 Rev. Clarke and wife are leaving for Pennsylvania. They have had a continual round of sickness since their arrival in Coquille. Mr. Clark will be greatly missed by the members of the Methodist Church.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

County Seat News as Told by The Sentinel.
 E. Coleman, who makes his home with John Yoakum, is recovering from injuries received while fishing ties in Conlogue Brothers' camp on the river. While using a steel wedge a splinter from the element struck him in the left leg.
 One McCormick, upon a request Mrs. McCormick, of Riverton, was denied Coquille booze, and all local saloons were ordered to be notified that he had been placed on the black list.
 There will be a big basket picnic in Coquille on Thursday, August 14, when several hundred farmers and their families will celebrate the anniversary of the Farmers' Union organization in Coos County. The affair is in charge of Messrs. W. C. Case, O. A. Mintoyne, Frank Burkholder, Felix Hull and B. Bartlett.

BANDON BOY SCOUTS.

Hike from City-by-the-Sea to Roseburg.
 It is the plan of the Boy Scouts of Bandon to start next Monday morning on their cross country hike to Roseburg. The troop will leave Bandon on the Dispatch, and will start from Coquille to Myrtle Point. Myrtle Point Monday evening a meeting of the Boy Scouts will be held in the interests of the Myrtle Point Scouts. At this meeting Scout Commissioner Steele and Scout Master Hartranft of Bandon, will make addresses.
 The troop will leave Bandon fully equipped for their long hike. They will wear the scout uniforms and each scout will carry his own camp outfit. Camp will be made on the aqua near Roseburg.
 Strict discipline will be maintained en route and in camp though excellent opportunity will be afforded the scouts to have a jolly time. They will come back much enriched by their two weeks' outing.—Bandon Recorder.

CLOSE HARE OFFICE.

MYRTLE POINT CANNERY.
 F. A. Turner, of Copalis, Wash., has been in this section for several weeks past and after sizing up the situation and talking with a large number of the vegetable and fruit growers of the Myrtle Point section has opened negotiations with the directors of the Myrtle Point Cannery Company, subject to the approval of the stockholders, whereby he will take over the plant which has not been in operation this season, for a period of five years. A meeting of the stockholders has been called for August 16 to consider Mr. Turner's proposition.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

ACCIDENT AT BANDON.

Deb Scott, Teamster, Quite Seriously Crushed by Piling.
 (Special to The Times.)
 BANDON, Or., Aug. 4.—Deb Scott, a teamster engaged in hauling piling for the Estabrook Company, met with quite a serious accident here. He was standing on his load while a large piling was being sawed in two, when it rolled, causing him to lose his balance. He fell to the wharf and the falling piling caught him about six inches above the knee. The flesh was terribly bruised and it was a miracle that the bone was not broken. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital where Dr. Leep attended him.
