THE BATHERS

—to the present generation bathing the body is as much a necessity as food and sleep.
—it was not always so—your grandfather can "remember when."
—comfort in the bath demands warm water.
—GAS WATER HEATERS SUPPLY
THIS DEMAND EFFICIENTLY AND ECONOMICALLY.
—if you want information about them,

The World's Best Meat

Is just good enough for our customers in our opinion. And a trial order will prove that we live up to our belief. Order a roast or a steak and prepare yourself for a treat for it will surely prove one when the meat appears on your table.

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of City-by-the-Sea as Told by The Recorder.

Wm. Logan is moving the old house from the front of H. C. Dipple's lot in West Bandon and will place the same on another of Mr.
Dipple's lots on Stillwell street.
The Dipple family are now nicely located in their new residence, which, by the way, is one of the finest in the city of Bandon and a credit to any city.

F. A. Golden, County Supervisor of Schools, has been in this section for a few days inspecting conditions in county schools near here.

J. D. Mills the genial clerk at the Hotel Gallier, is taking a vacation in San Francisco and "Pat" Rack-left is head clerk during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wade arrived here from Pendleton yesterday and are visiting their son C. R. Wade and family. This is the first time Mr. Wade, Sr., has seen his little grandson.

At a meeting last evening a resolution was passed by the Common Council directing the City Attorney to commence and institute proceedings in the fall term of Circuit Court to annul the franchise of the Bandon Water Company. A resolution was also passed directing the City Attorney to prepare the necessary resolution and legal papers providing for a municipal water system for the city of Bandon.

The health officer in regard to certain contagious diseases in the city, reported that all cases were duly under quarantine and were three in number of scarlet fever.

HORSE IS SUICIDE.

Oliver Spire's Fine Driver Kills Itself in Barn.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise says:
"Oliver Spire's fine driving horse committed suicide in its stall. In reaching over the manger for a particularly tempting morsel of hay, the animal dislodged a plank above it, which fell across its neck in such a manner that it could not extricate itself and soon strangled to death."

"A little son of Thomas Rigby, who is employed at the railroad camp near Harve Johnson's on the South Fork, was kicked by a colt and received a cut on one leg that required several stitches to close."

DON'T use a cough medicine that contains opium or morphine. It may stifle the cough, but it will constipate the bowels, keep the poison in the system, and NOT cure the cold.
Take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It contains no opiates, is soothing and healing, mildly laxative. It is a safe and curative medicine.
