Return to Bay.—Arno Meeen and Vernon Smith returned here yesterday on the Adeline Smith. Mr. Smith was not accompanied by his bride.

Large Blackberries.—Mrs. Fannie Hazard has some champion blackberries growing in her garden that measures two inches long and three inches in circumference. A sprig containing three berries this size is on exhibit in the Busy Corner window. Who can beat it?

Many Deer.—A. O. Kjeiland of Kentuck Inlet was a Marshfield visitor Saturday. He reports that there are quite a few deer in the hills near Kentuck Inlet.

Will Build.—Rube Lyons, of North Inlet, has purchased a half block in Ferndale, near the T. H. Barry residence, from Henry Sengstaken and will erect a home there. He plans to move to town so that his children can attend school here.

Plan Dance.—The North Inlet people are arranging to give a dance at the North Inlet pavilion next Saturday night and will have the launch Cooston make a special trip from Marshfield and North Bend to accommodate the people from the Bay who wish to attend.

Plan Picnic.—Rev. Father A. Munro has arranged for a picnic of the congregation of the Marshfield Catholic Church at Charleston Bay next Sunday. A number of boats have been chartered for the trip. The Socialists are planning a big picnic a week from Sunday which will probably be held at North Bend.

Ships Lumber.—D. D. Pierce, of the Coquille Mill and Mercantile Company, returned to Coquille Saturday after having supervised the loading of a big shipment of lumber from his mill on the steamer Hardy. Although the lumber market is not good, some contracts and the local demand at Coquille is giving them a good business.

Chimney Sweep Back.—George Stough, the well-known old man chimney sweep who has been coming to Coos Bay for many years, but has not been here for a couple of years, writes The Times from Myrtle Point that he will be in Marshfield in a few days. Since his last visit it was reported that he was dead, but his letter proves he is very much alive.

Meets Old Friends.—Jas. Watt Saturday met an old-time friend from Salem, Oregon. He was Wm. Seigmund, who, with his family and his brother-in-law, Mr. Barzee, and the latter's family, drove to North Bend in covered wagons. They have disposed of their business in Salem and plan to locate here. It has been ten years since Mr. Watt and Mr. Seigmund met.

Combs Escapes Rabies.—C. N. Combs, operator at the Cape Blanco wireless station, was in Coquille Tuesday on his way home from Portland whither he went to consult the State Board of Health. Mr. Combs was bitten on the hand by a dog, and fearing rabies hurried to the Oregon metropolis for medical treatment, which was, however, found unnecessary.—Coquille Sentinel.

Enjoy Outing.—A. Hansen took a merry party of South Marshfield people to Shore Acres in his auto truck yesterday. They had a delightful time, visiting the beach points and the lighthouse. Among those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dolan, Mrs. A. Blanchfield, Ed Mitchell, A. E. Glossop and family, A. O. Haas and family, Mrs. Wm. Escott, Jeanette and Sarah Escott.

Much Ragging.—The Suomi Society's annual picnic at Enegren's Grove yesterday did not draw as large an attendance as last year. Owing to the wet weather, the grounds were not in very good condition and dancing was about the only diversion afforded. The crowd and some of the members of the Suomi Society were very wroth over the large number who insisted on "ragging" and they could not stop them.

MANY ARRIVE ON BREAKWATER

Steamer in From Portland Early Today—Brings Railway Material Next Trip.

The Breakwater arrived in from Portland this morning with a good cargo and a large passenger list. She did not bring the railroad construction material owing to the S. P. Bridge in Portland being out of commission and not permitting them to get the stuff to the Breakwater dock. She will bring it next trip.

The following is a list of passengers arriving today on the Breakwater:

- Daisy Wardle, Mrs. Del Valle, C. C. Miller, T. B. James, Mrs. James, Laura James, J. M. Hoff, Mrs. Belgium, W. E. McClellan, Mrs. Seafume, W. F. Van Oasten, Mary Burke, F. Burke, Miss McNary, Miss Dyer, Miss Hinton, Miss Folrick, H. Britt, G. E. Robinson, H. Lyon, Mrs. Bubworth, Mrs. Britt, Jno. Grencuopudas, Mrs. Luther, N. J. Bailey, A. E. Datin, W. H. Williamson, Ernest Williamson, H. Bovill, I. Bovill, Miss Howell, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Bryant, C. M. Bryant, C. F. Passig, Mrs. Knight, Fred Knight, Mary Buegel, Annie Gibson, King Cole, Wm. Miller, E. Miller, P. Smith, Ivan Smith, Dr. D. T. Jay, Ernest Watson, C. W. Knight, Mr. McDaniels, L. Jorey, Mrs. Jorey, Miss Flueckinger, Mrs. Olson, Mrs. Frondone, Fayoe Frandone, Mrs. A. Dietz, Lula Goodman, Mrs. W. R. Miller, Mrs. Goodman, Mr. Flynn, Mr. McAllister, Mrs. Clonahue, Mrs. Barrett, W. L. Barrett, E. A. Meyer, W. Carey, A. H. Craver, F. T. Lond, L. W. Elderman, Mrs. Grimes, Mrs. Boggs, Evelyn Boggs, Mrs. Brodt, N. A. Leach, T. Russell, J. Poulas, W. Herber, P. H. Stevchens, A. Lothman, W. Lyons, H. Wallin, Mrs. G. Johnson, H. E. Gamble, J. W. Leighton, Carl Bloomquist, M. Peter.

