receive and rebuke these itinerant spoliators and industrial debauchers. A vigilance committee should meet them at every mile-post on their "road to ruin." They bear no burdens to which all are not subject.

SPLIT SKIRT RULES

Fall Fashions to Be More Extreme Than Ever.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Women are going to wear slit skirts this fall, also some chiffon and lace and ribbon and fur, but chiefly slits. The golden rule for the customer is: When in doubt, slit. The woman who is dressed up to date will have no difficulty in mounting the highest street-car step if there are plenty of policemen present to restrain the crowds.

Many of the costumes at the fall and winter fashion show, now being held in the Grand Central Palace, make a Broadway summer chorus look like a church social.

The skirts are all to a point above the knees, and the openings are not confined to the side, but are to be found both at the front and the back. The corseages of evening gowns are mere transparencies and evening cloaks are worn precariously over one shoulder, protecting neither the health nor modesty.

For instance, there's a tea trottery frock at the Fashion Show which has practically no skirt at all in front below the knees.

Another gown gives the impression—possibly an erroneous one—that if the owner walked a bit faster the two halves of the skirt would separate in the back up to the waist. Even at a snail's pace the slit extended above the knees in the back, and beginning at the waist line one lengthwise section of the skirt appeared to be laid over the other, disdaining all fastening.

PRIZE WINNERS IN FLOWER SHOW

More Than Two Score Exhibitors and Sixty Displays of Beautiful Flowers.

PRIZE WINNERS.

- No. 21.—Mrs. E. S. Bargelt, first prize, sweet peas.
No. 29.—Mrs. Jas. Rotandson, first prize, roses.
No. 23.—Mrs. Nortis Jensen, first prize, dahlias.
No. 17.—Mrs. W. B. Curtis, first prize, boquet.

COOS BAY'S first flower show every way—a success in attendance, interest and the number and beauty of the exhibits. It was a surprise not only to strangers, but to local residents, in the variety and beauty of the displays.

"I didn't know there were so many beautiful flowers grown here," was a frequent remark from many who had resided here for many years. A Portland traveling man, who was attracted by the exhibit, said he would like to send some of the dahlia exhibits to the Rose City just to show them what real dahlias were.

The showing was so much larger than expected that Mr. Parsons altered the provisions and added an additional prize and the Bradley Candy Company also gave a prize of a box of chocolates to each of the exhibitors. The prizes offered by the Lockhart-Parson's Company were made for the best exhibit in sweet peas, roses, dahlias and also for the best boquet, with the results as given above.

The judges were Prof. F. A. Tiedgen, Mrs. I. S. Kaufman and Mrs. M. C. Maloney.

The Exhibitors.

There were two score exhibitors and nearly three score of displays. Among the exhibitors were the following:

- Mrs. E. L. Bessey, Mrs. Nortis Jensen, Mrs. W. J. Butler, Mrs. R. B. Drews, Mrs. R. E. Pinegor, Frank Puzsley, Mrs. Robert Krueger, Mrs. E. A. Eickworth, Mrs. Elrod, Mrs. James Bennett, Elizabeth Flanagan, Phalia Fennell, Mrs. John Bear, Mrs. O. Hansen, Mrs. D. L. Rood, Mrs. W. B. Curtis, Mrs. A. J. Savage, Mrs. S. B. Cathcart, Martin Breen, Mrs. E. S. Bargelt, Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer, Frank Saechl, J. R. Clark, Mrs. Frank Denning, Miss Stella Christenson, Mrs. R. A. Copple, Miss Phoebe Smith, Mrs. W. R. Haines, Mrs. J. Morrissey, Miss Doris Sengstacken, E. H. Harkensee, Miss F. Larson, Mrs. Brownell, Mrs. W. S. Morton, Herman Stone, James T. Byers, Nell Banks, Mrs. Jas. Rotandson, Mrs. Fluelia Turner, Mrs. Nora Renschhausen, Mrs. C. W. Gardiner and Mrs. Kruse.

Every exhibitor must feel more than repaid in the fine showing made and it was one of the best and biggest boosts for Coos Bay in many days.

In order to show his ability as a swimmer, Samuel Finkleman of New York swam twelve miles, pulling after him a 200-pound boat in which four friends rode. The boat was attached to him by a harness over his shoulders. It took him 2 hours and 10 minutes.

BLESSINGS NEVER COME SINGLY

HERPICIDE AND BEAUTIFUL HAIR.

Having a head of nice hair is a blessing within the reach of any one who will use Newbro's Herpicide before the dandruff germ has denuded the scalp and left a condition of chronic baldness.

GOV. WEST ORDERS PROBE

the part of Marshfield officials to take such action subjects them to removal from office.

"Leaders of the mob are unquestionably open to arrest and prosecution and any failure on the part of local officials to act also will subject them to removal from office.

"I wish it to be distinctly understood that property rights in this state are going to be respected, and any I. W. W. who attempts to start any of his 'direct action' movements will have bad luck. On the other hand, the Al Powers must take notice that the rich mob is not going to rule in this state. If he expects protection for his property from this office he must come here with clean hands and show some regard for the law he invokes.

"The whole matter is being referred to the Attorney General with instructions to present the same to the Circuit Court of that district, with view of having the Sheriff removed from office.

One Justification for Mob.

"The only thing which could justify the mob would be the failure of local officials to enforce the law. If such was the case, then those who took part in the deportation movement undoubtedly will be willing to come forward and help make such a showing to the court in order that the delinquent officials may be removed.

"If no showing can be made as to the failure of Marshfield officials to enforce the law as to the I. W. W.'s and Dr. Leach, then it would be evident that there was no justification for the mob and it should have by all means been suppressed. A showing to the court that no effort was made by local officials to suppress this mob could result in nothing but finding that the law was not enforced. This would call for a removal of the delinquent officials."

TOM JAMES IS BACK ON BAY SUNDAY SCHOOL FOR COALS

Former Well-known Resident Returns to Locate Here—Roger Sherman to Return.

Tom James, formerly of North Bend and Marshfield, returned to the Bay on the Breakwater today from Portland where he has been employed on the Bull Run water supply the past two years. He was accompanied by Mrs. James and family and they will make their home here.

Mr. James says that Coos Bay is the only place and he would have been back long ago had Mrs. James' health permitted it. She is getting along nicely now and their five-months old son and little daughter are going to be brought up on Coos Bay, Tom says.

Mr. James has only made tentative arrangements for work here. Roger Sherman, who was formerly with him as agent for the Alliance here, has given up his position in a San Francisco bank and will probably be associated with Mr. James here again.

Rumors of additional steamer service to the Bay have been linked up with Mr. James' return, but the latter said they had nothing to give out. Mr. and Mrs. James were warmly welcomed today by their many old time friends on the Bay.

Rev. Fred W. Davis, Skyline Reorganizes Henryville On Sunday.

Rev. Fred W. Davis, the pastor of the Pacific Coast logging and road camp missionary work, today reorganized the Henryville Sunday School and moved it to Coos Bay. The new school starts with a membership of fifty and it is expected that this will increase when the chapel, now under way, is completed. Rev. Davis delivered a sermon and arranged for Sunday school to be held each Sunday afternoon 3 o'clock with occasional special service. It is interdenominational. Mrs. T. H. Williams was elected superintendent; Mrs. D. C. Moore, assistant and Mrs. Harbors, Secretary and Treasurer.

The new chapel will be built and the lumber required obtained by A. H. Powers of the Builders-Logging company. Besides the Sunday School, Rev. Davis arranged for a library service, under the Coos Bay Library Extension work, to be held Sunday School and the logging camps.