Buy Lots.—Peter Mirrasoul has purchased a lot and a half on the Commercial avenue hill, just east of his home, from Mr. Humphreys, for whom I. S. Smith was the local agent. The property has sixty feet of frontage on Commercial and is 120 feet deep and the price was $1500. Mr. Mirrasoul is clearing it and will add it to the fine flower and vegetable garden he has around his home. He is also arranging to terrace the frontage of his property on Commercial and Fourteenth and will have one of the most sightly homes in West Marshfield.

Make Big Success.—F. L. Housley and E. W. Smith, two former well-known Coos Bay young men, have won new honors in the lumber business. Mr. Smith is the son of Levi Smith and is well known on the Bay. They are now with the Larsen Lumber Company, which operates the big Blodel Donovan mills in Washington. Mr. Housley has been advanced to logging superintendent of the company and E. W. Smith has succeeded him as foreman of the Alger camp, one of the most up-to-date and modern logging camps in the country. The American Lumberman, of Chicago, devotes several pages to a writeup of the company and its men, with pictures of the officers, including the two former Coos Bay men, and the plants.

"KING COLE" IN TOWN.
"Merry Old Soul" Arrives on Coos Bay on Mission of Merriment.
"King Cole is a merry old soul; A merry old soul is he; He called for cigars and he called for a bowl, And he called for Integridads three."
—Modern Version.
"King" Cole, of Portland, arrived on Coos Bay on a combined mission of merriment and business. He is also an old friend of J. W. Hildenbrand, but it is hard to believe that "Hilde" is his friend according to some of the stories he tells. "Hilde" says he has known King Cole for twenty years and never knew him to tell the truth. Cole says "Hilde" wouldn't know the truth if he heard it. "Hilde" says he isn't a king at all, but that's just his name. Cole wears an Elks' tooth that is the largest tooth ever taken from a bull Elk in or out of captivity. He represents La Integridad cigars—but that's only a side line. His main line is fun, fast and furious, and he always has his samples with him.

PERSONAL NOTES

AL NICHOLS and family, of Empire, were Marshfield visitors today.

FRED KRUSE and wife have returned from a short stay at his ranch near Bridge.

MRS. PLANK, of Washington, is spending the summer at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Curry.

NEIL H. M'ILLAN, of the Union Meat Company left yesterday for a trip to Coquille Valley points and will also make Langlois, Port Orford and other Curry County points.

A. N. SUMNER, one of the pioneers of Bandon, and father of Milo D. and Assistant Postmaster Frank Sumner arrived in the city today for a few days visit at the home of his sons.

MRS. J. E. WALLING and son, John, will leave this week for Portland to visit relatives. Mr. Walling will accompany them and look after matters connected with his proposed brickyard on Isthmus Inlet.

MISS LILLIAN McNARY, for ten years superintendent of the Salem Hospital, and her niece, Miss Elizabeth Dyer, arrived here today from Salem to visit at the home of Senator I. S. Smith. Miss McNary is a sister of Mrs. Smith.

ARCHIE JOHNSTON, representative of the Pacific Hardware Company, has had Eugene, Roseburg and Medford and intervening territory added to his present territory and will soon leave on his first trip over the new district.

MILTON SCHULTZ, Editor of the Enterprise, Myrtle Point, C. E. Mills of Coquille and Mr. Mills of Bandon constituted a delegation from the Coquille Valley to inspect the large new sign that has been erected by the Valley towns across the Bay.

FRED WEAVER and wife and baby, Miss Millie McIntosh and Vivian Carlson, left today for the Alfred Stora ranch above Allegany, where they will enjoy a two-weeks' outing. Fred was all prepared to take the deer that Mr. Stora had staked out for him.

S. P. KELLER, wife and baby, passed through here en route to Portland after spending the summer at Marshfield. At the latter city Mr. Keller played third base on the ball team. Mr. Keller is said to be there when it comes to playing ball, and his departure for Portland is regretted by the Coos County Fans.—Roseburg News.

L. W. ELLMAN arrived here today from Portland. He recently came north from Panama where he was employed for 5 years on the Panama Canal work. About 20,000 employees were released June 1 and 10,000 more on the first of July, the canal work being nearly completed. Mr. Ellman had heard much of Coos Bay and wants to locate here and says that if conditions are favorable, he will bring several others to the Bay from Panama.

AVIATOR IS BURNED. Oil Tank Exploded by Sudden Landing.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.]
BERLIN, Aug. 4.—An aviation pupil, named Brokes, died here today of burns received yesterday when the fuel tank of his aeroplane exploded after an abrupt landing at the Johannisthal aerodrome.
